32 § 3. Subdivision (b) of section 1207 of the limited liability company 33 law, as amended by chapter 701 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read 34 as follows:

35 (b) With respect to a professional service limited liability company 36 formed to provide medical services as such services are defined in arti-
37 cle 131 of the education law, each member of such limited liability 38 company must be licensed pursuant to article 131 of the education law to 39 practice medicine in this state. Notwithstanding any other provision of 40 this section, any person licensed pursuant to article 131 of the educa-
41 tion law to practice medicine and any person licensed pursuant to arti-
42 cles 132, 137, 140, 141, 143, 144, 153, 154, 155, 156, or 167 or subdi-43 vision 3 of section 6902 of article 139 of the education law may form, 44 or cause to be formed, a professional service limited liability company 45 to provide multidisciplinary services with one or more licensed profes-46 sionals, subject to the following conditions: (i) each member of such 47 limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to title eight of 48 the education law to practice such member's profession in this state; 49 (ii) each member shall only practice such member's profession as spec-50 ified in such member's respective professional enabling statute under 51 title eight of the education law; and (iii) any clinical integration 52 of professional practices under this section shall not alter, expand or 53 curtail the scope of practice of any of the members; provided further 54 that: (A) no member shall, directly or indirectly, interfere with the 55 clinical judgement or legitimate clinical practice of another member; 56 and (B) no member shall order or direct another member to practice

beyond the scope of such member's license. With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide dental services as such services are defined in article 133 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 133 of the education law to practice dentistry in this state. With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide veterinary services as such services are defined in article 135 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 135 of the education law to practice veterinary medicine in this state. With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide professional engineering, land surveying, architectural, landscape architectural and/or geological services as such services are defined in article 145, article 147 and article 148 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 145, article 147 and/or article 148 of the education law to practice one or more of such professions in this state. With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide public accountancy services as such services are defined in article 149 of the education law each member of such limited liability company whose principal place of business is in this state and who provides public accountancy services, must be licensed pursuant to article 149 of the education law to practice public accountancy in this state. ~~[With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide licensed clinical social work services as such services are defined in article 154 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company shall be licensed pursuant to article 154 of the education law to practice licensed clinical social work in this state.]~~ With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide creative arts therapy services as such services are defined in article 163 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 163 of the education law to practice creative arts therapy in this state. With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide mental health counseling services as such services are defined in article 163 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 163 of the education law to practice mental health counseling in this state. With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide psychoanalysis services as such services are defined in article 163 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 163 of the education law to practice psychoanalysis in this state. ~~[With respect to a professional service limited liability company formed to provide applied behavior analysis services as such services are defined in article 167 of the education law, each member of such limited liability company must be licensed or certified pursuant to article 167 of the education law to practice applied behavior analysis in this state.]~~ A professional service limited liability company formed to lawfully engage in the practice of public accountancy as a firm, as such practice is defined under article 149 of the education law shall be required to show (1) that a simple majority of the ownership of the 1 firm, in terms of financial interests and voting rights held by the 2 firm's owners, belongs to individuals licensed to practice public 3 accountancy in some state, and (2) that all members of a limited profes-4 sional service limited liability company, whose principal place of busi-

5 ness is in this state, and who are engaged in the practice of public 6 accountancy in this state, hold a valid license issued under section 7 seventy-four hundred four of the education law. For purposes of this 8 subdivision, "financial interest" means capital stock, capital accounts, 9 capital contributions, capital interest, or interest in undistributed
10 earnings of a business entity. Although firms registered with the educa-11 tion department may include non-licensee owners, a registered firm and 12 its owners must comply with rules promulgated by the state board of 13 regents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a firm registered with the 14 education department may not have non-licensee owners if the firm's name 15 includes the words "certified public accountant," or "certified public 16 accountants," or the abbreviations "CPA" or "CPAs". Each non-licensee 17 owner of a firm that is registered under this section shall be (1) a 18 natural person who actively participates in the business of the firm or 19 its affiliated entities, or (2) an entity, including, but not limited 20 to, a partnership or professional corporation, provided each beneficial 21 owner of an equity interest in such entity is a natural person who 22 actively participates in the business conducted by the firm or its 23 affiliated entities. For purposes of this subdivision, "actively partic-24 ipate" means to provide services to clients or to otherwise individually 25 take part in the day-to-day business or management of the firm or an 26 affiliated entity.

7 any other provision of this section, any person licensed pursuant to 8 article 131 of the education law to practice medicine and any person 9 licensed pursuant to articles 132, 137, 140, 141, 143, 144, 153, 154, 10 155, 156, or 167 or subdivision 3 of section 6902 of article 139 of the 11 education law may form, or cause to be formed, a foreign professional 12 service limited liability company to provide multidisciplinary services 13 with one or more licensed professionals, subject to the following condi-14 tions: (i) each member of such limited liability company must be 15 licensed pursuant to title eight of the education law to practice such 16 member's profession in this state; (ii) each member shall only practice 17 such member's profession as specified in such member's respective 18 professional enabling statute under title eight of the education law; 19 and (iii) any clinical integration of professional practices under this 20 section shall not alter, expand or curtail the scope of practice of any 21 of the members; provided further that: (A) no member shall, directly or 22 indirectly, interfere with the clinical judgment or legitimate clinical 23 practice of another member; and (B) no member shall order or direct 24 another member to practice beyond the scope of such member's license.

25 With respect to a foreign professional service limited liability company 26 which provides dental services as such services are defined in article 27 133 of the education law, each member of such foreign professional 28 service limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 29 133 of the education law to practice dentistry in this state. With

A foreign professional service limited liability company formed to lawfully engage in the practice of public accountancy as a firm, as such practice is defined under article 149 of the education law shall be required to show (1) that a simple majority of the ownership of the firm, in terms of financial interests and voting rights held by the firm's owners, belongs to individuals licensed to practice public accountancy in some state, and (2) that all members of a foreign limited professional service limited liability company, whose principal place of business is in this state, and who are engaged in the practice of public accountancy in this state, hold a valid license issued under section seventy-four hundred four of the education law. For purposes of this subdivision, "financial interest" means capital stock, capital accounts, capital contributions, capital interest, or interest in undistributed earnings of a business entity. Although firms registered with the education department may include non-licensee owners, a registered firm and its owners must comply with rules promulgated by the state board of regents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a firm registered with the education department may not have non-licensee owners if the firm's name includes the words "certified public accountant," or "certified public accountants," or the abbreviations "CPA" or "CPAs". Each non-licensee owner of a firm that is registered under this section shall be (1) a natural person who actively participates in the business of the firm or its affiliated entities, or (2) an entity, including, but not limited to, a partnership or professional corporation, provided each beneficial owner of an equity interest in such entity is a natural person who actively participates in the business conducted by the firm or its affiliated entities. For purposes of this subdivision, "actively participate" means to provide services to clients or to otherwise individually take part in the day-to-day business or management of the firm or an affiliated entity.

§ 6. Paragraph (a) of section 1503 of the business corporation law, as amended by chapter 475 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, (i) one or more individuals duly authorized by law to render the same professional service within the state may organize, or cause to be organized, a professional service corporation for pecuniary profit under this article for the purpose of rendering the same professional service, except that one or more individuals duly authorized by law to practice professional engineering, architecture, landscape architecture, land surveying or geology within the state may organize, or cause to be organized, a professional service corporation or a design professional service corporation for pecuniary profit under this article for the purpose of rendering such professional services as such individuals are authorized to practice, and (ii) one or more individuals licensed to practice pursuant to article one hundred thirty-one and one or more individuals licensed pursuant to articles one hundred thirty-two, one hundred thirty-seven, one hundred forty, one hundred forty-one, one hundred forty-three, one hundred forty-four, one hundred fifty-three, one hundred fifty-four, one hundred fifty-five, one hundred fifty-six, or one hundred sixty-seven or subdivision three of section six thousand nine hundred two of article one hundred thirty-nine of title eight of the education law may organ-

1 ize, or cause to be organized, for business purposes only, a profes-
2 sional service corporation formed for pecuniary profit under this arti-3 cle for the purpose of rendering multidisciplinary services within such 4 a corporation as such individuals are authorized to practice individual-5 ly in such individual's respective professions, subject to the following 6 conditions: (A) individual who organizes, or causes to organize, such 7 corporation must be licensed pursuant to title eight of the education
8 law to practice such individual's profession in this state; (B) each 9 member shall only practice such member's profession as specified in such 10 member's respective professional enabling statute under title eight of 11 the education law; and (C) any clinical integration of professional 12 practices under this section shall not alter, expand or curtail the 13 scope of practice of any of the members; (D) no individual shall, 14 directly or indirectly, interfere with the clinical judgment or legiti-
15 mate clinical practice of another individual; and (E) no individual 16 shall order or direct another individual to practice beyond the scope of 17 such individual's license.

30 § 6509-a. Additional definition of professional misconduct; limited
31 application. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this article 32 or of any other provision of law to the contrary, the license or regis-33 tration of a person subject to the provisions of articles one hundred 34 thirty-two, one hundred thirty-three, one hundred thirty-six, one 35 hundred thirty-seven, one hundred thirty-nine, one hundred forty-one, 36 one hundred forty-three, one hundred forty-four, one hundred fifty-six, 37 one hundred fifty-nine and one hundred sixty-four of this chapter may be 38 revoked, suspended or annulled or such person may be subject to any 39 other penalty provided in section sixty-five hundred eleven of this 40 article in accordance with the provisions and procedure of this article 41 for the following:

42 That any person subject to the above enumerated articles, has directly 43 or indirectly requested, received or participated in the division,
44 transference, assignment, rebate, splitting or refunding of a fee for,
45 or has directly requested, received or profited by means of a credit or 46 other valuable consideration as a commission, discount or gratuity in 47 connection with the furnishing of professional care, or service, includ-48 ing x-ray examination and treatment, or for or in connection with the 49 sale, rental, supplying or furnishing of clinical laboratory services or 50 supplies, x-ray laboratory services or supplies, inhalation therapy
51 service or equipment, ambulance service, hospital or medical supplies, 52 physiotherapy or other therapeutic service or equipment, artificial

54 optical appliances, supplies or equipment, devices for aid of hearing, 55 drugs, medication or medical supplies or any other goods, services or 56 supplies prescribed for medical diagnosis, care or treatment under this chapter, except payment, not to exceed thirty-three and one-third per centum of any fee received for x-ray examination, diagnosis or treatment, to any hospital furnishing facilities for such examination, diagnosis or treatment. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit such persons from practicing as partners, in groups or as a professional corporation or as a university faculty practice corporation nor from pooling fees and moneys received, either by the partnerships, professional corporations, university faculty practice corporations or groups by the individual members thereof, for professional services furnished by any individual professional member, or employee of such partnership, corporation or group, nor shall the professionals constituting the partnerships, corporations or groups be prohibited from sharing, dividing or apportioning the fees and moneys received by them or by the partnership, corporation or group in accordance with a partnership or other agreement; provided that no such practice as partners, corporations or in groups or pooling of fees or moneys received or shared, division or apportionment of fees shall be permitted with respect to care and treatment under the workers' compensation law except as expressly authorized by the workers' compensation law. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit a multidisciplinary services practice formed pursuant to subdivision (a) of section twelve hundred three of the limited liability company law, subdivision (b) of section twelve hundred seven of the limited liability company law, subdivision (a) of section thirteen hundred one of the limited liability company law, paragraph (a) of section fifteen hundred three of the business corporation law, subdivision (q) of section 121-1500 of the partnership law, or subdivision (q) of section 121-1502 of the partnership law from pooling fees or monies received. Nothing contained in this chapter shall prohibit a medical or dental expense indemnity corporation pursuant to its contract with the subscriber from prorationing a medical or dental expense indemnity allowance among two or more professionals in proportion to the services rendered by each such professional at the request of the subscriber, provided that prior to payment thereof such professionals shall submit both to the medical or dental expense indemnity corporation and to the subscriber statements itemizing the services rendered by each such professional and the charges therefor.

§ 12. Subdivision 19 of section 6530 of the education law, as added by chapter 606 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

19. Permitting any person to share in the fees for professional services, other than: a partner, employee, associate in a professional firm or corporation, professional subcontractor or consultant authorized to practice medicine, ~~[ex]~~ a legally authorized trainee practicing under the supervision of a licensee, or an authorized professional licensed pursuant to article one hundred thirty-one, one hundred thirty-two, one hundred thirty-seven, one hundred forty, one hundred forty-one, one hundred forty-three, one hundred forty-four, one hundred fifty-three, one hundred fifty-four, one hundred fifty-five, one hundred fifty-six, one hundred fifty-nine, or one hundred sixty-seven or subdivision three of section sixty-nine hundred two of article one hundred thirty-nine of this chapter providing professional services in the same practice. This prohibition shall include any arrangement or agreement whereby the amount received in payment for furnishing space, facilities, equipment or personnel services used by a licensee constitutes a percentage of, or is otherwise dependent upon, the income or receipts of the licensee from such practice, except as otherwise provided by law with respect to a

1 facility licensed pursuant to article twenty-eight of the public health 2 law or article thirteen of the mental hygiene law;

3 § 13. Section 6531 of the education law, as amended by chapter 555 of 4 the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

5 § 6531. Additional definition of professional misconduct, limited
6 application. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this article
7 or any other provisions of law to the contrary, the license or registra-8 tion of a person subject to the provisions of this article and article 9 one hundred thirty-one-B of this chapter may be revoked, suspended, or 10 annulled or such person may be subject to any other penalty provided in 11 section two hundred thirty-a of the public health law in accordance with 12 the provisions and procedures of this article for the following:

13 That any person subject to the above-enumerated articles has directly
14 or indirectly requested, received or participated in the division,
15 transference, assignment, rebate, splitting, or refunding of a fee for,
16 or has directly requested, received or profited by means of a credit or
