Introduced by Sens. SEPULVEDA, SALAZAR -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Finance

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to directing the state police to promulgate any necessary rules and regulations regarding the flagging for further review of bulk purchases of firearms or ammunition

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 236 to read as follows:

§ 236. Bulk purchases of firearms or ammunition. In addition to the requirements of the statewide license and record database outlined in section 400.02 of the penal law, the superintendent shall establish and maintain within the division a central repository of information regarding firearms or ammunition purchased in bulk which requires further review. For the purposes of this section, the term "firearms or ammunition purchased in bulk" shall refer to unusually large purchases of firearms, rifles, shotguns, or ammunition, as determined by the superintendent. The superintendent shall adopt and promulgate any necessary rules and regulations prescribing reporting procedures for any purchases of firearms or ammunition purchased in bulk by credit card, debit card, PayPal, e-wallet, e-check, Lyra or any other payment system, including the form for reporting such information. The superintendent shall adopt and promulgate any necessary rules and regulations prescribing the review of information contained in the central repository created by this section for the purpose of investigating potential criminal activity.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
