AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to expanding prison work release program eligibility and participation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as 2 amended by section 228 of chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 2. "Eligible incarcerated individual" means: a person confined in an 5 institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become 6 eligible for release on parole or conditional release within [~~two~~] three 7 years. Provided, however, that a person under sentence for an offense 8 defined in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision one of section 70.02 of 9 the penal law, where such offense involved the use or threatened use of 10 a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument shall not be eligible to partic-11 ipate in a work release program until he or she is eligible for release 12 on parole or who will be eligible for release on parole or conditional 13 release within [~~eighteen~~] thirty months. Provided, further, however, 14 that a person under a determinate sentence as a second felony drug 15 offender for a class B felony offense defined in article two hundred 16 twenty of the penal law, who was sentenced pursuant to section 70.70 of 17 such law, shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary release 18 program until the time served under imprisonment for his or her determi-19 nate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the 20 provisions of article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eigh-
21 teen months. In the case of a person serving an indeterminate sentence 22 of imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

September one, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of this article parole eligibility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum period of imprisonment fixed by the court or where the court has not fixed any period, after service of the minimum period fixed by the state board of parole. ~~[If an incarcerated individual is denied release on parole, such incarcerated individual shall not be deemed an eligible incarcerated individual until he or she is within two years of his or her next scheduled appearance before the state parole board.]~~ In any case where an incarcerated individual is denied release on parole while participating in a temporary release program, the department shall review the status of the incarcerated individual to determine if continued placement in the program is appropriate. No person convicted of any escape or absconding offense defined in article two hundred five of the penal law shall be eligible for temporary release. Further, no person under sentence for aggravated harassment of an employee by an incarcerated individual as defined in section 240.32 of the penal law for, any homicide offense defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the penal law, for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, for an act of terrorism as defined in article four hundred ninety of the penal law, for an offense involving the sexual performance of a child as defined in article two hundred sixty-three of the penal law, or for an offense defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law shall be eligible to participate in a work release program as defined in subdivision three of this section. Nor shall any person under sentence for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law be eligible to participate in a community services program as defined in subdivision five of this section. ~~[Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person who is an otherwise eligible incarcerated individual who is under sentence for a crime involving: (a) infliction of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the penal law or (b) any other offense involving the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon may participate in a temporary release program without the written approval of the commissioner.]~~ The commissioner shall promulgate regulations giving direction to the temporary release committee at each institution in order to aid such committees in ~~[carrying out this mandate]~~ determining which incarcerated individuals are eligible and appropriate to participate in the temporary release programs.

The governor~~[, by executive order,]~~ may not issue or enforce any executive order to exclude or limit the participation of any class of ~~[otherwise]~~ eligible incarcerated individuals from participation in a temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect ~~[either the validity of any executive order previously issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible incarcerated individuals in such program or]~~ the authority of the commissioner to impose appropriate regulations ~~[limiting such participation]~~ for determining which incarcerated individuals are eligible and appropriate to participate in the temporary release programs. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations giving direction to department and transitional services staff with regard to developing and providing programmatic support to temporary release participants with emphasis on the first three months of work release.

§ 2. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by section 228-b of chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

2. "Eligible incarcerated individual" means: a person confined in an institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become

1 eligible for release on parole or conditional release within [~~two~~] three 2 years. Provided, that a person under a determinate sentence as a second 3 felony drug offender for a class B felony offense defined in article two 4 hundred twenty of the penal law, who was sentenced pursuant to section 5 70.70 of such law, shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary 6 release program until the time served under imprisonment for his or her 7 determinate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the 8 provisions of article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eigh-
9 teen months. In the case of a person serving an indeterminate sentence
10 of imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after 11 September one, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of this 12 article parole eligibility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum 13 period of imprisonment fixed by the court or where the court has not 14 fixed any period, after service of the minimum period fixed by the state 15 board of parole. [~~If an incarcerated individual is denied release on 16 parole, such incarcerated individual shall not be deemed an eligible 17 incarcerated individual until he or she is within two years of his or 18 her next scheduled appearance before the state parole board.~~] In any 19 case where an incarcerated individual is denied release on parole while 20 participating in a temporary release program, the department shall 21 review the status of the incarcerated individual to determine if contin-22 ued placement in the program is appropriate. No person convicted of any 23 escape or absconding offense defined in article two hundred five of the 24 penal law shall be eligible for temporary release. Further, no person 25 under sentence for aggravated harassment of an employee by an incarcer-26 ated individual as defined in section 240.32 of the penal law for, any 27 homicide offense defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the penal 28 law, for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the 29 penal law, for an act of terrorism as defined in article four hundred 30 ninety of the penal law, for an offense involving the sexual performance 31 of a child as defined in article two hundred sixty-three of the penal 32 law, or for an offense defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of 33 the penal law shall be eligible to participate in a work release program 34 as defined in subdivision three of this section. Nor shall any person 35 under sentence for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty 36 of the penal law be eligible to participate in a community services
37 program as defined in subdivision five of this section. [~~Notwithstand-~~ 38 ~~ing the foregoing, no person who is an otherwise eligible incarcerated~~ 39 ~~individual who is under sentence for a crime involving: (a) infliction~~
40 ~~of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the penal law, (b)~~ 41 ~~a sex offense involving forcible compulsion, or (c) any other offense~~ 42 ~~involving the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon may participate~~ 43 ~~in a temporary release program without the written approval of the~~ 44 ~~commissioner.~~] The commissioner shall promulgate regulations giving 45 direction to the temporary release committee at each institution in 46 order to aid such committees in [~~carrying out this mandate~~] determining 47 which incarcerated individuals are eligible and appropriate to partic-48 ipate in the temporary release programs.

49 The governor[, ~~by executive order,~~] may not issue or enforce any exec-50 utive order to exclude or limit the participation of any class of 51 [~~otherwise~~] eligible incarcerated individuals from participation in a 52 temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed 53 to affect [~~either the validity of any executive order previously issued~~ 54 ~~limiting the participation of otherwise eligible incarcerated individ-~~ 55 ~~uals in such program or~~] the authority of the commissioner to impose 56 appropriate regulations [~~limiting such participation~~] for determining

1 which incarcerated individuals are eligible and appropriate to partic-
2 ipate in temporary release programs. The commissioner shall promulgate 3 regulations giving direction to department and transitional services 4 staff with regard to developing and providing programmatic support to 5 temporary release participants with emphasis on the first three months 6 of work release.

7 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by 8 section 228-d of chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as 9 follows:

10 2. "Eligible incarcerated individual" means a person confined in an 11 institution where a work release program has been established who is 12 eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release 13 on parole within [~~one year~~] three years.

14 § 4. Subdivision 2-a of section 851 of the correction law, as amended 15 by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

16 2-a. Notwithstanding subdivision two of this section, the term "eligi-17 ble incarcerated individual" shall also include a person confined in an 18 institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become 19 eligible for release on parole or conditional release within [~~two~~] three 20 years, and who was convicted of a homicide offense as defined in article 21 one hundred twenty-five of the penal law [~~or an assault offense defined~~ 22 ~~in article one hundred twenty of the penal law~~], and who can demonstrate 23 to the commissioner that: (a) the victim of such homicide or assault was 24 a member of the incarcerated individual's immediate family as that term 25 is defined in section 120.40 of the penal law or had a child in common 26 with the incarcerated individual; (b) the incarcerated individual was 27 subjected to substantial physical, sexual or psychological abuse commit-28 ted by the victim of such homicide or assault; and (c) such abuse was a 29 substantial factor in causing the incarcerated individual to commit such 30 homicide or assault. With respect to an incarcerated individual's claim 31 that he or she was subjected to substantial physical, sexual or psycho-32 logical abuse committed by the victim, such demonstration shall include 33 corroborative material that may include, but is not limited to, witness 34 statements, social services records, hospital records, law enforcement 35 records and a showing based in part on documentation prepared at or near 36 the time of the commission of the offense or the prosecution thereof 37 tending to support the incarcerated individual's claim. Prior to making 38 a determination under this subdivision, the commissioner is required to 39 request and take into consideration the opinion of the district attorney 40 who prosecuted the underlying homicide or assault offense and the opin-41 ion of the sentencing court. If such opinions are received within 42 forty-five days of the request, the commissioner shall take them into 43 consideration. If such opinions are not so received, the commissioner 44 may proceed with the determination. Any action by the commissioner 45 pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed a judicial function and 46 shall not be reviewable in any court.

47 § 5. Subdivision 2-b of section 851 of the correction law, as added by 48 chapter 738 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

49 2-b. When calculating in advance the date on which a person is or will 50 be eligible for release on parole or conditional release, for purposes 51 of determining eligibility for temporary release or for placement at an 52 alcohol and substance abuse treatment correctional annex, the commis-53 sioner shall consider and include credit for all potential credits and 54 reductions including but not limited to merit time, additional merit 55 time and good behavior allowances. Nothing in this subdivision shall be 56 interpreted as precluding the consideration and inclusion of credit for

1 all potential credits and reductions including, but not limited to,
2 merit time, additional merit time and good behavior allowances when 3 calculating in advance for any other purpose the date on which a person 4 is or will be eligible for release on parole or conditional release.

5 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 6 the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law 7 made by section one of this act shall be subject to the expiration and 8 reversion of such subdivision and of such section pursuant to subdivi-9 sion (c) of section 46 of chapter 60 of the laws of 1994 and section 10 10 of chapter 339 of the laws of 1972, as amended, when upon such date the 11 provisions of section two of this act shall take effect; provided, 12 further, that the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the 13 correction law made by section two of this act shall expire on the same 14 date as subdivision (c) of section 46 of chapter 60 of the laws of 1994, 15 section 10 of chapter 339 of the laws of 1972, and section 5 of chapter 16 554 of the laws of 1986, as amended, expire, when upon such date the 17 provisions of section three of this act shall take effect; provided, 18 further, that the amendments to subdivisions 2-a and 2-b of section 851 19 of the correction law, made by sections four and five of this act shall 20 not affect the expiration of such section and shall expire therewith.
