- AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to studies to determine vacancy rates

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventyfour, is amended by adding four new subdivisions d, e, f, and g to read as follows:

5 d. When requested by a municipality or a designee, as a part of a 6 study to determine its vacancy rate, owners, or their agent, of housing 7 accommodations in the class of housing accommodations determined, shall 8 provide the most recent records of rent rolls and, if available, records 9 for the preceding thirty-six months. Such records shall include the 10 tenant's relevant information relating to finding the vacancy rate of 11 such municipality including but not limited to the name, address, and 12 amount paid or charged on a weekly, monthly, or annual basis for each occupied housing accommodation and which housing accommodations are 13 14 vacant at the time of the survey and available for rent. Such records 15 shall also include any housing accommodations that are vacant and not 16 available for rent and provide the reason why such unit is not available 17 for rent.

e. Refusal by an owner or their agent to participate in such vacancy survey and cooperate with the municipality or a designee in such vacancy survey, or submission of knowingly and intentionally false vacancy information may be deemed cause to deny a rental permit or certificate
