AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to contractual liability insurance policies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph 1 of subsection (c) of section 7903 of the insurance law, as amended by chapter 578 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

(1) insure the performance of all its obligations under all service contracts pursuant to ~~[a]~~ one or more service contract reimbursement insurance ~~[policy]~~ policies issued by ~~[an insurer]~~ one or more insurers authorized to issue service contract reimbursement insurance in this state or procured by an excess line licensee pursuant to section two thousand one hundred eighteen of this chapter. Each service contract reimbursement insurance policy shall obligate the insurer that issued such policy to either discharge the obligations and liabilities of such provider under the terms of the service contracts issued by such provider, including the return of unearned provider fees upon any termination or cancellation of service contracts, in the event of non-performance of any such obligations or liabilities by such provider or indemnify the provider for losses sustained by reason of the performance of such provider's obligations under service contracts issued pursuant to this article. In the event the provider fails to insure its obligations pursuant to this paragraph or in the event that such insurance shall lapse or be terminated, the provider shall comply with either paragraph

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets ~~[-]~~ is old law to be omitted.
