AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to restructuring unsustainable sovereign and subnational debt

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The banking law is amended by adding a new article 7 to 2 read as follows:

ARTICLE 7

SOVEREIGN AND SUBNATIONAL DEBT

- 5 Section 300. Legislative intent.
- 6 301. Definitions.

- 7 302. Petition for relief; recognition.
- 8 303. Notification of creditors.
- 9 304. Debt reconciliation.
- 10 305. Submission, contents and voting on plan.
- 11 306. Financing the restructuring.
- 12 307. Priority of repayment.
- 13 308. Adjudication of disputes.
- 14 309. Application; opt in.
- 15 § 300. Legislative intent. The purpose of this article is to provide 16 effective mechanisms for restructuring unsustainable sovereign and 17 subnational debt so as to:
- 18 1. reduce the social costs of sovereign and subnational debt crises to
 19 residents of this state;
- 20 2. reduce systemic risk to the financial system, a system that is
 21 concentrated in this state;
- 3. reduce creditor uncertainty, including to the numerous holders of sovereign debt that are residents in this state;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

- 4. strengthen the role of the state of New York as a primary location 1 2 for the issuing and trading of sovereign debt;
 - 5. reduce the need for sovereign and subnational debt bailouts, which create moral hazard and are costly to residents of this state;
 - 6. otherwise protect economic activity within this state's borders, by reducing the likelihood of a sovereign debt default which could adversely impact the state's economy; and
- 8 7. reduce, out of universal human rights and humanitarian imperatives, 9 the social cost of unresolved sovereign debt crises imposed on the 10 people of insolvent nations, especially the poorest among them, taking 11 due account of creditor rights.
- 12 § 301. Definitions. For purposes of this article:
- 13 1. "creditor" means a person or entity that has a claim against a 14 state;
- 15 2. "claim" means a payment claim against a state for monies borrowed 16 or for the state's quarantee of, or other contingent obligation on, monies borrowed; the term "monies borrowed" shall include the following, 17 whether or not it represents the borrowing of money: monies owing under 18 bonds; debentures; notes, or similar instruments of original maturity of 19 20 at least one year; monies owing for the deferred purchase price of prop-21 erty or services, other than trade accounts payable arising in the ordinary course of government operations; monies owing on capitalized lease 22 obligations; monies owing on or with respect to letters of credit, bank-23 ers' acceptances, or other extensions of credit of original maturity of 24 25 at least one year;
 - 3. "plan" means a debt restructuring plan contemplated by section three hundred five of this article;
 - 4. "state" means a sovereign nation; or unincorporated territory; or any subnational unit thereof, excluding any municipality whose adjustment or debts is governed by 11 U.S.C. 9; and
 - 5. "independent monitor" means an individual appointed by the governor and acceptable to the sovereign debtor and to the holders, or their agents, of a majority of the obligations issued under New York law. The monitor is meant to facilitate and encourage an effective, prompt and fair agreement by the parties, as intended by this article.
- § 302. Petition for relief; recognition. 1. A state may invoke appli-37 cation of this article by filing a voluntary petition for relief with the state of New York.
 - 2. Such petition shall certify that the state:
- (a) seeks relief under this article, and has not previously sought 40 relief under this article, or under any other law that is substantially 41 42 in the form of this article, during the past ten years;
 - (b) needs relief under this article to restructure claims that, absent such relief, would constitute unsustainable debt of the state;
- 45 (c) agrees to restructure those claims in accordance with this arti-46 cle;
- 47 (d) agrees to all other terms, conditions and provisions of this arti-48 cle;
- (e) has duly enacted any national or subnational law needed to effectuate these agreements. If requested by the independent monitor, such 50 petition shall also attach documents and legal opinions evidencing 52 compliance with this paragraph; and
- (f) is cooperating with the International Monetary Fund to devise an 53 54 effective, efficient, timely and fair path back to sustainability.
- 3. Immediately after such a petition for relief has been filed, and so 55 56 long as such filing has not been dismissed by the independent monitor for lack of good faith, the terms, conditions, and provisions of this 2 article shall:

- (a) apply to the debtor-creditor relationship between the state and its creditors to the extent such relationship is governed by the law of this jurisdiction;
- (b) apply to the debtor-creditor relationship between the state and its creditors to the extent such relationship is governed by the law of another jurisdiction that has enacted law substantially in the form of this article; and
- 10 (c) be recognized in, and by, all other jurisdictions that have 11 enacted law substantially in the form of this article.
- 12 § 303. Notification of creditors. 1. Within thirty days after filing its petition for relief, the state shall notify all of its known credi-13 14 tors of its intention to negotiate a plan under this article.
 - 2. The independent monitor shall prepare and maintain a current list of creditors of the state and verify claims for the purposes of supervising voting under this article.
- § 304. Debt reconciliation. The creditor claims shall be reconciled 18 against debtor records and any discrepancies shall be addressed between 19 20 the parties.
- § 305. Submission, contents and voting on plan. 1. The state may 22 submit a plan to its creditors at any time, and may submit alternative 23 plans from time to time.
 - 2. No other person or entity may submit a plan on behalf of the state.
 - 3. A plan shall:

- 26 (a) designate classes of claims in accordance with subdivision six of 27 this section;
 - (b) specify the proposed treatment of each class of claims;
 - (c) provide the same treatment for each claim of a particular class, unless the holder of a claim agrees to a less favorable treatment;
 - (d) disclose any claims not included in the plan's classes of claims;
- 32 (e) provide adequate means for the plan's implementation including, 33 with respect to any claims, curing or waiving any defaults or changing the maturity dates, principal amount, interest rate, or other terms or 34 35 canceling or modifying any liens or encumbrances; and
- 36 (f) certify that, if the plan becomes effective and binding on the 37 state and its creditors under subdivision four of this section, the state's debt will become sustainable. 38
- 39 4. A plan shall become effective and binding on the state and its 40 creditors when it has been submitted by the state and agreed to by each class of such creditors' claims designated in the plan under subdivision 41 42 three of this section. Thereupon, the state shall be discharged from all 43 claims included in those classes of claims, except as provided in the 44 plan.
- 45 class of claims has agreed to a plan if creditors holding at 46 least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the 47 claims of such class voting on such plan agree to the plan.
- 48 6. Each class of claims shall consist of claims against the state that 49 are equal in priority, provided that:
 - (a) equal claims need not all be included in the same class;
- (b) claims of governmental or multi-governmental entities holding 51 52 claims defined under this article shall be included with the claims of 53 private holders of such claims, and each shall be classed separately; 54 and

(c) claims that are governed by this article or the law of another jurisdiction that is substantially in the form of this article shall not be classed with other claims.

- § 306. Financing the restructuring. 1. Subject to subdivision three of this section the state shall have the right to borrow money on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate.
- 2. The state shall notify all of its known creditors of its intention to borrow under subdivision one of this section, the terms and conditions of the borrowing, and the proposed use of the loan proceeds. Such 10 notice shall also direct those creditors to respond to the independent monitor within thirty days as to whether they approve or disapprove of 12 such loan.
 - 3. Any such loan shall be approved by creditors holding at least twothirds in amount of the claims of creditors responding to the independent monitor within that thirty-day period.
 - 4. In order for the priority of repayment, and corresponding subordination, under section three hundred seven of this article to be effective, any such loan shall additionally be approved by creditors holding at least two-thirds in principal amount of the covered claims of the creditors responding to the independent monitor within that thirty-day period. Claims shall be deemed to be covered if they are governed by this article or by the law of another jurisdiction that is substantially in the form of this article.
 - § 307. Priority of repayment. 1. The state shall repay loans approved under this article prior to paying any other claims.
 - 2. The claims of creditors of the state are subordinated to the extent needed to effectuate the priority payment under this section. Such claims are not subordinated for any other purpose.
 - 3. The priority of payment, and corresponding subordination, under this section is expressly subject to the approval by creditors under subdivision four of section three hundred six of this article.
- § 308. Adjudication of disputes. The independent monitor may request 33 that a court of competent jurisdiction appoint a referee or a special master to make recommendations to the court regarding the resolution of 34 any disputes arising under this article.
- 36 § 309. Application; opt in. 1. This article applies where, by contract 37 or otherwise;
- (a) the law of New York state governs the debtor-creditor relationship 38 39 between a state and its creditors; and
 - (b) the application of this article is invoked in accordance with section three hundred two of this article.
 - 2. Where this article applies, it shall operate retroactively and, without limiting the foregoing, shall override any contractual provisions that are inconsistent with the provisions of this article.
- 45 3. Any creditors of the state whose claims are not otherwise governed 46 by this article may contractually opt in to this article's terms, condi-47 tions, and provisions.
- 48 4. The terms, conditions, and provisions of this article shall apply 49 to the debtor-creditor relationship between the state and creditors opting in under subdivision one of this section as if such relationship 50 were governed by the laws of New York state under subdivision three of 51 52 section three hundred two of this article.
 - § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
