AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to sale or rent of illegally converted dwellings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 443-b to read as follows:

§ 443-b. Sale or rent of property violating illegal conversion rules. No real estate broker, agent or salesperson shall list for sale, sell or offer to sell, or list for rent, rent or offer to rent any illegally converted dwelling. For the purposes of this section, an illegal conversion shall mean any change in the structural parts or existing facilities of any building, including, but not limited to, the subdivision of rooms, or erection or demolition of walls, or the moving of any building 10 from one location or position to another, in violation of any state or local law, ordinance, code or rule or regulation relating to real property, buildings or multiple dwellings.

vision four of section four hundred forty-two-h of this article, or for 2 a material misstatement in the application for such license, or if such licensee has been guilty of fraud or fraudulent practices, or for dishonest or misleading advertising, or has demonstrated untrustworthi-5 ness or incompetency to act as a real estate broker or salesperson, or for a violation of article fifteen of the executive law committed in 7 their capacity as a real estate broker or salesperson, as the case may be. Upon a finding that a broker, agent or salesperson has violated the 9 provisions of section four hundred forty-three-b of this article, the 10 department shall impose a fine of ten thousand dollars for a first 11 violation and a fine of fifteen thousand dollars for a second violation. 12 Upon a third violation of such section the department shall revoke the license issued under this article. In the case of a real estate broker 13 14 engaged in the business of a tenant relocator, untrustworthiness or 15 incompetency shall include engaging in any course of conduct including, but not limited to, the interruption or discontinuance of essential 16 17 building service, that interferes with or disturbs the peace, comfort, repose and quiet enjoyment of a tenant. 18 19 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
