IN SENATE

(Prefiled)

January 4, 2023

Introduced by Sens. THOMAS, COMRIE, GIANARIS, HARCKHAM, HOYLMAN, KRUEGER, MYRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to high-volume third-party sellers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new article 45 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 45

HIGH-VOLUME THIRD-PARTY SELLERS

Section 1500. Definitions.

1501. Collection and verification of information.

1502. Disclosures required.

1503. Enforcement.

1504. Preemption.

§ 1500. Definitions. For purposes of this article: 1. "Consumer product" means tangible personal property that is distributed in commerce and normally used for personal, family, or household purposes, including property intended to be attached to or installed in real property regardless of whether it is actually attached or installed.

2. "High-volume third-party seller" means a participant in an online marketplace who is a third-party seller and who, in any continuous twelve-month period during the previous twenty-four months, has entered into two hundred or more discrete sales to, or transactions with, buyers located in New York for new or unused consumer products resulting in the accumulation of an aggregate total of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more in gross revenues. For purposes of this subdivision, the number of discrete sales or transactions includes only those sales or transactions

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 made through the online marketplace and for which payment is processed 2 by the online marketplace directly or through its payment processor.

3 3. "Online marketplace" means a person or entity that operates a 4 consumer-directed, electronically accessed platform in a manner in which 5 all of the following are true:

6 (a) the platform includes features that allow for, facilitate, or 7 enable third-party sellers to engage in the sale, purchase, payment, 8 storage, shipping, or delivery of a consumer product in this state;

9 (b) the features set forth in paragraph (a) of this subdivision are 10 used by third-party sellers; and 11 (c) the person or entity has a contractual or similar relationship 12 with consumers governing their use of the platform to purchase consumer 13 products.

14 4. "Seller" means a person or entity who sells, offers to sell, or 15 contracts to sell a consumer product through an online marketplace's 16 platform.

17 5. (a) "Third-party seller" means a seller, independent of an online 18 marketplace, who sells, offers to sell, or contracts to sell a consumer 19 product in this state through an online marketplace's platform.

20 (b) "Third-party seller" does not mean a seller that meets either of 21 the following criteria:

22 (i) The seller is a business entity that meets all of the following 23 criteria:

24 (A) The seller has made available to the general public the entity's 25 name, business address, and working contact information;

26 (B) The seller has an ongoing contractual relationship with the owner 27 of the online marketplace to provide for the manufacture, distribution, 28 wholesaling, or fulfillment of shipments of consumer products; and 29 (C) The seller has provided to the online marketplace identifying 30 information that has been verified; or

31 (ii) The seller operates the online marketplace's platform.

32 6. "Verify" means to confirm information provided to an online market-33 place pursuant to this article, including the use of one or more methods 34 that enable the online marketplace to reliably determine that informa-35 tion and documents provided are valid, corresponding to the seller or an 36 individual acting on the seller's behalf, not misappropriated, and not 37 falsified.

38 § 1501. Collection and verification of information. 1. An online 39 marketplace shall require a high-volume third-party seller on the online 40 marketplace's platform to provide, not later than ten days after quali-41 fying as a high-volume third-party seller on the platform, all of the 42 following information to the online marketplace:

43 (a) A bank account number, or, if the seller does not have a bank 44 account, the name of the payee for payments issued by the online market-45 place to the seller. The information required by this paragraph shall 46 be provided by either of the following methods:

47 (i) to the online marketplace; or

48 (ii) to a payment processor or other third party contracted by the 49 online marketplace to maintain the information only if the online 50 marketplace ensures that it can obtain the information on demand from 51 that payment processor or other third party.

52 (b) All of the following contact information, as applicable:

53 (i) If the high-volume third-party seller is an individual, the sell-54 er's name;

55 (ii) If the high-volume third-party seller is not an individual, one 56 of the following:

1 (A) A copy of a valid government-issued identification for an individ-2 ual acting on behalf of the seller that includes the individual's name; 3 or

4 (B) A copy of a valid government record or tax document that includes 5 the business name and physical address of the seller;

6 (c) A business tax identification number, or, if the seller does not 7 have a business tax identification number, a taxpayer identification 8 number; and

9 (d) A valid email address and telephone number for the seller.

10 2. An online marketplace shall verify the information provided pursu-11 ant to subdivision one of this section within ten days and shall verify, 12 within ten days, any changes to the information that is provided to the 13 marketplace by a high-volume third-party seller. If a high-volume third-14 party seller provides a copy of a valid government-issued tax document, 15 information contained within the tax document shall be presumed to be 16 verified as of the date of issuance of the record or document.

17 3. An online marketplace shall implement and maintain reasonable secu-18 rity procedures and practices, including administrative, physical, and 19 technical safeguards, appropriate to the nature of the data and the 20 purposes for which the data will be used, to protect the data collected 21 to comply with the requirements of this article from unauthorized use, 22 disclosure, access, destruction, or modification. The online marketplace 23 shall keep the information provided in subdivision one of this section 24 on a secured server for a period of no less than five years.

25 4. (a) The online marketplace shall, on at least an annual basis, 26 notify each high-volume third-party seller on the online marketplace's 27 platform of the requirement that the seller inform the online market-28 place of any changes to the information provided by the seller pursuant 29 to subdivision one of this section within ten days of receiving the 30 notification and shall instruct each high-volume third-party seller, as 31 part of the notification, to electronically certify either that the 32 seller's information is unchanged or that the seller is providing chang-33 es to the information.

34 (b) If a high-volume third-party seller does not provide the informa-35 tion or certification required under this section, the online market-36 place shall, after providing the seller with written or electronic 37 notice and opportunity to provide the information or certification not 38 later than ten days after the issuance of the notice, suspend any future 39 sales activity of the seller until the seller provides the information 40 or certification.

41 5. Data collected solely to comply with the requirements of this 42 section shall not be used for any other purpose unless that use is 43 required by law.

44 § 1502. Disclosures required. 1. An online marketplace shall require a 45 high-volume third-party seller with at least twenty thousand dollars 46 ($20,000) of gross annual revenues from sales to, or transactions with, 47 buyers in New York derived from the online marketplace's platform in 48 either of the two prior calendar years to provide the following informa-49 tion to the online marketplace and to disclose the information to 50 consumers in a clear and conspicuous manner in the order confirmation 51 message, or other communication made to a consumer after a purchase is 52 finalized, and in the consumer's account transaction history:

53 (a) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, all 54 of the following identifying information:

1 (1) The full name of the seller, which may include the seller's name 2 or company name, or the name by which the seller or company operates on 3 the online marketplace;

4 (2) The seller's physical address; and

5 (3) Contact information for the seller to allow for the direct, 6 unhindered communication with high-volume third-party sellers by users 7 of the online marketplace, including a current working telephone number, 8 email address, or any other means of direct electronic messaging.

9 (ii) (1) Subject to clause two of this subparagraph, upon the request 10 of a high-volume third-party seller, an online marketplace may provide 11 only partial disclosure of the information described in this paragraph 12 as follows:

13 (A) If the high-volume third-party seller certifies to the online 14 marketplace that the seller does not have a physical address other than 15 a residential physical address, the online marketplace may disclose only 16 the country and state, if applicable, in which the seller resides and 17 inform consumers that inquiries should be submitted to the seller by 18 telephone, email, or electronic means provided by the online market-19 place; or

20 (B) If the high-volume third-party seller certifies to the online 21 marketplace that the seller does not have a telephone number other than 22 a personal telephone number, the online marketplace shall inform consum-23 ers that there is not a telephone number available for the seller, and 24 inquiries should be submitted to the seller's email address or electron-25 ic means provided by the online marketplace.

26 (2) An online marketplace shall, after providing the seller notice and 27 at least ten days to respond, suspend future sales activity of that 28 seller unless the seller consents to the disclosure of all information 29 described in paragraph (a) of this subdivision if either of the follow-30 ing is true:

31 (A) A high-volume third-party seller has made a false representation 32 to the online marketplace in order to justify partial disclosure pursu-33 ant to this subparagraph;

34 (B) A seller that has received a provision for partial disclosure 35 pursuant to this subparagraph has not answered consumer inquiries within 36 a reasonable timeframe.

37 (b)(i) Whether or not the high-volume third-party seller used a 38 different seller to supply the product to the consumer upon purchase.

39 (ii) If requested by an authenticated purchaser, the information 40 described in paragraph (a) of this subdivision that is related to a 41 seller described by subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivi-42 sion if that seller is not the seller on the product listing before 43 purchase.

44 2. An online marketplace shall disclose to consumers, in a clear and 45 conspicuous manner on the product listing of a high-volume third-party 46 seller, a reporting mechanism that allows for electronic and telephonic 47 reporting of suspicious activity by the high-volume third-party seller 48 to the online marketplace.

49 3. An online marketplace shall suspend future sales activity of a 50 high-volume third-party seller that is not in compliance with the 51 requirements of this article. An online marketplace shall provide notice 52 of an impending suspension pursuant to this section and shall not 53 suspend the seller if the seller becomes in compliance with this section 54 on or before ten days after the notice was issued.

55 § 1503. Enforcement. A person or entity who violates any provision of 56 this article shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed ten thou-

1 sand dollars ($10,000) for each violation, which may be assessed and 2 recovered only in a civil action brought in the name of the people by 3 the attorney general.

4 § 1504. Preemption. This article shall supersede and preempt all 5 rules, regulations, codes, ordinances, and other laws adopted by any 6 city, county, municipality, or local agency regarding online market-7 places requirements in relation to verification of information from 8 high-volume third-party sellers.

9 § 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2024.
