Introduced by Sen. PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Environmental Conservation

AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law, in relation to the redemption of empty beverage containers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 27-1007 of the environmental conservation law, as added by section 4 of part SS of chapter 59 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows: 7. A deposit initiator on a brand shall accept from a distributor who does not initiate deposits on that brand any empty beverage containers of that brand accepted by the distributor from a dealer or operator of a 7 redemption center and shall reimburse the distributor the refund value of each such beverage container, as established by section 27-1005 of 9 this title. A distributor may reimburse the refund value to each dealer 10 or redemption center in the form of either cash on delivery or credit 11 for immediate use for filled beverage containers. However, if a dealer's 12 yearly purchases from a distributor are equal to or greater than one 13 hundred thousand cases, then a distributor must make such reimbursements 14 to that dealer in the form of either cash on delivery or credit for 15 immediate use for filled beverage containers. In addition, the deposit initiator shall reimburse such distributor for each such beverage container the handling fee established under subdivision six of this 17 section. Without limiting the rights of the department or any person, 18 firm or corporation under this subdivision or any other provision of 19 this section, a distributor shall have a civil right of action to 20 enforce this subdivision, including, upon three days notice, the right 22 to apply for temporary and preliminary injunctive relief against contin-23 uing violations, and until arrangements for collection and return of 24 empty containers or reimbursement of such distributor for such deposits 25 and handling fees are made.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
