ION, MAY, PARKER, SEPULVEDA, STEC -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to physical therapy services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 23 of subsection (i) of section 3216 of the 2 insurance law, as added by chapter 593 of the laws of 2000, is amended
3 to read as follows:

4 (23) If a policy provides for reimbursement for physical and occupa-
5 tional therapy service which is within the lawful scope of practice of a 6 duly licensed physical or occupational therapist, an insured shall be 7 entitled to reimbursement for such service whether the said service is 8 performed by a physician or through a duly licensed physical or occupa-9 tional therapist, provided however, that nothing contained herein shall 10 be construed to impair any terms of such policy including appropriate 11 utilization review and the requirement that said service be performed 12 pursuant to a medical order, or a similar or related service of a physi-
13 cian. An insurer shall not impose a copayment or coinsurance amount 14 charged to the insured for services rendered for each date of service by 15 a physical therapist licensed under article one hundred thirty-six of 16 the education law or an occupational therapist licensed under article
17 one hundred fifty-six of the education law that is greater than the 18 copayment or coinsurance amount imposed on the insured for services
19 provided to the insured for an office visit for the service of a
20 licensed primary care physician or osteopath for the same or a similar 21 diagnosed condition even if a different nomenclature is used to describe
22 the condition for which the services are provided.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 § 2. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph 1 of subsection (f) of section 4235
2 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new clause (iii) to read as
3 follows:

4 (iii) a policy shall not impose a copayment or coinsurance amount
5 charged to the insured for services rendered for each date of service by
6 a physical therapist licensed under article one hundred thirty-six of 7 the education law or an occupational therapist licensed under article
8 one hundred fifty-six of the education law that is greater than the
9 copayment or coinsurance amount imposed on the insured for services
10 provided to the insured for an office visit for the service of a
11 licensed primary care physician or osteopath for the same or a similar
12 diagnosed condition even if a different nomenclature is used to describe
13 the condition for which the services are provided.

14 § 3. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph 4 of subsection (f) of section 4235
15 of the insurance law, as amended by chapter 593 of the laws of 2000, is 16 amended to read as follows:

17 (A) any physical and occupational therapy service which is within the 18 lawful scope of practice of a licensed physical and occupational thera-19 pist, a subscriber to such policy shall be entitled to reimbursement for 20 such service, whether the said service is performed by a physician or 21 licensed physical and occupational therapist pursuant to prescription or 22 referral by a physician. A policy shall not impose a copayment or coin-23 surance amount charged to the insured for services rendered for each 24 date of service by a physical therapist licensed under article one
25 hundred thirty-six of the education law or an occupational therapist 26 licensed under article one hundred fifty-six of the education law that 27 is greater than the copayment or coinsurance amount imposed on the 28 insured for services provided to the insured for an office visit for the 29 service of a licensed primary care physician or osteopath for the same 30 or a similar diagnosed condition even if a different nomenclature is 31 used to describe the condition for which the services are provided;

32 § 4. Subparagraph (G) of paragraph 1 of subsection (b) of section 4301
33 of the insurance law, as amended by chapter 593 of the laws of 2000, is
34 amended to read as follows:

35 (G) physical and occupational therapy care provided through licensed 36 physical and occupational therapists upon the prescription of a physi-
37 cian, provided, however, that no copayment or coinsurance amount charged 38 to the insured for services rendered for each date of service by a phys-39 ical therapist licensed under article one hundred thirty-six of the 40 education law or an occupational therapist licensed under article one 41 hundred fifty-six of the education law is greater than the copayment or 42 coinsurance amount imposed on the insured for services provided to the 43 insured for an office visit for the service of a licensed primary care
44 physician or osteopath for the same or a similar diagnosed condition 45 even if a different nomenclature is used to describe the condition for 46 which the services are provided,

47 § 5. Paragraph 13 of subsection (b) of section 4322 of the insurance 48 law, as added by chapter 504 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as 49 follows:

50 (13) Outpatient physical therapy up to ninety visits per condition per 51 calendar year, provided, however, that no copayment or coinsurance 52 amount charged to the insured for services rendered for each date of 53 service by a physical therapist licensed under article one hundred thir-
54 ty-six of the education law or an occupational therapist licensed under 55 article one hundred fifty-six of the education law is greater than the 56 copayment or coinsurance amount imposed on the insured for services

1 provided to the insured for an office visit for the service of a
2 licensed primary care physician or osteopath for the same or a similar
3 diagnosed condition even if a different nomenclature is used to describe
4 the condition for which the services are provided.

5 § 6. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 6 it shall have become a law.
