41 have had reasonable cause to believe that the person posting [~~cash~~] bail 42 is not in rightful possession of money posted as [~~cash~~] bail or that 43 such money constitutes the fruits of criminal or unlawful conduct. The 44 court may inquire into any matter stated or required to be stated in the 45 justifying affidavits, and may also inquire into other matters appropri-46 ate to the determination, which include but are not limited to the 10 § 13. Section 540.10 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 2 as 13 § 540.10 Forfeiture of bail; generally.

14 1. If, without sufficient excuse, a principal does not appear when 15 required or does not render himself amenable to the orders and processes 16 of the criminal court wherein bail has been posted, the court must enter 17 such facts upon its minutes and the bail bond or the [~~cash~~] bail, as the 34 certified copy of the order of the court forfeiting the same, must be 35 filed by the district attorney in the office of the clerk of the county 36 wherein such order was issued. Such clerk must docket the same in the 37 book kept by him for docketing of judgments and enter therein a judgment 38 against the obligor or obligors who executed such bail bond for the
