STATE OF NEW YORK

4396

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

February 8, 2023

Introduced by Sens. SALAZAR, BRISPORT, CLEARE, GONZALEZ, JACKSON, MYRIE, RAMOS, RIVERA, SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to decriminalizing sex work; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating to prostitution (Part A); to amend the criminal procedure law and the civil practice law and rules, in relation to eliminating prior criminal records and making other related changes; and to repeal certain provisions of the criminal procedure law relating to the prosecution of prostitution offenses (Part B); and to amend the multiple dwelling law, the public health law, the real property actions and proceedings law, the real property law, the vehicle and traffic law, and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to making conforming changes (Part C)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act enacts into law major components of legislation relating to the decriminalization of certain prostitution offenses. Each component of this act is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A through C. The effective date for each particular provision contained within such Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any provision in any section contained within a Part, including the effective date of the Part, which makes reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Part in which it is found. Section three of this act sets forth the general effective date of this act.

Section 1. Section 230.00 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 169 of the laws of 1969, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 230.00 Prostitution: definitions.

[A person is guilty of prostitution when such person engages or agrees or offers to engage in sexual conduct with another person in return for a fee.

Prostitution is a class B Misdemeanor]

As used in this chapter, the following terms have the following meanings:

- 1. "Prostitution" means engaging or agreeing to engage in sexual conduct with another person in return for a fee.
- 2. A person "patronizes a person for prostitution" when: (a) pursuant to a prior understanding, the actor pays a fee to another person as compensation for such other person or a third person having engaged in sexual conduct with the actor; or
- (b) the person pays or agrees to pay a fee to another person pursuant to an understanding that in return therefor such other person or a third person will engage in sexual conduct with the actor; or
- (c) the person solicits or requests another person to engage in sexual conduct with the actor in return for a fee.
- 3. "Person who is patronized" means the person with whom the actor engaged in sexual conduct or was to have engaged in sexual conduct pursuant to the understanding, or the person who was solicited or requested by the actor to engage in sexual conduct.
- 4. "School zone" means (a) in or on or within any building, structure, athletic playing field, playground or land contained within the real property boundary line of a public or private elementary, parochial, intermediate, junior high, vocational, or high school, or (b) any public sidewalk, street, parking lot, park, playground or private land, located immediately adjacent to the boundary line of such school.
- 5. (a) "Advance prostitution" a person "advances prostitution" when, acting other than as a person in prostitution or as a patron thereof, and with intent to cause prostitution, the actor directly engages in conduct that facilitates an act or enterprise of prostitution.
- (b) Conduct by a person under twenty-one years of age shall not constitute advancing prostitution unless the person participated in compulsion by force or intimidation or in sex trafficking, or the person whose prostitution was advanced is under seventeen years of age.
- 6. "Profit from prostitution" a person "profits from prostitution" when, acting other than as a person in prostitution receiving compensation for personally rendered prostitution services, the actor accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby the actor participates or is to participate in the proceeds of prostitution activity.
- § 2. Section 230.01 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 23 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

§ 230.01 Prostitution; affirmative defense.

In any prosecution under [section 230.00, section 230.03,] section 230.19, [section 230.20, subdivision 2 of section 230.30 or section 230.34-a of this article, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of compelling prostitution under section 230.33 of this article, a victim of sex trafficking under section 230.34 of this article, a victim of sex trafficking in persons under the

§ 11. Section 230.30 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

§ 230.30 Promoting prostitution in the second degree.

A person is guilty of promoting prostitution in the second degree when [he or she] the actor knowingly:

- 1. Advances prostitution by compelling a person by force or intimidation to engage in prostitution, or profits from such coercive conduct by another; or
- 9 2. Advances or profits from prostitution of a person less than eigh-10 teen years old.

Promoting prostitution in the second degree is a class C felony.

- 12. Section 230.32 of the penal law, as added by chapter 627 of the laws of 1978, the opening paragraph and subdivisions 1 and 2 as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- § 230.32 Promoting prostitution in the first degree.
- A person is guilty of promoting prostitution in the first degree when [he or she] the actor:
- 1. knowingly advances or profits from prostitution of a person less than thirteen years old; or
- 2. being twenty-one years old or more, [he or she] the actor knowingly 21 advances or profits from prostitution of a person less than fifteen 22 years old.

Promoting prostitution in the first degree is a class B felony.

- § 13. Section 230.33 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 368 the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- § 230.33 Compelling prostitution.
- A person is guilty of compelling prostitution when, being eighteen years old or more, [he or she] the actor knowingly advances prostitution by compelling a person less than eighteen years old, by force or intimidation, to engage in prostitution.
 - Compelling prostitution is a class B felony.
- 14. The opening paragraph of section 230.34 of the penal law, as added by chapter 74 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of sex trafficking if [he or she] the actor intentionally advances or profits from prostitution by:

- § 15. Section 230.34-a of the penal law, as added by chapter 189 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:
- § 230.34-a Sex trafficking of a child.
- $[\frac{1}{1+}]$ A person is guilty of sex trafficking of a child when $[\frac{he \ or \ she}{1+}]$ the actor, being twenty-one years old or more, intentionally advances or profits from prostitution of another person and such person is a child less than eighteen years old. Knowledge by the defendant of the age of such child is not an element of this offense and it is not a defense to a prosecution therefor that the defendant did not know the age of the child or believed such age to be eighteen or over.
 - [2. For purposes of this section:
- (a) A person "advances prostitution" when, acting other person in prostitution or as a patron thereof, and with intent to cause prostitution, he or she directly engages in conduct that facilitates an act or enterprise of prostitution.
- (b) A person "profits from prostitution" when, acting other than as a 52 person in prostitution receiving compensation for personally rendered prostitution services, and with intent to facilitate prostitution, he or 53 54 she addepts or redeives money or other property pursuant to an agreement 55 or understanding with any person whereby he or she partisipates in the 56 proceeds of prostitution activity.

Sex trafficking of a child is a class B felony.

- 16. Section 230.35 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- § 230.35 Promoting or compelling prostitution; accomplice.
- 5 In a prosecution for promoting prostitution or compelling prostitution, a person [less than eighteen years old] from whose prostitution activity another person is alleged to have advanced or attempted to 7 advance or profited or attempted to profit shall not be deemed to be an 9 accomplice.
- 10 § 17. Section 230.40 of the penal law is REPEALED.
- 11 § 18. This act shall take effect immediately.

ELIMINATING PRIOR CRIMINAL RECORDS AND OTHER RELATED PROVISIONS

Section 1. Paragraph (k) of subdivision 3 of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 92 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

- (k) (i) The conviction was for a violation of article two hundred twenty or section 240.36 of the penal law prior to the effective date of former article two hundred twenty-one of the penal law, and the sole controlled substance involved was marihuana and the conviction was only for a misdemeanor and/or violation; or
- (ii) the conviction is for an offense defined in section 221.05 or 23 221.10 of the penal law prior to the effective date of chapter one 24 hundred thirty-two of the laws of two thousand nineteen; or
 - (iii) the conviction is for an offense defined in former section 221.05, 221.10, 221.15, 221.20, 221.35, or 221.40 of the penal law; or
 - (iv) the conviction was for an offense defined in section 240.37 of the penal law; or
 - (v) the conviction was for a violation of section 220.03 or 220.06 of the penal law prior to the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-one that amended this paragraph, and the sole controlled substance involved was concentrated cannabis; or
 - (vi) the conviction was for an offense defined in section 222.10, 222.15, 222.25 or 222.45 of the penal law[-]; or
 - (vii) the conviction was for a violation of penal law section 230.00, 230.03, 230.20, 230.25, or 230.40 as in effect prior to the effective date of part A of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this section; or
 - (viii) an order pursuant to subdivision six of this section was entered.

No defendant shall be required or permitted to waive eligibility for sealing or expungement pursuant to this section as part of a plea of guilty, sentence or any agreement related to a conviction [for a violation of section 222.10, 222.15, 222.25 or 222.45 of the penal law] or disposition and any such waiver shall be deemed void and wholly unento such conviction or convictions shall be expunged, as described in subdivision forty-five of section 1.20 of this chapter, and the matter shall be considered terminated in favor of the accused and deemed a nullity, having been rendered by this paragraph legally invalid. All such records for an offense described in this paragraph where the conviction was entered on or before the effective date of the chapter of the laws of [2019] 2023 that amended this paragraph shall be expunged promptly and, in any event, no later than one year after such effective date.

- § 3. Section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:
 - 6. A person convicted under article two hundred thirty of the penal law for what no longer constitutes an offense on or after the effective date of part A of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that added this subdivision may upon motion apply to the court in which such conviction occurred, upon not less than twenty days notice to the district attorney, for an order finding that the criminal action or proceeding was terminated in favor of such person, and such order shall be granted unless the district attorney demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that the interests of justice require otherwise.
 - § 4. Paragraph (k) of subdivision 1 of section 440.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 92 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:
 - (k) The judgment occurred prior to the effective date of part A of the chapter of the laws of two thousand [twenty-one] twenty-three that amended this paragraph and is a conviction for an offense as defined in subparagraphs (i), (ii), (iii) [er], (iv), or (vii) of paragraph (k) of subdivision three of section 160.50 of this part, in which case the court shall presume that a conviction by plea for the aforementioned offenses was not knowing, voluntary and intelligent if it has severe or ongoing consequences, including but not limited to potential or actual immigration consequences, and shall presume that a conviction by verdict for the aforementioned offenses constitutes cruel and unusual punishment under section five of article one of the state constitution, based on those consequences. The people may rebut these presumptions.
- § 5. Subdivision 5 of section 1310 of the civil practice law and rules, as added by chapter 669 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:
- 5. "Post-conviction forfeiture crime" means any felony defined in the penal law or any other chapter of the consolidated laws of the state. However, this shall not include any felony under article two hundred thirty of the penal law in effect prior to the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three which amended this subdivision, unless it was also a felony under that article on or after that date.
 - § 6. Section 60.47 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.
- 47 § 7. Subdivision 4 of section 170.30 of the criminal procedure law 48
 - § 8. Section 170.80 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.
- 50 § 9. Subdivision 2 of section 420.35 of the criminal procedure law, as 51 amended by chapter 23 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as 52 follows:
- 2. Except as provided in this subdivision or subdivision two-a of this section, under no circumstances shall the mandatory surcharge, sex offender registration fee, DNA databank fee or the crime victim assist-55 56 ance fee be waived. A court shall waive any mandatory surcharge, DNA databank fee and crime victim assistance fee when: (i) the defendant is convicted of [prostitution under section 230.00 of the penal law; (ii) the defendant is convicted of a violation in the event such conviction in lieu of a plea to or conviction for prostitution under section 230.00 of the penal law; (iii) a violation of article two hundred thir-ty or section 240.37 of the penal law, as in effect prior to the effec-tive date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three which amended this subdivision, unless the violation is an offense under law in effect on and after that effective date; or (ii) the court finds that defendant is a victim of sex trafficking under section 230.34 of the penal law, sex trafficking of a child under section 230.34-a of the penal law, or [a victim of] trafficking in persons under the trafficking victims protection act (United States Code, Title 22, Chapter 78)[- or (iv) the court finds that the defendant is a victim of sex trafficking of a child under section 230.34-a of the penal law].

- § 10. Subdivision 4 of section 720.15 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.
- § 11. Subdivision 1 of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 23 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. A youthful offender adjudication is not a judgment of conviction for a crime or any other offense, and does not operate as a disqualification of any person so adjudged to hold public office or public employment or to receive any license granted by public authority but shall be deemed a conviction only for the purposes of transfer of supervision and custody pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-m of the executive law. [A defendant for whom a youthful offender adjudication was substituted, who was originally charged with prostitution as defined in section 230.00 of the penal law, shall be deemed a "sexually exploited child" as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law and therefore shall not be considered an adult for purposes related to the charges in the youthful offender proceeding or a proceeding under section 170.80 of this chapter.]
- § 12. The office of court administration shall establish and make available all necessary forms for proceedings under this act no later than sixty days following the effective date of this section.
- 38 § 13. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 39 have become a law.

PART C OTHER CONFORMING CHANGES

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 12 of the multiple dwelling law is amended to read as follows:

- 1. It shall be unlawful to use any multiple dwelling or any part of the lot or premises thereof for the purpose of criminal conduct related to prostitution [or assignation of any description] under article two hundred thirty of the penal law. This subdivision shall only apply to conduct involving prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this subdivision.

§ 351. Lien. A multiple dwelling shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars if it or any part of it shall be used as a house of prostitution [er assignation] in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law with the permission of the owner, and such penalty shall be a lien upon the dwelling and lot upon which it is situated. This section shall only apply to conduct involving prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this section.

- § 352. Recovery of premises. If a multiple dwelling, or any part thereof, shall be used as a house of prostitution $[\frac{or}{assignation}]$ \underline{in} violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law with the permission of the lessee or [his] the lessee's agent, the lease shall be terminable at the election of the lessor, and the owner shall be entitled to recover possession of said premises by summary proceedings. This section shall only apply to conduct involving prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this section.
- 20 § 3. Section 2320 of the public health law is amended to read as 21 follows:
 - § 2320. Houses of prostitution; equipment; nuisance. 1. Whoever shall erect, establish, continue, maintain, use, own, or lease any building, erection, or place used for the purpose of [lewdness, assignation, or prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law is guilty of maintaining a nuisance.
 - 2. The building, erection, or place, or the ground itself, in or upon which any [lewdness, assignation, or] prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law is conducted, permitted, carried on, continued, or exists, and the furniture, fixtures, musical instruments, and movable property used in conducting or maintaining such nuisance, are hereby declared to be a nuisance and shall be enjoined and abated as hereafter provided.
 - 3. This article shall only apply to conduct involving prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of this subdivision.
 - § 4. Subdivision 5 of section 711 of the real property actions and proceedings law, as added by section 312 of the laws of 1962, is amended to read as follows:
 - 5. The premises, or any part thereof, are used or occupied [as a bawdy house, or house or place of assignation for lewd persons, or] for purposes of prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law, or for any illegal trade or manufacture, or other illegal business. As used in this subdivision, "prostitution activity" shall only mean conduct in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this subdivision.
 - § 5. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 715 of the real property actions and proceedings law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 555 of the laws of 1978, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, are amended to read as follows:
- 1. violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law, or for any illegal trade, business or manufacture, or any domestic corporation organized for the suppression of vice, subject to or which submits to 3 4 visitation by the state department of social services and possesses a 5 certificate from such department of such fact and of conformity with regulations of the department, or any duly authorized enforcement agency 7 of the state or of a subdivision thereof, under a duty to enforce the 8 provisions of the penal law or of any state or local law, ordinance, 9 code, rule or regulation relating to buildings, may serve personally 10 upon the owner or landlord of the premises so used or occupied, or upon 11 [his] the lessee's agent, a written notice requiring the owner or land-12 lord to make an application for the removal of the person so using or occupying the same. If the owner or landlord or [his] the lessee's agent 13 14 does not make such application within five days thereafter; or, having 15 made it, does not in good faith diligently prosecute it, the person, corporation or enforcement agency giving the notice may bring a proceed-16 17 ing under this article for such removal as though the petitioner were the owner or landlord of the premises, and shall have precedence over 18 19 any similar proceeding thereafter brought by such owner or landlord or 20 to one theretofore brought by [him] such owner or landlord and not prosecuted diligently and in good faith. [Proof of the ill repute of the 21 22 demised premises or of the inmates thereof or of those resorting thereto shall constitute presumptive evidence of the unlawful use of the demised 23 premises required to be stated in the petition for removal.] Both the 24 25 person in possession of the property and the owner or landlord shall be made respondents in the proceeding. As used in this subdivision, "pros-26 27 titution activity" shall only mean conduct in violation of article two 28 hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this 29 30 subdivision. 31

- 2. For purposes of this section, two or more convictions of any person or persons had, within a period of one year, for any of the offenses described in section [230.00, 230.06, 230.11, 230.12, 230.13, [230.20, 230.25,] 230.30, or 230.32 [or 230.40] of the penal law arising out of conduct engaged in at the same real property consisting of a dwelling as that term is defined in subdivision four of section four of the multiple dwelling law shall be presumptive evidence of conduct constituting use of the premises for purposes of prostitution activity. However, this subdivision shall only apply to an offense under article two hundred thirty of the penal law in effect on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this subdivision.
- § 6. Subdivision 3 of section 231 of the real property law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- 3. For the purposes of this section, two or more convictions of any person or persons had, within a period of one year, for any of the offenses described in section [230.00, 230.06, 230.11, 230.12, 230.13, [230.20, 230.25,] 230.30, or 230.32 [or 230.40] of the penal law arising out of conduct engaged in at the same premises consisting of a dwelling as that term is defined in subdivision four of section four of the multiple dwelling law shall be presumptive evidence of unlawful use of such premises and of the owners knowledge of the same. However, this subdivision shall only apply to an offense under article two hundred thirty of the penal law in effect on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this 56 subdivision.

§ 7. Paragraph 3 of subdivision b of section 233 of the real property law, as amended by chapter 566 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

- 3. The premises, or any part thereof, are used or occupied [as a bawdy-house, or house or place of assignation for lewd purposes or] for purposes of prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law, or for any illegal trade or business. As used in this paragraph, "prostitution activity" shall only mean conduct in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this paragraph.

sion one of this section within the last ten years, is convicted of a second violation of section [230.20, 230.25, 230.30, 230.32, 230.34, or 230.34-a [er 230.40] of the penal law and the holder used a for hire motor vehicle to commit such crime.

- § 10. Subdivision (a) of section 7-703 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:
- 7 (a) Any building, erection or place, including one- or two-family 8 dwellings, used for the purpose of prostitution [as defined in section 9 230.00] activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law. Two or more criminal convictions of persons for [acts of] prostitu-10 11 tion activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal 12 law in the building, erection or place, including one- or two-family 13 dwellings, within the one-year period preceding the commencement of an 14 action under this chapter, shall be presumptive evidence that the build-15 ing, erection or place, including one- or two-family dwellings, is a 16 public nuisance. In any action under this subdivision, evidence of the 17 common fame and general reputation of the building, erection or place, including one- or two-family dwellings, of the inmates or occupants 18 thereof, or of those resorting thereto, shall be competent evidence to 19 prove the existence of the public nuisance. If evidence of the general 20 21 reputation of the building, erection or place, including one- or two-family dwellings, or of the inmates or occupants thereof, is sufficient to establish the existence of the public nuisance, it shall be prima facie 23 24 evidence of knowledge thereof and acquiescence and participation therein 25 and responsibility for the nuisance, on the part of the owners, lessors, 26 lessees and all those in possession of or having charge of, as agent or 27 otherwise, or having any interest in any form in the property, real or 28 personal, used in conducting or maintaining the public nuisance. As used 29 in this subdivision, "prostitution activity" shall only mean conduct in 30 violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the 31 effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three 32 that amended this subdivision;
 - § 11. Subdivision f of section 20-247 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:
 - f. It shall be unlawful for any licensee to guide or direct any person to [a place of ill repute, house of ill fame or assignation, or to any house or place of amusement kept for immoral purposes, or to] any place resorted to for the purpose of prostitution activity in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law or gambling. It shall be unlawful for any such licensee to impart any information as to the location or address of any such houses or places, or to solicit the patronage of any person or persons for any hotel, lodging house or boarding house or place of temporary or permanent abode, or for any place where refreshments are served or amusement of any type provided. As used in this subdivision, "prostitution activity" shall only mean conduct in violation of article two hundred thirty of the penal law on or after the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-three that amended this subdivision.
 - § 12. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall have become a law.
- § 2. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by a court of component jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment

1 shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the 2 legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid 3 provisions had not been included herein.

4 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 5 the applicable effective date of Parts A through C of this act shall be 6 as specifically set forth in the last section of such Parts.
