1 2747. Separability.

2 § 2730. Short title. This title shall be known and may be cited as the 3 "Reimaging excess New York state property (RENEW) act".

4 § 2731. Definitions. As used in this title, the following words and 5 terms shall have the following meanings unless the context indicates 6 another or different meaning or intent:

7 1. "Authority" shall mean the public benefit corporation created by 8 section twenty-seven hundred thirty-two of this title, known as the 9 reimaging excess New York state property authority.

10 2. "Bonds" shall mean the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebt-11 edness issued by the authority pursuant to this title and the provisions 12 of this title relating to bonds and bondholders shall apply with equal 13 force and effect to notes and noteholders, respectively, unless the 14 context otherwise clearly requires.

15 3. "Construction" shall mean the acquisition, erection, building, 16 alteration, improvement, increase, enlargement, extension, recon-17 struction, renovation or rehabilitation of any project financed under 18 the provisions of this title; the inspection and supervision thereof; 19 and the engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic investi-
20 gations and studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifi-21 cations, procedures and other actions preliminary or incidental thereto.

22 4. "Cost" as applied to the repurposing of any real property financed 23 under the provisions of this title embraces all or any part of the cost 24 of construction and acquisition of all lands, structures, real or 25 personal property, rights, rights-of-way, franchises, easements and 26 interests acquired or used for the repurposing of real property, the 27 cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so 28 acquired, including the costs of relocating tenants or other occupants 29 of the buildings or structures on such land and the cost of acquiring 30 any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved, the cost 31 of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest, reserves 32 for principal and interest and for extensions, enlargements, additions, 33 replacements, renovations and improvements, cost of engineering, finan-34 cial and legal services, plans, specifications, studies, surveys, esti-35 mates of cost and of revenues, administrative expenses, expenses neces-36 sary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of 37 repurposing and such other expenses as may be necessary or incident to 38 the construction and acquisition of real property, the financing of such 39 construction and acquisition, including all costs relating to the refi-40 ancing or satisfaction of existing indebtedness; and any reimbursements 41 to any municipality, state agency, the state, the United States or any 42 other person or public corporation for expenditures that would be costs 43 of any repurposing hereunder had they been made directly by the authori-44 ty.

45 5. "Municipality" shall mean any county, city, town, village, refuse 46 district under the county law, improvement district under the town law, 47 any other such instrumentality, including any agency, authority or 48 public corporation of the state, or any of the foregoing, or any combi-49 nation thereof.

50 6. "Person" shall mean any natural person, partnership, association, 51 joint venture or corporation, exclusive of a public corporation.

52 7. "Real property" shall mean lands, structures, improvements fran-53 chises and interests in land, including lands under water, waterfront 54 property, marginal streets and riparian rights, space rights and air 55 rights and any and all other things and rights usually included within 56 said term and any fixtures, equipment and articles of personal property

1 affixed to or used in connection therewith. Real property shall also 2 mean and include any and all interests in such property less than full 3 title, such as easements, incorporeal hereditaments and every estate, 4 interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and 5 liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also all 6 claims for damages for such real estate.

7 8. "Resource recovery" shall mean the separation, extraction or recovery 8 of usable materials, energy or heat from solid waste through source 9 separation, incineration, recycling centers or other programs, projects 10 or facilities.

11 9. "Revenues" shall mean all rates, fees, rents, charges and other 12 income derived by the authority from its operations.

13 10. "State" shall mean the state of New York.

14 11. "United States" shall mean the United States of America or any 15 department, agency or instrumentality thereof acting on behalf of the 16 United States of America.

17 § 2732. Reimaging excess New York state property authority. 1. A 18 corporation known as the reimaging excess New York state property 19 authority is hereby created for the public purposes and charged with the 20 duties and having the powers provided in this title. The authority 21 shall be a body corporate and politic constituting a public benefit 22 corporation. Its membership shall consist of a board of thirteen members 23 chosen as follows: three members appointed by the governor; three 24 members appointed by the temporary president of the senate; two members 25 appointed by the minority leader of the senate; three members appointed 26 by the speaker of the assembly; and two members appointed by the minority 27 leader of the assembly. The members of the authority shall choose 28 from their number a chairman by majority vote of such members then in 29 office. Each member shall continue in office until such member's succes-30 sor has been appointed and qualifies. Each appointment following the 31 expiration of the original terms of appointment shall be for a term of 32 four years. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of any 33 member, other than by the expiration of a member's term, such vacancy 34 shall be filled for the balance of the unexpired term, if applicable, in 35 the same manner as the original appointment.

36 2. The powers of the authority shall be vested in the members thereof 37 in office from time to time and a majority of voting members shall 38 constitute a quorum at any meeting of the authority. In cases of a tie 39 vote, the chairman shall cast an additional vote. No vacancy in the 40 membership of the authority shall impair the right of such members to 41 exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the authority. Any 42 action taken by the authority under the provisions of this title may be 43 authorized at a meeting of the authority by resolution approved by a 44 majority of the members then in office, which resolution shall take 45 effect immediately, or, unless inconsistent with the provisions of arti-46 cle seven of the public officers law, any action may be taken by a 47 resolution circulated or sent to each member of the authority, which 48 shall take effect at such time as all of the members then in office 49 shall have signed an assent to such resolution and such assents are 50 filed with the minutes of the proceedings. No representative shall be 51 authorized to delegate any of his or her duties or functions to any 52 other person. The authority may delegate by resolution to one or more of 53 its members, officers, agents and employees such powers and duties as 54 the members may deem proper.

55 3. The members of the authority shall serve without salary or other 56 compensation, but each member shall be entitled to reimbursement for

1 actual and necessary expenses incurred by such member in the performance 2 of the official duties as a member.

3 4. Subject to the provisions of this subdivision, members of the 4 authority may engage in private employment, or in a profession or busi-5 ness. The members, officers and employees of the authority shall be 6 deemed to be state officers or employees and the authority shall be 7 deemed to be a state agency solely for the purposes of sections seven-8 ty-three and seventy-four of the public officers law, which sections are 9 hereby made applicable to the authority and its members, officers and 10 employees.

11 5. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of this or any other 12 law, general, special or local, no officer or employee of the state, or 13 of any political subdivision thereof, shall be deemed to have forfeited 14 or shall forfeit any public office or employment by reason of such 15 person's acceptance of a membership on the authority; provided, however, 16 a member who holds such other public office or employment shall receive 17 no additional compensation or allowance for services rendered pursuant 18 to this title, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for the actual and 19 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

20 6. A member may be removed from office by the board for inefficiency, 21 neglect of duty, conflict of interest or misconduct in office after the 22 authority has given such member a copy of the charges against him or her 23 and an opportunity to be heard in person, or by counsel in his or her 24 defense, upon not less than ten days notice. If any member shall be so 25 removed, there shall be filed with the chairman of the authority a 26 complete statement of the charges made against such member and the find-27 ing of such board thereon, together with a complete record of the 28 proceeding.

29 7. The authority and its corporate existence shall continue until 30 terminated by law, provided, however, that no such law shall take effect 31 so long as the authority shall have bonds, notes or other obligations 32 outstanding, unless adequate provision has been made for the payment 33 thereof. Upon termination of the existence of the authority, all of the 34 rights and properties of the authority then remaining shall pass to and 35 be vested in the counties in accordance with such law.

36 § 2733. Powers of the authority. Except as otherwise limited by this 37 title, the authority shall have power:

38 1. to make and alter by-laws for the regulation of its affairs and the 39 conduct of its business;

40 2. to adopt an official seal and alter the same at pleasure;

41 3. to maintain a principal office and regional offices at such place 42 or places as it may designate;

43 4. to sue and be sued;

44 5. to make and execute contracts and all other instruments necessary 45 or convenient for the exercise of its powers and functions under this 46 title;

47 6. to purchase any abandoned, surplus or otherwise unused state-owned 48 real property and to reconstruct, renovate, replace, maintain, repair, 49 enlarge, extend, operate, lease, as lessee or lessor, and/or regulate 50 the repurposing of such properties, and to enter into contracts for any 51 or all of such purposes, including contracts for the management and 52 operation of such properties and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise 53 dispose of any property or part thereof to the state, any person, public 54 corporation or municipality;

55 7. to borrow money and to issue bonds of the authority for any of its 56 corporate purposes, to secure the same with its revenues or other funds

1 and otherwise to provide for and secure the payment thereof and to 2 provide for the rights of holders thereof and to fund or refund the 3 same;

4 8. to make contracts and to execute all necessary or convenient
5 instruments, including evidences of indebtedness, negotiable or nonnego-6 tiable in each case for securing its bonds or to provide direct payment 7 of any costs which the authority is authorized to pay;

8 9. subject to any limitation imposed or authorized by law, to fix and 9 revise from time to time and charge and collect rates, rents, fees and 10 charges for the use of and for the services furnished or to be furnished 11 by a project or any portion thereof and to contract with any person, 12 partnership, association or authority or other body public or private 13 including a public corporation in respect thereof provided, however, 14 that the authority shall not have the power, within any city, to collect 15 rentals, charges, rates or fees from the owners of real estate, or the 16 occupants of real estate (other than the occupants of premises owned or 17 controlled by such authority, or by the state or any civil division 18 thereof), for services or facilities furnished or supplied in connection 19 with such real estate, if such services or facilities are of a character 20 or nature that as of the enactment of this act or formerly were 21 furnished or supplied by the city, unless the electors of the city shall 22 approve the granting to such authority of such powers by a majority vote 23 at a general or special election in such city;

24 10. to employ consulting engineers, architects, attorneys, account-25 ants, construction and financial experts, superintendents, managers, and 26 such other agents as may be necessary in its judgment, and to fix their 27 compensation;

28 11. to receive and accept loans, grants, aid in any form, gifts or 29 contributions from any source of either money, property, labor or other 30 things of value and, subject to the provisions of this title, to comply 31 with the terms and conditions thereof;

32 12. to enter into any lease of or to mortgage any property;

33 13. subject to any agreement with the holders of its bonds, to invest 34 moneys of the authority not required for immediate use in obligations of 35 the state or the United States or obligations the principal and interest 36 of which are guaranteed by the state or the United States or in certif-37 icates of deposit or time deposits secured in such manner as the author-38 ity shall determine, or in obligations of any agency of the state or the 39 United States which may from time to time be legally purchased by 40 savings banks within the state as an investment of funds belonging to 41 them or in their control, or in any other obligations in which the comp-42 troller of the state is authorized to invest pursuant to section nine-43 ty-eight of the state finance law or any successor provision of law;

44 14. subject to any agreement with the holders of its bonds, to 45 purchase bonds, of the authority out of any funds or moneys of the 46 authority available therefore, and to hold, cancel or resell the bonds;

47 15. to contract to render and to render such services to the United 48 States, or any public agency, public authority, municipality or poli-
49 tical subdivision of the state, as the United States, such public agen-50 cy, public authority, municipality or political subdivision shall 51 request, with respect to the custody, administration, management or 52 servicing of obligations, projects and property of such entity, includ-
53 ing but not limited to the use of the premises, personnel and property 54 of the authority, and may provide for reimbursement to the authority for 55 any expenses necessarily incurred by the authority in rendering such 56 services;

1 16. to appoint such officers, employees and agents as it may require,
2 prescribe their duties and qualifications and fix their compensation;

3 17. to establish such reserves as the authority deems necessary or 4 appropriate;

5 18. to acquire by lease, purchase or gift, hold and dispose of real 6 and personal property (whether tangible or intangible), which are 7 located within the state, or any interest therein, for its corporate 8 purposes, and, subject to any agreement with the holders of its bonds, 9 to sell any mortgage or loan or other personal property acquired by the 10 authority, at a public or private sale and at such price or prices as it 11 shall determine;

12 19. to enter into agreements, in its discretion, to pay annual sums in 13 lieu of taxes to any municipality, political subdivision or taxing 14 district of the state in respect of any real property which is owned by 15 the authority and located in such municipality, political subdivision or 16 taxing district;

17 20. to contract with persons, municipalities and the United States for 18 the use of facilities and for the fixing and collection of rates, 19 rentals, fees and other charges for the use of such facilities, or 20 services rendered by, or any commodities furnished by the authority so 21 as to provide revenues sufficient at all times to pay, as the same shall 22 become due, the principal and interest on the bonds, notes or other 23 obligations of the authority together with the maintenance of proper 24 reserves therefor, in addition to paying, as the same shall become due, 25 the expenses of operating and maintaining the properties of the authori-26 ty, together with proper reserves for debt service, depreciation, main-27 tenance and contingencies and all other obligations and indebtedness of 28 the authority;

29 21. to coordinate the activities of state agencies and authorities to 30 provide community facilities;

31 22. to participate in federal programs for the insurance of loans 32 including programs which require the authority to share any loss arising 33 out of any loan insured by the federal government; and

34 23. to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes 35 of the authority.

36 § 2734. Environmental applications, proceedings, approvals and 37 permits. 1. Any application in relation to the purposes of or contem-38 plated by this title, or any proceeding commenced by any participating 39 county or any municipality, with the department of environmental conser-40 vation, the department of transportation or any other state agency or 41 instrumentality or with the United States environmental protection agen-42 cy or any other federal agency or instrumentality shall inure to and for 43 the benefit of the authority to the same extent and in the same manner 44 as if the authority had been a party to such application or proceeding, 45 and the authority shall be deemed a party thereto, to the extent not 46 prohibited by any federal law. Any license, approval, permit or decision 47 issued or granted pursuant to or as a result of any such application or 48 proceeding shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the author-49 ity and shall be assigned and transferred by the town to the authority, 50 unless such assignment and transfer is prohibited by federal law.

51 2. All such applications, proceedings, licenses, approvals, permits 52 and decisions shall further inure to and for the benefit of and be bind-53 ing upon any person leasing, acquiring, constructing, maintaining, using 54 or occupying any project financed in whole or in part by the authority.

55 § 2735. Bonds of the authority. 1. (a) The authority shall have power 56 and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its bonds in such

1 principal amount as, in the opinion of the authority, shall be necessary 2 to provide sufficient funds for achieving its corporate purposes, 3 including the construction, acquisition, reconstruction, rehabilitation, 4 improvement or refinancing of state-owned real property and subject to 5 the provision of this title, the payment of interest on bonds of the 6 authority, establishment of reserves to secure such bonds, and all other 7 expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to 8 carry out its corporate purposes and powers. In addition, the authority 9 may, in anticipation of the issuance of bonds or the receipt of appro-10 priations, grants, reimbursements, revenues or other funds, issue notes 11 the principal of or interest on which or both shall be payable out of 12 the proceeds of bonds of the authority or appropriations, grants, 13 reimbursements, revenues or other funds of the authority. The authority 14 may also enter into bank loan agreements, lines of credit and other 15 security agreements and obtain for or on its behalf letters of credit in 16 each case for securing its bonds or to provide direct payment of any 17 costs which the authority is authorized to pay.

18 (b) The authority shall have power, from time to time, to issue 19 renewal notes, to issue bonds or other obligations to pay notes and 20 whenever it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the iss-21 uance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not 22 matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and 23 partly for any other purpose. The refunding bonds shall be sold and the 24 proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds, 25 including any interest thereon, to be refunded.

26 2. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, 27 every issue of its bonds shall be general obligations of the authority 28 payable out of any moneys, assets or revenues of the authority, subject 29 as to priority only to any agreements with the holders of particular 30 bonds theretofore or thereafter made pledging, assigning or creating a 31 lien upon any particular moneys, assets or revenues. The authority may 32 provide by agreement with the holders of its bonds that such bonds shall 33 be payable solely from and secured by particular revenues and property 34 of the authority.

35 3. The bonds shall be authorized by a resolution or resolutions of the 36 authority adopted as provided by this title; provided, however, that any 37 such resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds may delegate to one or 38 more members or to an officer of the authority the power to issue such 39 bonds from time to time and to fix the details of any such issue of 40 bonds by an appropriate certificate of such member, members or officer.

41 4. The bonds of the authority shall bear such date or dates, mature at 42 such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates (simple or 43 compounded), if any, be of such denominations, be in such form, be 44 executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such 45 place or places within or without the state, and be subject to such 46 terms of redemption prior to maturity, as may be provided by such resol-47 ution or resolutions or such certificate with respect to such bonds, as 48 the case may be; provided, however, that no bond or other obligations 49 shall mature more than forty years after the date of issue thereof and 50 no notes or renewal thereof shall mature more than five years after the 51 date of issue of the original notes.

52 5. The bonds of the authority may be sold by the authority at such 53 price or prices, at public or private sale, provided that no issue of 54 bonds may be sold at private sale unless the terms of such sale shall 55 have been approved in writing by (i) the state comptroller, where such 56 sale is not to such comptroller, or (ii) the director of the state divi-

1 sion of the budget, where such sale is to such comptroller, in such 2 manner and from time to time as may be determined by the authority, and 3 the authority may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which it 4 may deem necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance and 5 sale thereof.

6 6. Whether or not the bonds are of such form and character as to be 7 negotiable instruments under the terms of the uniform commercial code, 8 the bonds are hereby made negotiable instruments within the meaning of 9 and for all the purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to 10 the provisions of the bonds for registration.

11 7. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue 12 thereof or any trust indenture or indentures relating to such bonds may 13 contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the hold-14 ers thereof, as to:

15 (a) pledging, assigning or creating a lien on all or any part of the 16 rates, rentals, fees and charges made or received by the authority, and 17 all or any part of the moneys received or to be received as repayment of 18 loans, to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue thereof, 19 subject to such agreement with the holders of the authority's bonds as 20 may then exist;

21 (b) pledging, assigning or creating a lien on all or any part of the 22 assets of the authority, including mortgages and obligations securing 23 the same, to secure the payment of the bonds, subject to such agreements 24 with the holders of the authority's bonds as may then exist;

25 (c) the establishment and maintenance of reserves or sinking funds and 26 the regulation and disposition thereof;

27 (d) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any 28 issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledg-29 ing such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue 30 thereof;

31 (e) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon 32 which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of 33 outstanding bonds;

34 (f) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with the 35 holders of bonds may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the 36 holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such 37 consent may be given;

38 (g) limitations on the amount of moneys to be expended by the authori-39 ty for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority;

40 (h) the creation of special funds into which any moneys of the author-41 ity may be deposited;

42 (i) vesting in a trustee or trustees such property, rights, powers and 43 duties in trust as the authority may determine, which may include any or 44 all of the rights, powers and duties of the trustee appointed by the 45 holders of bonds pursuant to this title, and limiting or abrogating the 46 right of the holders of bonds to appoint a trustee pursuant to this 47 title or limiting the rights, powers and duties of such trustee;

48 (j) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a 49 default in the obligations and duties of the authority and providing for 50 the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds in the event of such 51 default, provided, however, that such rights and remedies shall not be 52 inconsistent with the general laws of this state and other provisions of 53 this title; and

54 (k) any other matters, of like or different character, which in any 55 way affect the security or protection of the bonds and the rights of the 56 holders thereof.

1 8. Any pledge or assignment made or lien created by the authority
2 shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge or assignment 3 is made or the lien is created; the moneys or property so pledged, 4 assigned or encumbered by the authority shall immediately be subject to 5 such pledge, assignment or lien without any physical delivery thereof or 6 further act; and such pledge, assignment or lien shall be valid and 7 binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, 8 contract or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether 9 such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any other 10 instrument by which a pledge, assignment or lien is made or created need 11 be recorded or filed.

12 9. Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the 13 bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any 14 personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

15 10. The authority, subject to such agreements with the holders of the 16 authority's bonds as may then exist, shall have power out of any funds 17 available therefor to purchase bonds of the authority.

18 11. The state shall not be liable on bonds of the authority and such 19 bonds shall not be a debt of the state, and such bonds shall contain on 20 the face thereof a statement to such effect.

21 § 2736. Bonds as legal investments. The bonds of the authority are 22 hereby made securities in which all public officers and bodies of this 23 state and all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance 24 companies and associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance 25 business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings 26 associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan 27 associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a bank-28 ing business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and 29 other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may 30 hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the 31 state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in 32 their control or belonging to them. The bonds are also hereby made secu-33 rities which may be deposited with and may be received by all public 34 officers and bodies of this state and all municipalities and municipal 35 subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds of this 36 state is now or may hereafter be authorized.

37 § 2737. Exemption from taxation of bonds. It is hereby determined that 38 the creation of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the 39 people of the state and for the improvement of their health, safety, 40 welfare, comfort and security, and that said purposes are public 41 purposes and that the authority will be performing an essential govern-42 mental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this 43 title. The state covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent hold-44 ers and transferees of bonds issued by the authority, in consideration 45 of the acceptance of and payment for the bonds, that the bonds of the 46 authority, issued pursuant to this title and the income therefrom and 47 all its fees, charges, gifts, grants, revenues, receipts, and other 48 moneys received or to be received, pledged to pay or secure the payment 49 of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation except for estate 50 or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

51 § 2738. Moneys of the authority. 1. All moneys of the authority from 52 whatever source derived, except as otherwise authorized or provided in 53 this title, shall be paid to the authority and shall be deposited forth-54 with in a bank or banks in the state designated by the authority. The 55 moneys in such accounts shall be withdrawn on the order of such person 56 or persons as the authority may authorize. All deposits of such moneys

1 shall, if required by the authority, be secured in such manner as the 2 authority may determine. The state comptroller and his or her legally 3 authorized representatives are authorized and empowered from time to 4 time to examine the accounts and books of the authority, including its 5 receipts, disbursements, contracts, leases, sinking funds, investments 6 and any other records and papers relating to its financial standing.
7 Such an examination shall be conducted by the comptroller at least once 8 in every five years; the comptroller is authorized, however, to accept 9 from the authority, in lieu of such an examination, an external examina-10 tion of its books and accounts made at the request of the authority.

11 2. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title related to the 12 investment of moneys of the authority, the authority shall have power to 13 contract with holders of any of its bonds, as to the custody, 14 collection, securing, investment, and payment of any moneys of the 15 authority, of any moneys held in trust or otherwise for the payment of 16 bonds, and to carry out such contract. Moneys held in trust or otherwise 17 for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of 18 such moneys may be invested, secured in such manner as shall be set 19 forth in such contract or agreement, and all banks and trust companies 20 are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The authority 21 shall establish and may amend from time to time, guidelines for the 22 investment of its moneys, including those held in trust for the benefit 23 of the holders of bonds, and shall file such guidelines in the authori-24 ty's public records within sixty days after the adoption of such guide-25 lines or amendments thereto.

26 3. Subject to the provisions of any agreement with the holders of 27 bonds and to the approval of the comptroller, the authority shall 28 prescribe a system of accounts.

29 4. The authority shall submit to the comptroller, within thirty days 30 of the receipt thereof by the authority, a copy of the report of every 31 external examination of the books and accounts of the authority.

32 § 2739. Agreement of the state. The participating counties and any 33 municipalities within their boundaries are authorized to and the state 34 does hereby pledge to and agree with the owners of any bonds issued by 35 the authority, that they will not limit or alter the rights hereby vest-36 ed in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the 37 holders thereof, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such 38 holders until such bonds, together with the interest thereon, with 39 interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and 40 expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of 41 such holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized 42 to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with 43 the holders of such bonds.

44 § 2740. Remedies of holders of bonds. 1. In the event that the author-45 ity shall default in the payment of principal of or interest on any 46 issue of bonds after the same shall become due, whether at maturity or 47 upon call for redemption, and such default shall continue for a period 48 of thirty days, or in the event that the authority shall fail or refuse 49 to comply with the provisions of this title, or shall default in any 50 agreement made with the holders of any issue of bonds, the holders of 51 twenty-five per centum in aggregate principal amount of the bonds of 52 such issue then outstanding, by instrument or instruments filed in the 53 office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of the 54 authority is located, and proved or acknowledged in the same manner as a 55 deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to represent the holders of 56 such bonds for the purposes herein provided.

1 2. Such trustee may, and upon written request of the holders of twenty-five per centum in principal amount of such bonds then outstanding shall, in his, her or its own name:

4 (a) by suit, action or proceeding in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, enforce all rights of the holders of the authority's bonds, including the right to require the authority to collect fees and charges and interest adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or 5
6
7
8
9
10 pledge or assignment of or lien upon, such fees and charges and interest, on properties and to require the authority to carry out any other agreements with the holders of such bonds and to perform its duties under this title;

11
12 (b) bring suit upon such bonds;

13 (c) by action or suit, require the authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the holders of such bonds;

14
15 (d) by action or suit, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds;

16
17 (e) declare all such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall be made good, then, with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum of the principal amount of such bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

18
20
21 3. Such trustee shall in addition to the foregoing have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the holders of the authority's bonds in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

22
24
25
26 4. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by the trustee on behalf of such holders of the authority's bonds. The venue of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be laid in the county in which the principal office of the authority is located.

1 § 2742. Limitation of liability; indemnification. 1. Neither the 2 members of the authority nor any person acting on its behalf, while 3 acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any 4 personal liability resulting from carrying out any of the powers 5 expressly given in or authorized by this title.

6 2. The provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law shall 7 apply to members, officers, employees and agents of the authority in 8 connection with any and all claims, demands, suits, actions or 9 proceedings which may be made or brought against any of them arising out 10 of any determinations made or actions taken or omitted to be taken in 11 compliance with any obligations under or pursuant to the terms of this 12 title.

13 § 2743. Exemption from taxation of property and income. The property 14 of the authority, and its income and operations shall be exempt from 15 taxation or assessments of every kind and nature; nor shall the authori-16 ty be required to pay any filing or recording fee or transfer tax of any 17 kind on account of instruments filed or recorded by it or on its behalf.
18 Mortgages made or financed (directly or indirectly) by the authority 19 shall be exempt from the mortgage recording taxes imposed by article 20 eleven of the tax law.

21 § 2744. Assistance by state officers, departments, boards and commis-
22 sions. The department of audit and control, department of law, and all 23 other state officers, agencies, departments, boards, divisions and 24 commissions may render such services to the authority within their 25 respective functions as may be requested by the authority.

26 § 2745. State, counties and municipalities not liable on bonds.
27 Neither the state, the counties nor any other municipality or public 28 corporation shall be liable on the bonds of the authority and such bonds 29 shall not be a debt of the state, the counties, any other municipality 30 or public corporation, and such bonds shall contain on the face thereof, 31 a statement to such effect.

32 § 2746. Annual reports. 1. The authority shall submit to the governor, 33 the chairman of the senate finance committee, the chairman of the assem-34 bly ways and means committee, the minority leader of the senate, the 35 minority leader of the assembly, the state comptroller and the state 36 director of the division of the budget within ninety days after the end 37 of its fiscal year, a complete and detailed report setting forth: (i) 38 its operations and accomplishments; (ii) its receipts and expenditures 39 during such fiscal year in accordance with the categories or classifica-40 tions established by the authority for its operating and capital outlay 41 purposes, including a listing of all private consultants engaged by the 42 authority on a contract basis and a statement of the total amount paid 43 to each such private consultant; (iii) its assets and liabilities at the 44 end of its fiscal year, including a schedule of its loans and commit-45 ments; and (iv) a schedule of its bonds outstanding at the end of its 46 fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and 47 incurred during such fiscal year.

48 2. Within ninety days after the end of the first fiscal year, the 49 authority shall provide a timeline for the work of such authority and 50 shall include an inventory of all unused and/or surplus property to 51 submit to the governor, the chairman of the senate finance committee, 52 the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee, the minority 53 leader of the senate, and the minority leader of the assembly.

54 § 2747. Separability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or 55 part of this title shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdic-
56 tion to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate

1 the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the 2 clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof involved in the 3 controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

4 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 5 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment 6 and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation 7 of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 8 completed on or before such effective date.
