Introduced by Sen. MATTERA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the offense of misrepresenting a companion animal as a service animal for personal benefit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 242.20 to 2 read as follows:

3 § 242.20 Misrepresenting a companion animal as a service animal for 4 personal benefit.

5 1. A person shall be guilty of misrepresenting a companion animal as a 6 service animal for personal benefit when he or she:

7 (a) expressly or impliedly represents that an animal in his or her
8 possession is a service animal for the purpose of obtaining any rights 9 or privileges afforded to a person with a disability requiring the 10 assistance of a service animal and such person knows or should have 11 known that the animal in his or her possession was not a service animal; 12 or

13 (b) takes an animal, which such person knows or should have known not 14 to be a service animal, into a place of public accommodation where 15 companion animals are not permitted, and the animal accompanying said 16 individual is wearing a cape, vest, special leash, or other form of 17 identification that states or implies that the animal is a service
18 animal entitled to be present, even if such person makes no affirmative 19 statements asserting that the animal is a service animal.

20 2. "Companion animal" shall have the same meaning as set forth in 21 section three hundred fifty of the agriculture and markets law.

22 Misrepresenting a companion animal as a service animal for personal 23 benefit is a violation subject to a two hundred fifty dollar fine.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 25 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
