AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to disclosing personal information

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 92 of the public officers law, as added by chapter 2 652 of the laws of 1983, subdivision 8 as amended by section 135 of 3 subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011 and the opening 4 paragraph of subdivision 9 as amended by chapter 313 of the laws of 5 1991, is amended to read as follows:

6 § 92. Definitions. (1) Agency. The term "agency" means any state 7 board, bureau, committee, commission, council, department, public 8 authority, public benefit corporation, division, office or any other 9 governmental entity performing a governmental or proprietary function 10 for the state of New York, except the judiciary or the state legislature 11 or any unit of local government and shall not include offices of 12 district attorneys.

13 (2) Committee. The term "committee" means the committee on open 14 government as constituted pursuant to subdivision one of section eight-15 y-nine of this chapter.

16 (3) Data subject. The term "data subject" means any natural person 17 about whom personal information has been collected by an agency.

18 (4) Disclose. The term "disclose" means to reveal, release, transfer, 19 disseminate or otherwise communicate personal information or records orally, in writing or by electronic or any other means other than to the data subject.

(5) 911 services dispatcher. The term "911 services dispatcher" means a person who receives reports of emergencies via a 911 system or E911 system as defined in subdivision three of section three hundred one of the county law.

(6) Emergency medical services personnel. The term "emergency medical services personnel" means individuals designated as such in subdivision five of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-four-aa of the public health law.

(7) Governmental unit. The term "governmental unit" means any governmental entity performing a governmental or proprietary function for the federal government or for any state or any municipality thereof.

~~[(6)]~~ (8) Law. The term "law" means state or federal statute, rule or regulation.

~~[(7)]~~ (9) Law enforcement agency. The term "law enforcement agency" shall have the same meaning as in subdivision four of section 705.00 of the criminal procedure law.

(10) Law enforcement officer. The term "law enforcement officer" means a police officer or peace officer as defined in section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law.

(11) Police agency. The term "police agency" has the same meaning as in subdivision eight of section eight hundred thirty-five of the executive law.

(12) Personal information. The term "personal information" means any information concerning a data subject which, because of name, number, symbol, mark or other identifier, alone or in combination with other information, can be used to identify that data subject or be associated with an identified data subject.

~~[(8)]~~ (13) Public safety agency record. The term "public safety agency record" means a record of the state commission of correction, the temporary state commission of investigation, the department of corrections and community supervision, the office of children and family services, the office of victim services, the office of probation and correctional alternatives or the division of state police or of any agency or component thereof whose primary function is the enforcement of civil or criminal statutes if such record pertains to investigation, law enforcement, confinement of persons in correctional facilities or supervision of persons pursuant to criminal conviction or court order, and any records maintained by the division of criminal justice services pursuant to sections eight hundred thirty-seven, eight hundred thirty-seven-a, eight hundred thirty-seven-b, eight hundred thirty-seven-c, eight hundred thirty-eight, eight hundred thirty-nine, and eight hundred forty-five of the executive law and by the department of state pursuant to section ninety-nine of the executive law.

~~[(9)]~~ (14) Record. The term "record" means any item, collection or grouping of personal information about a data subject which is maintained and is retrievable by use of the name or other identifier of the data subject irrespective of the physical form or technology used to maintain such personal information. The term "record" shall not include personal information which is not used to make any determination about the data subject if it is:

(a) a telephone book or directory which is used exclusively for telephone and directory information;

(b) any card catalog, book or other resource material in any library;

(c) any compilation of information containing names and addresses only which is used exclusively for the purpose of mailing agency information;
(d) personal information required by law to be maintained, and required by law to be used, only for statistical research or reporting purposes;

(e) information requested by the agency which is necessary for the agency to answer unsolicited requests by the data subject for information; or

(f) correspondence files.

~~[(10)]~~ (15) Routine use. The term "routine use" means, with respect to the disclosure of a record or personal information, any use of such record or personal information relevant to the purpose for which it was collected, and which use is necessary to the statutory duties of the agency that collected or obtained the record or personal information, or necessary for that agency to operate a program specifically authorized by law.

~~[(11)]~~ (16) System of records. The term "system of records" means any group of records under the actual or constructive control of any agency pertaining to one or more data subjects from which personal information is retrievable by use of the name or other identifier of a data subject.

§ 2. Section 96 of the public officers law, as added by chapter 652 of the laws of 1983, paragraph (j) of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 1015 of the laws of 1984, paragraph (n) of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 319 of the laws of 2014, paragraphs (o) and (p) of subdivision 1 as amended by section 1 of part S of chapter 58 of the laws of 2022, and paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

§ 96. Disclosure of records. (1) No agency may disclose any record or personal information unless such disclosure is:

(a) pursuant to a written request by or the voluntary written consent of the data subject, provided that such request or consent by its terms limits and specifically describes:

(i) the personal information which is requested to be disclosed;

(ii) the person or entity to whom such personal information is requested to be disclosed; and

(iii) the uses which will be made of such personal information by the person or entity receiving it; or

(b) to those officers and employees of, and to those who contract with, the agency that maintains the record if such disclosure is necessary to the performance of their official duties pursuant to a purpose of the agency required to be accomplished by statute or executive order or necessary to operate a program specifically authorized by law; or

(c) subject to disclosure under article six of this chapter, unless disclosure of such information would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section eighty-nine of this chapter; or

(d) to officers or employees of another governmental unit if each category of information sought to be disclosed is necessary for the receiving governmental unit to operate a program specifically authorized by statute and if the use for which the information is requested is not relevant to the purpose for which it was collected; or

(e) for a routine use, as defined in subdivision ~~[ten]~~ fifteen of section ninety-two of this article; or

(f) specifically authorized by statute or federal rule or regulation; or

1 (g) to the bureau of the census for purposes of planning or carrying 2 out a census or survey or related activity pursuant to the provisions of 3 Title XIII of the United States Code; or 4 (h) to a person who has provided the agency with advance written 5 assurance that the record will be used solely for the purpose of statis-6 tical research or reporting, but only if it is to be transferred in a 7 form that does not and cannot reveal the identity of any data subject, 8 alone or in combination with other available information; or 9 (i) pursuant to a showing of compelling circumstances affecting the 10 health or safety of a data subject, if upon such disclosure notification 11 is transmitted to the data subject at [~~his or her~~] their last known 12 address; or

13 (j) to the state archives as a record which has sufficient historical 14 or other value to warrant its continued preservation by the state or for 15 evaluation by the state archivist or [~~his or her~~] their designee to 16 determine whether the record has such value; or

17 (k) to any person pursuant to a court ordered subpoena or other 18 compulsory legal process; or

19 (l) from one public safety agency record for inclusion in [~~a~~] another 20 public safety agency record or from one public safety agency record to 21 any governmental unit or component thereof which performs as one of its 22 principal functions any activity pertaining to the enforcement of crimi-23 nal laws, provided that, such record is reasonably described and is 24 requested solely for a law enforcement function, and further provided 25 that data may not be transferred under this paragraph to United States
26 Immigrations and Customs Enforcement, United States Customs and Border 27 Protection, any other entity for the purposes of immigration enforce-28 ment, or to any out-of-state law enforcement agency, law enforcement 29 officer, or police agency for the enforcement of any criminal law the 30 elements of which would not constitute a crime in the state of New York; 31 or

32 (m) pursuant to a search warrant; or

33 (n) to officers or employees of another agency if the record sought to 34 be disclosed is necessary for the receiving agency to comply with the 35 mandate of an executive order, but only if such records are to be used 36 only for statistical research, evaluation or reporting and are not used 37 in making any determination about a data subject; or

38 (o) to officers or employees of a public retirement system of the city 39 of New York if the information sought to be disclosed is necessary for 40 the receiving public retirement system to process benefits under the 41 retirement and social security law, the administrative code of the city 42 of New York, or the education law or any other applicable provision of 43 law. A written request or consent from the data subject pursuant to 44 paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not be required for the disclo-45 sure of records pursuant to this paragraph; or

46 (p) to officers or employees of the United States department of educa-47 tion for such department to process credit for qualifying employment and 48 loan forgiveness under the public service loan forgiveness program. A 49 written request or consent from the data subject pursuant to paragraph 50 (a) of this subdivision shall not be required for the disclosure of 51 records pursuant to this paragraph; or

52 (q) necessary to prevent an immediate and substantial risk of death, 53 significant bodily harm, significant damage to property, or is otherwise 54 necessary to respond to an immediate emergency; or

55 (r) disclosed by a 911 service dispatcher in the course of responding 56 to an emergency reported via a 911 system or E911 system to emergency

1 medical services personnel, law enforcement officers, or others respon-2 sible for providing assistance at the scene of an emergency; or

3 (s) to licensing officers of New York state, as defined in subdivision 4 ten of section 265.00 of the penal law, for such officers to issue 5 firearm licenses pursuant to section 400.00 of the penal law.

6 (2) Notwithstanding subdivision one of section ninety-two of this 7 article, for the purposes of this section, the term "agency" has the 8 same meaning as in subdivision three of section eighty-six of this chap-9 ter.

10 (3) Notwithstanding subdivision one of this section, no agency may 11 disclose any record or personal information to a law enforcement agency, 12 law enforcement officer, or police agency unless such disclosure is 13 pursuant to paragraph (k), (l), (m), (q), (r), or (s) of subdivision one 14 of this section, and no agency other than a law enforcement agency or 15 police agency may disclose any record or personal information to a law 16 enforcement agency, law enforcement officer, or police agency pursuant 17 to paragraph (l) of subdivision one of this section.

18 (4) (a) An agency may only disclose records or personal information to 19 a person or entity that is not an agency pursuant to paragraph (b) or 20 (e) of subdivision one of this section if such person or entity agrees 21 in writing not to disclose such records or personal information to a law 22 enforcement agency, law enforcement officer, or police agency except 23 pursuant to this section.

24 (b) If an agency enters into a partnership or agreement with another 25 entity to provide services, and such other entity directly collects 26 records or personal information pursuant to such a partnership or agree-27 ment, the entity may not disclose the records or personal information 28 other than pursuant to paragraph (k), (l), (m), (q), (r), or (s) of 29 subdivision one of this section.

30 (c) No agency shall enter into an agreement described in paragraph (b) 31 of this subdivision with any police agency or law enforcement agency.

32 (5) Nothing in this section shall require disclosure of[+ 33 ~~(a) personal information which is otherwise prohibited by law from~~ 34 ~~being disclosed;~~

35 ~~(b) patient records concerning mental disability or medical records~~ 36 ~~where such disclosure is not otherwise required by law;~~

37 ~~(c) personal information pertaining to the incarceration of an incar-~~ 38 ~~cerated individual at a state correctional facility which is evaluative~~ 39 ~~in nature or which, if disclosed, could endanger the life or safety of~~ 40 ~~any person, unless such disclosure is otherwise permitted by law;~~

41 ~~(d) attorney's work product or material prepared for litigation before~~ 42 ~~judicial, quasi-judicial or administrative tribunals, as described in~~ 43 ~~subdivisions (c) and (d) of section three thousand one hundred one of~~ 44 ~~the civil practice law and rules, except pursuant to statute, subpoena~~ 45 ~~issued in the course of a criminal action or proceeding, court ordered~~ 46 ~~or grand jury subpoena, search warrant or other court ordered disclo-~~ 47 ~~sure]~~ any record or personal information or expand an agency's or 48 governmental unit's ability to disclose any record or personal informa-49 tion.

50 § 3. Section 97 of the public officers law, as added by chapter 652 of 51 the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

52 § 97. [~~Civil remedies~~] Remedies. (1) Any data subject aggrieved by 53 any action taken under this article may seek judicial review and relief 54 pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

55 (2) In any action brought under subdivision one of this section, the 56 plaintiff may seek:

1 (a) one thousand dollars per violation or actual damages, whichever is 2 greater; and

3 (b) punitive damages; and 4 (c) any other relief the court deems proper.

5 (3) In assessing the amount of punitive damages awarded to a plaintiff 6 in an action brought under subdivision one of this section, the court 7 shall consider:

8 (a) the defendant's pattern of violations of this article; and 9 (b) the impact of the violation on the data subject's exercise of 10 constitutional and statutory rights, including, but not limited to, 11 religion, political views, and medical care.

12 (4) In any proceeding brought under subdivision one of this section, 13 the party defending the action shall bear the burden of proof, and the 14 court [may] shall, if the data subject [substantially] prevails against 15 any agency [~~and if the agency lacked a reasonable basis pursuant to this~~ 16 ~~article for the challenged action~~], award to the data subject reasonable 17 attorneys' fees and disbursements reasonably incurred.

18 [~~(3)~~] (5) Any information disclosed to a law enforcement agency, law 19 enforcement officer, or police agency in violation of this article shall 20 be inadmissible against the data subject in a criminal or civil court, 21 or administrative proceeding.

22 (6) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge the 23 right of any person to obtain judicial review or pecuniary or other 24 relief, in any other form or upon any other basis, otherwise available 25 to a person aggrieved by any agency action under this article.

26 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
