- § 682. Student loan repayment accounts. 1. An employer is hereby 4 authorized to establish student loan repayment accounts which shall 5 permit his or her employees to deposit a portion of their pre-tax income, up to five thousand dollars annually, into such accounts solely for undergraduate or graduate student loan repayments. Employers electing to establish such accounts may contribute matching funds to an employee's student loan repayment account and shall receive a tax 10 deduction for such contributions. Such contribution may be up to a maxi-11 mum of one hundred percent of the employee's deposit, up to five thousand dollars annually, per employee account.
- 2. For the purposes of this section, "student loan" shall mean the 14 cumulative total of the annual student loans covering the cost of 15 attendance at an undergraduate or graduate college or university, and any interest thereon. 16
- 3. Employee student loan repayment accounts shall be established for the deposit of funds to be used by the employee solely for repayment of student loans. Such accounts shall be managed by the comptroller and the higher education services corporation. All participating employers and employees shall provide the comptroller and the corporation with all 22 necessary information in order to implement the provisions of this section.
- 24 4. Moneys in a student loan repayment account shall be available only 25 for repayments of student loans as defined in this section. Any withdrawal or distribution from a student loan repayment account which violated the provisions of this subdivision shall be subject to a penalty of ten percent on any such withdrawal or distribution.

- 5. The commissioner and the commissioner of taxation and finance shall jointly promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this section.
- § 2. Subdivision 9 of section 208 of the tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph (u) to read as follows:
- (u) A taxpayer establishing student loan repayment accounts pursuant 10 to section six hundred eighty-two of the education law shall be allowed 11 a deduction from entire net income in an amount equal to the total 12 amount of matching contributions made to employees' student loan repayment accounts by a taxpayer during the taxable year. 13
  - § 3. Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph 17 to read as follows:
- (17) The amount equal to the total amount of matching contributions 17 made by a taxpayer during the taxable year to employees' student loan repayment accounts established pursuant to section six hundred eightytwo of the education law.
  - § 4. Notwithstanding any provision of the tax law to the contrary, the aggregate of tax expenditure and taxes forgone pursuant to sections two and three of this act shall not exceed $70,000,000. The commissioner of taxation and finance shall immediately suspend both deductions established pursuant to such sections upon reaching the $70,000,000 threshold.
- 26 § 5. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 27 have become a law and shall apply to taxable years commencing on or after such effective date. Effective immediately the addition, amendment 28 and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation 29 30 of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 31 completed on or before such date.
