AN ACT to amend the state law, in relation to providing for a procedure for review of an apportionment by the legislature or other body which brings any such review to the supreme court of Albany county

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Article 8 of the state law is amended by adding a new title 4 to read as follows:

TITLE IV

ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS CHALLENGING APPORTIONMENT

Section 130. Actions or proceedings challenging apportionment.

§ 130. Actions or proceedings challenging apportionment. a. An apportionment by the legislature shall be subject to review by the supreme court of Albany county at the suit of any citizen, upon the petition of any citizen to the supreme court of Albany county and upon such service thereof upon the attorney-general, the president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly and the governor, as a justice of the supreme court of Albany county may direct.

b. No limitation of the time for commencing an action shall affect any proceeding hereinbefore mentioned, or any appeal in any existing action or proceeding in which the validity of an apportionment is or may be in issue, if commenced within the period during which such apportionment is in force may exist; and nothing in this act shall impair any existing remedy by which the validity of an apportionment may be determined.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
