1     § 1199-a. Imposition of special tax. In addition to any other tax 2     imposed by this chapter or other law, there is hereby imposed a tax of 3     three-tenths of one percent or one dollar, whichever is greater, on the 4     receipts from the sale of art, antique furniture or antique jewelry at 5     auction. The tax is imposed on the purchaser and shall be collected by 6     the entity conducting the auction at the time of sale, provided however, 7     that where the tax imposed pursuant to this section is not collected by 8     the entity conducting the auction the purchaser shall remit such tax 9     directly to the commissioner.

10    § 1199-b. Administrative provisions. Every person required to collect 11    or pay the tax imposed under section eleven hundred ninety-nine-a of 12    this article shall file a return and pay such tax required to be 13    collected to the commissioner of taxation and finance on or before the 14    twentieth day after the close of the quarterly period in which the sale 15    took place, not delivery of object.

16    § 1199-c. Deposit and disposition of revenue. The taxes collected or 17    received by the commissioner under this article shall be deposited in 18    the art education fund established pursuant to section ninety-seven-uuuu 19    of the state finance law and disposed of pursuant to the provisions of 20    such section.

21    § 1199-d. Rules and regulations. The commissioner shall promulgate all 22    rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this 23    article.

24    § 2. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 97-uuuu
25    to read as follows:

26    § 97-uuuu. Art education fund. 1. There is hereby created in the joint 27    custody of the state comptroller and the commissioner of taxation and 28    finance a fund to be known as the "art education fund".

29    2. Such fund shall consist of all revenues received by the department 30    of taxation and finance, pursuant to the provisions of section eleven 31    hundred ninety-nine-b of the tax law and all other moneys appropriated, 32    credited, or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant 33    to law. Monies in the fund shall be kept separate and shall not be 34    commingled with any other monies otherwise appropriated or received 35    except as hereby provided.

36    3. Monies of the fund, when allocated, shall be available to the New 37    York state council on the arts for the purpose of providing assistance 38    for art education and art supplies at the kindergarten through twelfth 39    grade levels at public schools receiving federal funds pursuant to title 40    I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of nineteen hundred 41    sixty-five, as amended. As used in this section, the term "art educa-42    tion" shall include the following activities: painting, visual arts, 43    ceramics, field trips to museums or other institutions recognized by the 44    New York state council on the arts, and stipends for artists in resi-
45    dence. Any monies remaining in the fund at the end of each fiscal year 46    which have not been expended for art education or art supplies shall be 47    deposited into the general fund.

48    4. The state council on the arts shall establish guidelines necessary 49    to administer the fund. Guidelines shall include, but not be limited to, 50    qualifications and conditions for assistance and any other terms and 51    conditions the council may require as necessary to properly effectuate 52    the provisions of this section.

53    5. The state council on the arts shall provide by September first of 54    each year, to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the 55    speaker of the assembly, the chairman of the senate finance committee
56    and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee, a report

1 containing guidelines and amendments established by the state council on 2 the arts and a complete financial statement including, but not limited
3 to, monies allocated, collected, transferred or otherwise paid or cred-
4 ited to the fund. A projected schedule of disbursements and receipts of 5 the fund for the next fiscal year shall be included in each report. In 6 addition, any amendments to the guidelines shall be provided to the 7 above listed individuals within thirty days of their establishment by 8 the state council on the arts.

9 6. No monies shall be payable from this fund, except on the audit and 10 warrant of the comptroller on vouchers certified and submitted by the 11 chairman of the state council on the arts.

12 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
13 ing the date on which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, 14 the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation neces-15 sary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 16 authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
