AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to expanding eligibility for victims and survivors of crime to access victim compensation funds by removing the mandatory law enforcement reporting requirement and providing alternative forms of evidence that would show that a qualifying crime was committed

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 621 of the execu-
2 tive law, as amended by chapter 710 of the laws of 1996, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 (a) an act committed in New York state which would, if committed by a 5 mentally competent criminally responsible adult, who has no legal 6 exemption or defense, constitute a crime as defined in and proscribed by 7 law, regardless of whether any suspect was arrested, charged, appre-
8 hended or prosecuted for the commission of the act or whether the claim-9 ant has interacted with a criminal justice agency investigating such 10 act; or

11 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 625 of the executive law, as amended by 12 section 10 of part A-1 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to 13 read as follows:

14 2. A claim must be filed by the claimant not later than [~~one-year~~] 15 three years after the occurrence or discovery of the crime upon which 16 such claim is based, [~~one-year~~] three years after a court finds a 17 lawsuit to be frivolous, or not later than [~~one-year~~] three years after 18 the death of the victim, provided, however, that upon good cause shown,

1 the office may extend the time for filing. The office shall extend the 2 time for filing where the claimant received no notice pursuant to 3 section six hundred twenty-five-a of this article and had no knowledge
4 of eligibility pursuant to section six hundred twenty-four of this arti-
5 cle.

6 § 3. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 627 of the executive 7 law, as added by section 18 of part A-1 of chapter 56 of the laws of 8 2010, is amended to read as follows:

9 (c) the investigation and determination of claims regardless of wheth-
10 er the alleged criminal has been arrested, charged, apprehended or pros-11 ecuted for or convicted of any crime based upon the same incident, or 12 has been acquitted, or found not guilty of the crime in question owing 13 to criminal irresponsibility or other legal exemption;

14 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 631 of the executive law, as separately
15 amended by chapters 189 and 295 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read 16 as follows:

17 1. No award shall be made unless the office finds that: (a) a crime
18 was committed[+]; (b) such crime directly resulted in personal physical 19 injury to or the exacerbation of a preexisting disability, or condition,
20 or death of, the victim[+]; and (c) either: (i) criminal justice agency
21 records show that such crime was [promptly] reported to the proper
22 authorities[+ and in no case may an award be made where the criminal 23 justice agency records show that such report was made more than one week
24 after the occurrence of such crime unless the office, for good cause
25 shown, finds the delay to have been justified. Notwithstanding the fore-26 going provisions of this subdivision, in cases involving an alleged sex 27 offense as contained in article one hundred thirty of the penal law or 28 incest as defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law 29 or labor trafficking as defined in section 135.35 of the penal law or 30 sex trafficking as defined in sections 230.34 and 230.34-a of the penal 31 law or an offense chargeable as a family offense as described in section 32 eight hundred twelve of the family court act or section 530.11 of the 33 criminal procedure law, the criminal justice agency report need only be 34 made] within a reasonable time considering all the circumstances, 35 including the victim's physical, emotional and mental condition and 36 family situation[+]; or (ii) satisfactory evidence is provided to show
37 that such crime occurred. Such evidence may include, but is not limited 38 to, one or more of the following:

39 (A) a written statement provided by a victim services provider who has 40 provided services to the victim of the crime, or other eligible claim-41 ants as identified in section six hundred twenty-four of this article, 42 in response to the impact of the qualifying crime;

43 (B) a statement provided by a witness to the qualifying crime;

44 (C) a statement from the victim attesting to the victim's personal 45 physical injury or the exacerbation of a preexisting disability, or 46 condition provided that the office shall not require the disclosure of 47 confidential information relating to such physical injury;

48 (D) a temporary or permanent restraining order or protective order
49 issued by a court to protect or separate the victim, or other eligible 50 claimants as identified in section six hundred twenty-four of this arti-
51 cle, from the person who is responsible for the qualifying crime;

52 (E) a statement from a licensed medical provider, physician's assist-53 ant, nurse practitioner or other person licensed to provide medical or 54 mental health care documenting that the victim experienced physical 55 injury or the exacerbation of a preexisting disability, or condition as 56 a result of the qualifying crime; or

1 (F) a video, audio, or photographic recording of the commission of the 2 qualifying crime.

3 For the purposes of this subdivision, "criminal justice agency" shall 4 include, but not be limited to, a police department, a district attor-
5 ney's office, and any other governmental agency having responsibility 6 for the enforcement of the criminal laws of the state provided, however,
7 that in cases involving such sex offense or family offense a criminal 8 justice agency shall also mean a family court, a governmental agency
9 responsible for child and/or adult protective services pursuant to title
10 six of article six of the social services law and/or title one of arti-
11 cle nine-B of the social services law, and any medical facility estab-
12 lished under the laws of the state that provides a forensic physical 13 examination for victims of rape and sexual assault.

14 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
