Introduced by Sen. JACKSON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Disabilities -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to determinations of appropriate educational programs for certain students in a school district in a city having a population of one million or more

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Item (i) of clause (b) of subparagraph 3 of paragraph b of 2 subdivision 1 of section 4402 of the education law, as amended by chap-
3 ter 378 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

4 (i) Make recommendations based upon a written evaluation setting forth 5 the reasons for the recommendations, to the child's parent or person in 6 parental relation and board of education or trustees as to appropriate 7 educational programs and placement in accordance with the provisions of 8 subdivision six of section forty-four hundred one-a of this article, and 9 as to the advisability of continuation, modification, or termination of 10 special class or program placements which evaluation shall be furnished 11 to the child's parent or person in parental relation together with the 12 recommendations provided, however that the committee may recommend a 13 placement in a school which uses psychotropic drugs only if such school 14 has a written policy pertaining to such use that is consistent with 15 subdivision four-a of section thirty-two hundred eight of this chapter 16 and that the parent or person in parental relation is given such written 17 policy at the time such recommendation is made. If such recommendation 18 is not acceptable to the parent or person in parental relation, such 19 parent or person in parental relation may appeal such recommendation as 20 provided for in section forty-four hundred four of this [~~chapter~~] arti-
21 cle. Provided, further, that in a school district in a city having a 22 population of one million or more an appeal by the parent or person in parental relation of such recommendation shall be resolved, either through the granting or denial of the appeal by an impartial hearing officer, or by a state review officer, or the signing of a settlement agreement between the parent or person in parental relation and the board of education of the school district in the city having a population of one million or more or a state agency, within any applicable time periods prescribed by federal law. Provided, further, that nothing in this item shall be deemed to prohibit any parent, person in parental relation or school district from seeking judicial review by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Upon the signing of a written settlement agreement between a child's parent or person in parental relation and the board of education of the school district in a city having a population of one million or more or a state agency, or the decision, order, or judgment of an impartial hearing officer, state review officer or a court finding that a unilateral parental placement was appropriate and that tuition payment should be granted for such unilateral placement, as provided by section 1412(a)(10)(c) of title 20 of the United States Code and the implementing federal regulations, the amount of such payment and the timeline or schedule for making such payment shall be set forth in any such settlement or decision, order, or judgment, and such payment shall be made in strict accordance with such timeline. A failure by such board of education to make such payment in strict accordance with such timeline shall be a violation of this subdivision.

§ 2. Section 4403 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 22 to read as follows:

22. The commissioner shall ensure that the implementation of any settlement, decision, order, or judgment, pursuant to item (i) of clause (b) of subparagraph three of paragraph b of subdivision one of section forty-four hundred two of this article, is timely implemented. The commissioner shall be empowered to take all actions necessary to effectuate such timely implementation, including, but not limited to, directing and compelling such district to implement immediately any such settlement, decision, order or judgment in accordance with the timelines established by this article. And it is further provided that if such district fails to timely make any payment required by such settlement, decision, order or judgment, the commissioner shall, in his or her sole discretion: (a) withhold from such district its share of the public money of the state pursuant to section three hundred six of this chapter; (b) withhold from such district all or a portion of its share of funds allocated to it pursuant to 20 U.S.C. sections 1411 and 1413 of the individuals with disabilities act; (c) impose up to nine percent interest per annum accruing from the date on which payment of such settlement, decision, order or judgment is late and continuing until it is fully paid, which shall be payable to the parent or person in parental relation; (d) report such district's non-compliance to the United States department of education; and/or (e) take any other action the commissioner deems appropriate pursuant to the powers vested in the commissioner by this chapter.

§ 3. Paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 4404 of the education law is amended by adding a new closing paragraph to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, in a school district in a city having a population of one million or more, upon the settlement of an impartial hearing or appeal therefrom, or upon the decision of an impartial hearing officer, state review officer or a court finding that a unilateral parental placement

1 was appropriate and that tuition payment and any other services and 2 costs should be granted for such unilateral placement, such settlement 3 agreement, decision, order or judgment shall continue in future years, 4 at the same percentage of the total tuition, services, and costs as the 5 previous year's payment, until the committee on special education deter-6 mines the child's needs can be met in another public or approved private 7 school program and revises the child's individualized education program 8 to recommend such placement; provided however that where the parent or 9 person in parental relation brings a due process proceeding to challenge 10 such revised placement, the unilateral parental placement for which 11 tuition payment and any other services or costs were granted or settled 12 upon, shall be the pendency placement, as provided in subdivision four 13 of this section.

14 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 15 the amendments to clause (b) of subparagraph 3 of paragraph b of subdi-16 vision 1 of section 4402 of the education law, made by section one of 17 this act, shall not affect the expiration of such clause and shall 18 expire therewith; provided, further, that the amendments to subdivision 19 1 of section 4404 of the education law, made by section three of this 20 act, shall not affect the expiration of such subdivision and shall 21 expire therewith.
