26 § 3. Subdivision (b) of section 208 of the civil practice law and 27 rules, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 28 follows:

29 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of 30 limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertain-31 ing to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file 32 a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special 33 proceeding, with respect to all civil claims or causes of action brought 34 by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition 35 suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute a 36 sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law
37 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, 38 sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed 39 against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, sex traf-
40 ficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law,
41 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
42 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, 43 or the use of such person in a sexual performance as defined in section 44 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such 45 conduct at the time of the act, which conduct was committed against such 46 person who was less than eighteen years of age, such action may be 47 commenced, against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or 48 omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of said
49 conduct, on or before the plaintiff or infant plaintiff reaches the age 50 of fifty-five years. In any such claim or action, in addition to any 51 other defense and affirmative defense that may be available in accord-52 ance with law, rule or the common law, to the extent that the acts 53 alleged in such action are of the type described in subdivision one of 54 section 130.30 of the penal law or subdivision one of section 130.45 of 55 the penal law, the affirmative defenses set forth, respectively, in the 56 closing paragraph of such sections of the penal law shall apply.

§ 4. Section 214-g of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 130 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 214-g. Certain child sexual abuse cases. Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, which is barred as of the effective date of this section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be commenced not earlier than six months after, and not later than two years and six months after the effective date of this section. In any such claim or action: (a) in addition to any other defense and affirmative defense that may be available in accordance with law, rule or the common law, to the extent that the acts alleged in such action are of the type described in subdivision one of section 130.30 of the penal law or subdivision one of section 130.45 of the penal law, the affirmative defenses set forth, respectively, in the closing paragraph of such sections of the penal law shall apply; and (b) dismissal of a previous action, ordered before the effective date of this section, on grounds that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this section.

§ 5. Section 213-c of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 315 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 213-c. Action by victim of conduct constituting certain sexual offenses. Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this article, except as provided in subdivision (b) of section two hundred eight of this article, all civil claims or causes of action brought by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law, or rape in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.25 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.40 of the penal law, or incest in the first degree as defined in section 255.27 of the penal law, or incest in the second degree as defined in section 255.26 of the

1 penal law (where the crime committed is rape in the second degree as 2 defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law or crimi-3 nal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of 4 section 130.45), or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as 5 defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct 6 against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the 7 penal law, or sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal 8 law, or sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the 9 penal law may be brought against any party whose intentional or negli-10 gent acts or omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of 11 the said conduct, within twenty years. Nothing in this section shall be 12 construed to require that a criminal charge be brought or a criminal 13 conviction be obtained as a condition of bringing a civil cause of 14 action or receiving a civil judgment pursuant to this section or be 15 construed to require that any of the rules governing a criminal proceed-16 ing be applicable to any such civil action.

17 § 6. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new 18 section 214-k to read as follows:

19 § 214-k. Certain sexual offense actions. Notwithstanding any 20 provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary 21 and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice 22 of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition prece-23 dent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil 24 claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional 25 or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, 26 or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 27 constitute sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law 28 committed against such person who was eighteen years of age or older, 29 which is barred as of the effective date of this section because the 30 applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or the plaintiff previ-
31 ously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file 32 a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be commenced not 33 earlier than six months after, and not later than one year and six 34 months after the effective date of this section. In any such claim or 35 action, dismissal of a previous action, ordered before the effective 36 date of this section, on grounds that such previous action was time 37 barred, and/or for failure of a party to file a notice of claim or a 38 notice of intention to file a claim, shall not be grounds for dismissal 39 of a revival action pursuant to this section.

40 § 7. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 50-e of the general 41 municipal law, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 42 read as follows:

43 (b) This section shall not apply to any claim made for physical, 44 psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of 45 conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article 46 one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than 47 eighteen years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of 48 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, 49 sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal 50 law, incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal 51 law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the 52 use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of 53 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

54 § 8. Subdivision 5 of section 50-i of the general municipal law, as 55 added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

1 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section 2 shall not apply to any claim made against a city, county, town, village, 3 fire district or school district for physical, psychological, or other 4 injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would consti-5 tute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the 6 penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex 7 trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed 8 against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a 9 child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, incest as defined 10 in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed against a 11 child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual 12 performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law committed 13 against a child less than eighteen years of age.

14 § 9. Subdivision 10 of section 10 of the court of claims act, as added
15 by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

16 10. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section 17 shall not apply to any claim to recover damages for physical, psycholog-18 ical, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which 19 would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred 20 thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen 21 years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal 22 law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex traf-
23 ficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law,
24 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law 25 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 26 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 27 penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

28 § 10. Subdivision 2 of section 3813 of the education law, as amended
29 by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

30 2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinbefore contained in 31 this section, no action or special proceeding founded upon tort shall be 32 prosecuted or maintained against any of the parties named in this 33 section or against any teacher or member of the supervisory or adminis-34 trative staff or employee where the alleged tort was committed by such 35 teacher or member or employee acting in the discharge of his duties 36 within the scope of his employment and/or under the direction of the 37 board of education, trustee or trustees, or governing body of the school 38 unless a notice of claim shall have been made and served in compliance
39 with section fifty-e of the general municipal law. Every such action 40 shall be commenced pursuant to the provisions of section fifty-i of the 41 general municipal law; provided, however, that this section shall not 42 apply to any claim to recover damages for physical, psychological, or 43 other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 44 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of 45 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age,
46 sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal 47 law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest as 48 defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed 49 against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child 50 in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law 51 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

52 § 11. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or 53 part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdic-
54 tion to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, 55 the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder there-56 of, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence,

1 paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in the contro-
2 versy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.
3 § 12. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to acts 4 or omissions occurring on or after such effective date and to acts or 5 omissions occurring prior to such effective date where the applicable 6 statute of limitations in effect on the date of such act or omission has 7 not yet expired.
