AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to the provision of end stage renal disease services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 15 of section 2801-a of the 2 public health law, as amended by chapter 492 of the laws of 2011, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 (a) Diagnostic or treatment centers established exclusively to provide 5 end stage renal disease services, including an ambulatory surgery center
6 established exclusively to create and maintain vascular access necessary 7 to dialyze patients with end stage renal disease, may be operated by 8 corporations and limited liability companies formed under the laws of 9 New York whose stockholders or members, as applicable, are not natural 10 persons if such corporations and limited liability companies and its 11 principal stockholders and members, as applicable, and controlling 12 persons comply with all applicable requirements of this section and 13 demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the public health and health plan-14 ning council, sufficient experience and expertise in delivering high 15 quality end stage renal disease care. For purposes of this subdivision, 16 the public health and health planning council shall adopt and amend 17 rules and regulations, notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of 18 this section, to address any matter it deems pertinent to the establish-19 ment and operation of diagnostic or treatment centers pursuant to this 20 subdivision; provided that such rules and regulations shall include, but 21 not be limited to provisions governing or relating to: (i) any direct or 22 indirect changes or transfers of ownership interests or voting rights in 23 such corporations and limited liability companies or their stockholders
24 or members, as applicable, and provide for public health and health
