Subdivisions 1, 2 and 3 of section 233 of the labor law, subdivi-3 sions 1 and 2 as amended by chapter 88 of the laws of 2021, subdivision 4 5 3 as added by chapter 777 of the laws of 1971, are amended and two new 6 subdivisions 5 and 6 are added to read as follows: In all cases where service work is being performed pursuant to a 7 1. 8 contract, or covered lease, or covered development project therefor the 9 contractor, or covered developer, or covered lessee or lessor, shall 10 keep original payrolls or transcripts thereof, subscribed and confirmed 11 by him as true, under penalties of perjury, showing the hours and days 12 worked by each employee, the craft, trade or occupation at which he was employed, and the wages paid. A covered developer or covered lessee or 13 14 lessor may satisfy this requirement by obtaining copies of employment 15 records from a covered employer. 16 2. Where the wages paid include sums which are not paid directly to 17 the workmen weekly and which are expended for supplements, the records required to be maintained shall include a record of such hourly payment 18 19 on behalf of such employees, the supplement for which such payment has 20 been made, and the name and address of the person to whom such payment 21 has been made. In all such cases, the contractor, or covered developer, or covered lessee or lessor, shall keep a true and inscribed copy of the 22 agreement under which such payments are made, a record of all net 23 payments made thereunder, and a list of all persons for whom such 24 25 payments are made. A covered developer, or covered lessee or lessor, may satisfy this requirement by obtaining copies of employment records from 26 27 a covered employer. 28 3. The covered devel-35 oper, or covered lessee or lessor shall obtain such records from any 36 covered employer and preserve such records for a period of six years 37 after the completion of the employee's work. 38 6. Failure to maintain such records as required by this section shall 39 create a rebuttable presumption that the building service employees were 40 not paid the wages and supplements required under this article. § 5. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 1 of section 234 of the labor law, 41 42 as added by chapter 777 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as 43 follows: 44 (f) to require a contractor, or covered developer, or covered lessee or lessor, to file with the fiscal officer a record of the wages actual-45 46 ly paid by such contractor, or covered developer, or covered lessee or 47 lessor, to the employees and of their hours of work; 48 § 6. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 235-a to read as 49 follows: 50 § 235-a. Investigations, hearings, and private right of action for 51 covered leases and covered development projects. 1. Whenever the fiscal 52 officer has reason to believe that a building service employee performing building service work in connection with a covered lease or covered 53 development project has been paid less than the applicable prevailing 54 wage and supplements, or upon receipt of a written complaint, the fiscal 55

1	officer shall conduct a special investigation to determine the facts
2	relating thereto.
3	2. If, despite the requirements of law, the fiscal officer has not
4	determined the prevailing wage as required in this article, the fiscal
5	officer shall determine in the proceeding before him or her the wages
б	prevailing at the time the work was performed for the crafts, trades, or
7	occupations of the employees involved.
8	3. In an investigation conducted under the provisions of this section,
9	the inquiry of the fiscal officer shall not extend to work performed
10	more than three years prior to: (a) the filing of the complaint; or (b)
11	the commencement of the investigation upon the fiscal officer's own
12	violation, whichever occurs first.
13	4. (a) The investigation and hearing shall be expeditiously conducted,
14	and upon the completion thereof, the fiscal officer shall determine the
15	issues raised and shall make and file an order in his or her office
16	stating such determination, and forthwith serve personally or by mail a
17	copy of such order and determination together with a notice of filing
18	upon all parties to the proceeding, and upon the financial officer of
19	the public agency involved.
20	(b) In addition to directing payment of wages found to be due, such
21	order of the fiscal officer shall direct payment of liquidated damages
22	in an amount equal to the greater of two percent of the annual value of
23	the financial assistance or covered lease, or two-tenths of a percent of 24	the total value of the financial assistance or covered lease. Where the
25	fiscal officer is the commissioner, the penalty shall be paid to the
26	commissioner for deposit in the state treasury. Where the fiscal officer
27	is a city comptroller or other analogous officer, the penalty shall be
28	paid to said officer for deposit in the city treasury.
29	(c) An order directing the payment to specified employees of wages
30	found to be due and unpaid shall include interest at a rate not less
31	than six per centum per year, and not more than the rate of interest
32	then in effect as prescribed by the superintendent of financial services
33	pursuant to section fourteen-a of the banking law per annum from the
34	time such wages should have been paid. In determining the rate of inter-
35	est to be imposed, the fiscal officer shall consider the size of the
36	employer's business, the good faith of the employer, the gravity of the
37	violation, the history of previous violations of the employer, successor
38	or substantially-owned affiliated entity, any officer of the covered
39	developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer who knowingly
40	participated in the violation of this article, and any of the partners
41	if the covered developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer
42	is a partnership, or any of the five largest shareholders of the covered
43	developer, covered lessee or lessor, or the covered employer, as deter-
44	mined by the fiscal officer, and the failure to comply with recordkeep-
45	ing or other non-wage requirements.
46	5. (a) Provided that no proceeding for judicial review as provided in
47	this section shall then be pending and the time for initiation of such
48	proceeding shall have expired, the fiscal officer shall file with the
49	county clerk of the county where the employer resides or has a place of
50	business, the order of the fiscal officer containing the amount found to 51	be due. The filing of such order shall have the full force and effect of
52	a judgment duly docketed in the office of such clerk. The order may be
53	enforced by and in the name of the fiscal officer in the same manner,
54	and with like effect, as that prescribed by the civil practice law and
55	rules for the enforcement of a money judgment.

1	(b) When a final determination has been made in favor of a complain-
2	ant, and the covered developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered
3	employer found in violation of this article has failed to make payment
4	as required by the order of the fiscal officer, and provided that no
5	relevant proceeding for judicial review shall then be pending and the б	time for initiation of such proceeding shall have expired, the fiscal 7	officer may file a copy of the order of the fiscal officer containing
8	the amount found to be due with the county clerk of the county of resi-
9	dence or place of business of any of the following:
10	(i) any substantially-owned affiliated entity or any successor of the
11	covered developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer;
12	(ii) any of the partners if the covered developer, covered lessee or
13	lessor, or covered employer is a partnership or any of the five largest

	covered employer, as determined by the fiscal officer; or 16	(iii) any officer of the covered developer, covered lessee or lessor,
17	or covered employer who knowingly participated in the violation of this
18	article; provided, however, that the fiscal officer shall within five
19	days of the filing of the order provide notice thereof to the partner or
20	top five shareholders or successor or substantially-owned affiliated
21	entity.
22	(c) The notified party may contest the filing on the basis that it is
23	not a partner or one of the five largest shareholders, an officer of the
24	covered developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer who
25	knowingly participated in the violation of this article, successor or
26	substantially-owned affiliated entity. If, after reviewing the informa-
27	tion provided by the notified party in support of such contest, the
28	fiscal officer determines that the notified party is not within the
29	definitions described herein, the fiscal officer shall immediately with-
30	draw his or her filing of the order.
31	(d) The filing of such order shall have the full force and effect of a
32	judgment duly docketed in the office of such clerk. The order may be
33	enforced by and in the name of the fiscal officer in the same manner,
34	and with like effect as that prescribed by the civil practice law and
35	rules for the enforcement of a money judgment.
	6. When a final determination has been made and such determination is
37	in favor of an employee, such employee may, in addition to any other
38	remedy provided by this article, institute an action in any court of
39	appropriate jurisdiction against the entity found to have violated this
40	article, any substantially-owned affiliated entity, any officer of the
41	covered developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer who
42	knowingly participated in the violation of this article, and any of the
43	partners if the covered developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered
44	employer is a partnership or any of the five largest shareholders of the 45	covered developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer, as
46	determined by the fiscal officer, for the recovery of the difference
47	between the sum, if any, actually paid to him or her by the aforesaid
48	financial officer pursuant to said order and the amount found to be due
49	to him or her as determined by said order. Such action must be commenced
50	within three years from the date of the filing of said order, or if said
51	order is reviewed in a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of
52	the civil practice law and rules, within three years after the termi-
53	nation of such review proceeding.
54	7. (a) Any person claimed to be aggrieved by a violation of this arti-

55	cle shall have a cause of action in any court of competent jurisdiction

56 against the entity alleged to have violated this article, any substantially-owned affiliated entity, any officer of the covered developer, 1 2 covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer who knowingly participated 3 in the violation of this article, and any of the partners if the covered 4 developer, covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer is a partner-5 ship or any of the five largest shareholders of the covered developer, 6 covered lessee or lessor, or covered employer, as determined by the 7 fiscal officer, for the recovery of the difference between the sum, if 8 any, actually paid to him or her by the aforesaid financial officer 9 pursuant to said order and the amount found to be due to him or her as 10 determined by said order. The aggrieved party may seek damages includ-11 ing punitive damages, injunctive relief, and such other remedies as may 12 be appropriate, unless such person has filed a complaint with the fiscal officer with respect to such claim. In an action brought by a building 13 14 service employee, if the court finds in favor of the employee, it shall 15 award the employee, in addition to other relief, his or her reasonable 16 attorneys' fees and costs. 17 (b) Investigation by the fiscal officer shall not be a prerequisite to, nor a bar against, a person bringing a civil action under this 18 section. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of subdivisions one 19 20 through six of this section, where a complaint filed with the fiscal 21 officer is dismissed, an aggrieved person shall maintain all rights to 22 commence a civil action pursuant to this action as if no complaint had 23 been filed. 24 (c) No procedure or remedy set forth in this section is intended to be 25 exclusive or a prerequisite for asserting a claim for relief to enforce any rights hereunder in a court of law. This section shall not be 26 27 construed to limit an employee's right to bring a common law cause of 28 action for wrongful termination. 29 (d) Any judgement or court order awarding remedies under this section 30 shall provide that if any amount remains unpaid upon the expiration of ninety days following issuance of judgement, or ninety days after expi-31 32 ration of the time to appeal and no appeal is then pending, whichever is 33 later, the total amount of judgement shall automatically increase by 34 fifteen percent. (e) In any action instituted upon a wage claim by a building service 35 36 employee in which the employee prevails, the court may allow such 37 employee, in addition to ordinary costs, a reasonable sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for expenses, which may be taxed as costs. No assig-38 39 nee of a wage claim shall be benefitted by this provision. 40 (f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an action to recover upon liability imposed by this article must be commenced within the 41 42 greater of six years from the date the cause of action accrued, or two 43 years from the time the plaintiff or the person whom the plaintiff 44 claims discovered the fraud, or could with reasonable diligence have discovered it. The statute of limitations shall be tolled from the date 45 46 an employee files a complaint with the fiscal officer or the date the 47 fiscal officer commences an investigation, whichever is earlier, until an order to comply issued by the fiscal officer becomes final, or where 48 the fiscal officer does not issue an order, until the date on which the 49 fiscal officer notifies the complainant that the investigation has 50 51 concluded. 52 8. (a) No person shall take any adverse action against an employee 53 which penalizes an employee for, or is reasonably likely to deter an 54 employee from, exercising or attempting to exercise such employee's rights under this article or interfere with such employee's exercise of 55

56 rights under this article.

(b) Taking an adverse action includes, but is not limited to, threat-1 ening, intimidating, disciplining, discharging, demoting, suspending, or 2 3 harassing an employee, reducing the hours of pay of an employee, inform-4 ing another employer that an employee has engaged in activities 5 protected by this article, discriminating against the employee, includ-6 ing actions related to perceived immigration status or work authori-7 zation, and maintenance or application of an absence control policy that counts protected leave as an absence that may lead to or result in an 8 9 adverse action. 10 (c) An employee need not explicitly refer to a provision of this arti-11 cle to be protected from an adverse action. 12 (d) A casual connection may be established between the exercise, attempted exercise, or anticipated exercise of rights protected by this 13 14 article and an employer's adverse action against an employee or a group 15 of employees by indirect or direct evidence. (e) Retaliation is established when it is shown that a protected 16 17 activity was a motivating factor for an adverse action, whether or not other factors motivated the adverse action. 18 9. (a) When a final determination has been made against a covered 19 employer in favor of a complainant and the covered developer, or covered 20 21 lessee or lessor, has made payment to the complainant of any wages and 22 interest due the complainant and any civil penalty, and providing that no relevant proceeding for judicial review shall then be pending and the 23 time for initiation of such proceeding shall have expired, the covered 24 25 developer, or covered lessee or lessor, may file a copy of the order of the fiscal officer containing the amount found to be due with the county 26 27 clerk of the county of residence or place of business of the covered 28 employer. The filing of such order shall have the full force and effect 29 of a judgment duly docketed in the office of such clerk. The judgment 30 may be docketed in favor of the covered developer, or covered lessee or 31 lessor, who may proceed as a judgment creditor against the covered 32 employer for the recovery of all monies paid by the covered developer, or covered lessee or lessor, under such order. 33 34 (b) When a covered developer, or covered lessee or lessor, has made payment to a complainant of any wages and interest due to him or her 35 36 because of a covered employer's violation of this article, the covered 37 developer, or covered lessee or lessor, may bring suit to recover all monies paid by the covered developer, or covered lessee or lessor, from 38 39 the covered employer. 40 10. (a) When two judgments or final orders pursuant to the provisions of this section have been entered against a body, as defined by para-41 42 graph (b) of this subdivision, who knowingly participated in the 43 violation of this article within any consecutive six-year period deter-44 mining that such body who knowingly participated in the violation of 45 this article has willfully failed to pay the prevailing wages in accord-46 ance with the provisions of this article, whether such failures were 47 concurrent or consecutive and whether or not such final determinations concerning separate covered leases or awards of financial assistance are 48 rendered simultaneously, such entity who knowingly participated in the 49 50 violation of this article, or any successor is a corporation, any officer of such corporation who knowingly participated in such failure, 51 52 shall be ineligible to enter into covered leases with a public agency or 53 receive financial assistance for a period of five years from the date of 54 the second order, provided, however, that where any such final order 55 involves the falsification of payroll records or the kickback of wages, the body who knowingly participated in the violation of this article 56 shall be ineligible to enter into covered leases or to receive financial 1 assistance for a period of five years from the date of the first final 2 order.
