- 3 2. The president, in his discretion, is hereby empowered to make, amend and rescind, from time to time, regulations establishing a dental insurance plan which shall be a part of the health insurance plan authorized by this article. The president is hereby authorized and directed to provide in such regulations for participation in the dental insurance plan by retirees; provided, 16 however, that the claims experience for retirees shall be separately 17 rated and premiums established separate from other participants in the 18 plan and provided further that the full costs of participation in such 19 plan, including all administrative costs, shall be borne by such reti-21 rees. Considering the dental insurance plan as a whole, no regulation 22 enacted pursuant to this subdivision shall provide or permit a benefit 23 structure inconsistent with the most efficient and economical adminis-24 tration of such plan. 25
