AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to employee representation of state employees designated managerial or confidential

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 208 of the civil service law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4-a to read as follows:

4-a. (a) Within thirty days of a public employee first being employed or reemployed by a public employer, or within thirty days of being promoted or transferred within the existing employing agency or a new employing agency, the public employer shall notify any organization incorporated prior to nineteen hundred eighty that exclusively advocates for public employees covered under section two hundred fourteen of this article, with the exception of collective negotiation, of the employee's name, address, job title, employing agency, department or other operating unit, and work location; and

(b) Within thirty days of providing notice in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a public employer shall allow a duly appointed representative of any organization incorporated prior to nineteen hundred eighty that exclusively advocates for public employees covered under section two hundred fourteen of this article, with the exception of collective negotiation, to meet with such employee for a reasonable amount of time during his or her work time without charge to leave credits, unless otherwise specified within an existing agreement, policy or procedure currently existing for public employees covered under section two hundred fourteen of this article, provided, however, that the arrange-

1 ments for such meeting must be scheduled in consultation with a desig-2 nated representative of the public employer; and

3 (c) Upon the request of any organization incorporated prior to nine-
4 teen hundred eighty that exclusively advocates for public employees 5 covered under section two hundred fourteen of this article, with the 6 exception of collective negotiation, and if the public employer conducts 7 new employee orientations, the public employer shall provide any organ-
8 ization incorporated prior to nineteen hundred eighty that exclusively 9 advocates for public employees covered under section two hundred four-10 teen of this article, with the exception of collective negotiation,
11 mandatory access to such new employee orientations. Such organization 12 shall receive not less than ten days' notice in advance of an orien-13 tation, except that a shorter notice may be provided in a specific 14 instance where there is an urgent need critical to the employer's oper-15 ations that was not reasonably foreseeable to provide such notice. The 16 structure, time, and manner of exclusive representative access shall be 17 determined through mutual agreement between such organization and the 18 employer.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
