AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to allowing a telephone call prior to an incarcerated individual's transfer

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 23 of the correction law, as 2 amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 1. The commissioner shall have the power to transfer incarcerated 5 individuals from one correctional facility to another. Whenever the transfer of incarcerated individuals from one correctional facility to 6 7 another shall be ordered by the commissioner, the superintendent of the 8 facility from which the incarcerated individuals are transferred shall 9 take immediate steps to make the transfer. The transfer shall be in 10 accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the department for the safe delivery of such incarcerated individuals to the designated 11 facility. [Within] Immediately prior to the transfer, the department 12 13 shall electronically notify the incarcerated individual's next of kin or 14 personal representative of the transfer and the incarcerated individual 15 shall be allowed to make at least one personal phone call, free of 16 charge, except under exceptional circumstances when to do so would create an unacceptable risk to the safety and security of incarcerated 17 individuals or staff. When a call is not permitted due to exceptional 18 circumstances, the department shall so indicate in a contemporaneous 19 20 written document. Additionally, within twenty-four hours of arriving at 21 the facility to which an incarcerated individual is transferred, he or 22 she shall be allowed to make at least one personal phone call, except 23 when to do so would create an unacceptable risk to the safety and secu-24 rity of incarcerated individuals or staff.
