AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to expediting the distributions of funds for the supervision and treatment services for juveniles program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 529-b of the executive law is amended by adding a 1 2 new subdivision 6 to read as follows: 3 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, state funds appropriated for the supervision and treatment services for juveniles 4 program shall be distributed to an eligible municipality for services to 5 б divert youth at risk of, alleged to be, or adjudicated as juvenile 7 delinquents, or youth alleged to be or convicted as youthful offenders or adolescent offenders from placement in detention or in residential 8 9 care on an annual basis, subject to available appropriations. Eligible 10 municipalities shall receive the sum equivalent to at least their last 11 approved supervision and treatment services for juveniles program plan 12 for the purposes of implementing the program and to divert youth at risk 13 of, alleged to be, or adjudicated as juvenile delinguents, or youth 14 alleged to be or convicted as youthful offenders or adolescent offenders from placement in detention or in residential care. Such annual allo-15 cations shall not be contingent on submitting an approved supervision 16 and treatment services for juveniles program plan in the current year, 17 18 and such annual allocations shall not prevent an eligible municipality 19 from seeking funds for supervision and treatment services for juveniles 20 program plan in the current year. At least fifty percent of the funds 21 allocated must be provided by the eligible county to community based 22 organizations who work with youth who are at risk of, alleged to be, or
