2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 31, 2023

Introduced by Sen. HARCKHAM -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT providing that a student enrolled in an individualized education program during certain school years may continue to receive educational services until the student completes the services pursuant to the individualized education program or turns twenty-three years old, whichever is sooner; and to provide for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, a school district may provide educational services in the 2023-24 and 2024-25 school years to a student who turned twenty-one years old during the 2022-23 school year and was enrolled in the school district and receiving special education services pursuant to an individualized education program. Such student may continue to receive such educational services until the student completes the services pursuant to the individualized education program or turns twenty-three years old, whichever is sooner.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed June 30, 2025.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
