Introduced by Sen. SKOUFIS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law and the real property law, in relation to authorizing certain continuing education courses to be completed online

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 794 of the general business law, 2 as amended by chapter 301 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as 3 follows:

1. Prior to the expiration of a certificate of registration and as a condition of renewal, each hearing aid dispenser registered pursuant to subdivision one of section seven hundred ninety of this article shall submit documentation showing successful completion of twenty continuing education credits through a course or courses approved by the secretary in consultation with the advisory board, or, in relation to audiologists 10 licensed pursuant to article one hundred fifty-nine of the education law, the office of the professions in the education department. Such 11 formal courses of learning shall include, but not be limited to, colle-13 giate level of credit in non-credit courses, professional development 14 programs and technical sessions offered by national, state and local 15 professional associations and other organizations acceptable to the 16 secretary and any other organized educational and technical programs acceptable to the secretary. The secretary may, in his or her 17 discretion, and as needed to contribute to the health and welfare of the 18 public, require the completion of continuing education courses in 19 20 specific subjects to fulfill this mandatory continuing education 21 requirement. Courses shall be taken from a sponsor approved by the 22 secretary pursuant to regulations promulgated pursuant to this section. 23 Courses may be completed online, provided that such online course meets 24 the requirements of this section and is approved by the secretary.

EXPLANATION--Matter in  $\underline{italics}$  (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
