2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 18, 2023

Introduced by Sen. JACKSON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to preventing time limits being placed on standardized tests given in cities with a population of one million or more

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 2590-w to read as follows:

§ 2590-w. Time limits on certain tests. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, no state assessments, state-created tests, state administered tests, tests created by the city district or any other standardized tests or examinations administered by the city district shall be subject to any time limitation when such assessment, test or examination is administered to a student who attends the city district.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
