full-time basis or at least six credits if enrolled on a part-time basis following the student's start date, or its equivalent, applicable to his or her program or programs of study except in limited circumstances as prescribed by the corporation in regulation. Notwithstanding, in the 5 student's last semester, the student may take at least one course needed to meet his or her graduation requirements and enroll in and complete 7 [at least twelve credit hours or its equivalent] as many credits as required to obtain his or her degree. For students who are disabled as 8 9 defined by the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 USC 12101, 10 the corporation shall prescribe rules and regulations that allow appli-11 cants who are disabled to be eligible for an award pursuant to this 12 section based on modified criteria; (d) has an adjusted gross income for the qualifying year, as such terms are defined in this subdivision, 13 14 equal to or less than: (i) one hundred thirty-five thousand dollars for 15 recipients receiving an award in the two thousand 16 twenty-one--two thousand [eighteen] twenty-two academic year; (ii) one 17 hundred [ten] fifty thousand dollars for recipients receiving an award in the two thousand [eighteen] twenty-two--two thousand [nineteen] twen-18 ty-three academic year; and (iii) one hundred [twenty-five] fifty thou-19 sand dollars for recipients receiving an award in the two thousand 20 21 [nineteen] twenty-three--two thousand [twenty-four academic year 22 and thereafter; and (e) complies with the applicable provisions of this 23 article and all requirements promulgated by the corporation for the administration of the program. Adjusted gross income shall be the total 24 25 of the combined adjusted gross income of the applicant and the appli-26 cant's parents or the applicant and the applicant's spouse, if married. 27 Qualifying year shall be the adjusted gross income as reported on the 28 federal income tax return, or as otherwise obtained by the corporation, 29 for the calendar year coinciding with the tax year established by the 30 U.S. department of education to qualify applicants for federal student 31 financial aid programs authorized by Title IV of the Higher Education 32 Act of nineteen hundred sixty-five, as amended, for the school year in 33 which application for assistance is made. Provided, however, if 34 applicant demonstrates to the corporation that there has been a change 35 in such applicant's adjusted gross income in the year(s) subsequent to 36 the qualifying year which would qualify such applicant for an award, the 37 corporation shall review and make a determination as to whether such applicant meets the requirement set forth in paragraph (d) of this 39 subdivision based on such year. Provided, further that such change was 40 caused by the death, permanent and total physical or mental disability, divorce, or separation by judicial decree or pursuant to an agreement of 41 42 separation which is filed with a court of competent jurisdiction of any 43 person whose income was required to be used to compute the applicant's 44 total adjusted gross income. 45

2. Amount. Within amounts appropriated therefor and based on availability of funds, awards shall be granted beginning with the two thousand [seventeen] twenty-three—two thousand [eighteen] twenty-four academic year and thereafter to applicants that the corporation has determined are eligible to receive such awards. The corporation shall grant such awards for full-time students in an amount up to five thousand five hundred dollars or actual tuition, whichever is less and for part-time students in an amount up to two thousand seven hundred fifty dollars or actual tuition, whichever is less; provided, however, (a) a student who receives educational grants and/or scholarships that cover the student's full cost of attendance shall not be eligible for an award under this program; and (b) an award under this program shall be applied to tuition after the application of payments received under the tuition assistance program pursuant to section six hundred sixty-seven of this 3 subpart, tuition credits pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a 4 this article, federal Pell grant pursuant to section one thousand 5 seventy of title twenty of the United States code, et seq., and any other program that covers the cost of attendance unless exclusively for 7 non-tuition expenses, and the award under this program shall be reduced in the amount equal to such payments, provided that the combined bene-9 fits do not exceed five thousand five hundred dollars. Upon notification 10 of an award under this program, the institution shall defer the amount 11 tuition. Notwithstanding paragraph h of subdivision two of section 12 three hundred fifty-five and paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section six thousand two hundred six of this chapter, and any other law, 13 14 rule or regulation to the contrary, the undergraduate tuition charged by 15 institution to recipients of an award shall not exceed the tuition 16 rate established by the institution for the two thousand [sixteen] twen-17 ty-two--two thousand [seventeen] twenty-three academic year provided, however, that in the two thousand [twenty-two] twenty-four--two thousand 18 [twenty-three] twenty-five academic year and every year thereafter, the 19 20 undergraduate tuition charged by the institution to recipients of an 21 award shall be reset to equal the tuition rate established by the insti-22 tution for the forthcoming academic year, provided further that the 23 tuition credit calculated pursuant to section six hundred eighty-nine-a this article shall be applied toward the tuition rate charged for 24 25 recipients of an award under this program. Provided further that the 26 state university of New York and the city university of New York shall 27 provide an additional tuition credit to students receiving an award 28 cover the remaining cost of tuition.

2-a. In the event that for any reason, the student does not receive his or her two-year, four-year or five-year degree or complete the BOCES or vocational program referred to in paragraph (g) of subdivision four of this section, the student shall not suffer any penalty with respect to the scholarship received under the excelsior scholarship program.

- 3. Duration. An eligible recipient shall not receive an award for more than [four] five academic years of full-time or ten academic years of part-time undergraduate study for a four-year degree or [five] six full-time or twelve part-time academic years if the program of study normally requires five years. An eligible recipient enrolled full-time in an eligible [two year] two-year program of study shall not receive an award for more than two and a half academic years and an eligible recipient enrolled part-time in an eligible two year program of study shall not receive an award for more than five academic years. Notwithstanding, such duration may be extended for an allowable interruption of study including, but not limited to, death of a family member, medical leave, military service, and parental leave, as established by the corporation in regulation.
- § 2. Subdivision 4 of section 669-h of the education law is amended by adding a new paragraph (g) to read as follows:
- (g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, an applicant who satisfied all other requirements of this section shall be eligible to receive an award pursuant to this section if such applicant is enrolled on at least a part-time basis or its equivalent in a board of educational services (BOCES) or other approved vocational program at a SUNY or CUNY community college as determined by the applicable educational authority. Within amounts appropriated therefor and based on availability of funds, awards shall be granted beginning with the two thousand twenty-three--two thousand twenty-four academic year and thereafter to applicants that the corporation has determined are eligible to receive such awards. The corporation shall grant such awards to eligible full-time and part-time students in accordance with subdivision three of this section. A recipient eligible for an award pursuant to this paragraph shall not receive an award for more than four academic years of full-time or eight academic years of part-time enrollment in such BOCES or other approved vocational program. Years enrolled are not required to be consecutive.

10 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to any 11 eligible applicant beginning with the 2023-2024 academic year.
