Introduced by Sens. BRISPORT, SALAZAR -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to establishing a cause of action in tort for the wrongful injury to or death of a companion animal

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The general obligations law is amended by adding a new 2 section 11-108 to read as follows:
- 3 § 11-108. Wrongful injury or death of companion animal. 1. As used in this section:
- 5 (a) the term "companion animal" shall have the same meaning as such 6 term is defined in subdivision five of section three hundred fifty of 7 the agriculture and markets law; and
- 8 (b) the terms "physical injury" and "serious physical injury" shall 9 have the same meaning as such terms are defined in subdivisions nine and 10 ten, respectively, of section 10.00 of the penal law.
- 2. A person who with no justifiable purpose intentionally, recklessly or negligently, by act or omission causes the death of a companion animal shall be liable in damages for: the fair monetary value of the deceased companion animal to his or her owner; mental distress or emotional harm suffered by the owner or members of the owner's household caused by the death of the companion animal; the expenses of veterinary and other special medical care required; and other reasonable damages resulting from the intentional, reckless or negligent act or omission.
- 3. A person who with no justifiable purpose intentionally, recklessly or negligently, by act or omission causes physical injury or serious physical injury to a companion animal shall be liable in damages for: the expenses of veterinary and other special medical care required; mental distress or emotional harm suffered by the owner or members of the owner's household caused by the physical injury or serious physical
