No law enforcement officer or government official shall request, demand, and/or coerce any account holder to provide such account holder's account information.

- § 702.50 Law enforcement use of account information prohibited.
- No law enforcement officer or government official shall use any account information obtained in violation of section 702.40 of this article, including, but not limited to, by logging into an individual's account. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a law enforcement officer or government official from creating and maintaining accounts for personal use, provided that such accounts are not used in the scope of any law enforcement or investigative duties.
- 12 § 702.60 Fake accounts and collection of credentials; suppression of evidence.
- 14 1. Upon motion from a defendant, a court shall order that evidence be 15 suppressed or excluded if the court finds that such evidence:
 - (a) consists of a record acquired via a fake account;
- 17 (b) was obtained as a result of other records obtained via a fake account; or
- 19 (c) consists of a record, or was obtained as a result of other 20 records, acquired via account access credentials obtained in violation 21 of this article.
 - 2. This section shall apply regardless of any claim that the information or evidence is attenuated from an unlawful order or request, would inevitably have been discovered, or was simultaneously or subsequently obtained or reobtained through other means.
- 26 § 702.70 Fake accounts and collection of account information; private
 27 right of action.
- 1. Any individual whose account information, records, evidence, or other information were either accessed by any government entity or government official or by a third party at the request of a government entity or government official in violation of this article may institute a civil action against such government entity or government official for any or all of the following:
- (a) Ten thousand dollars per violation or actual damages, whichever is greater;
 - (b) Punitive damages;
 - (c) Injunctive or declaratory relief; and/or
 - (d) Any other relief the court deems proper.
- 2. In assessing the amount of punitive damages under this section, the court shall consider:
- 41 (a) The number of people whose electronic communication information 42 was disclosed;
- (b) The targeting of accounts with heightened privacy concerns, including, but not limited to, houses of worship, political organizations, and medical facilities, and individuals associated therewith; and
- 46 (c) The persistence of violations by the particular government entity 47 or government official.
- 48 3. In any action brought under this section, the court shall award 49 reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs to a prevailing plain-50 tiff.
- 51 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
