IN SENATE

January 11, 2023

Introduced by Sens. TEDISCO, HELMING, ORTT -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Finance

AN ACT to amend the executive law and the election law, in relation to prohibiting sex offenders who are on parole and in civil confinement from voting in certain elections

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 18-a
2 to read as follows:

3 § 18-a. Restriction on voting rights. A person who has been convicted
4 of an offense described in article one hundred thirty of the penal law
5 who has been: (i) discharged from imprisonment, by virtue of any parole,
6 conditional pardon or conditional commutation of his or her sentence;
7 and (ii) is committed to civil imprisonment in a hospital or institution
8 shall be prohibited from voting in any election held during the time of 9 his or her confinement to such hospital or institution.

10 § 2. Section 5-106 of the election law is amended by adding a new 11 subdivision 4-a to read as follows:

12 4-a. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions two, three and 13 four of this section, a person who has been convicted of an offense
14 described in article one hundred thirty of the penal law who has been:
15 (i) discharged from imprisonment, by virtue of any parole, conditional 16 pardon or conditional commutation of his or her sentence; and (ii) is 17 committed to civil imprisonment in a hospital or institution shall be 18 prohibited from voting in any election held during the time of his or 19 her confinement to such hospital or institution.

20 § 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 21 have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or 22 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 23 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed
24 on or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
