Introduced by Sen. OBERACKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to establishing a residential investment exemption in certain cities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new
2 section 485-x to read as follows:

3 § 485-x. Residential property improvement exemption; certain cities.

4 1. Construction of improvements to residential real property initiated
5 on or after the first day of January, two thousand twenty-four in the 6 cities with a population of not less than seven thousand fifty and not
7 more than seven thousand sixty, determined in accordance with the two 8 thousand twenty census, may be exempt from city and school taxation as 9 provided in this section. Such real property shall be designated by the 10 city in which it is located as residential vacant land on such city's 11 tax roll prior to the construction of improvements.

12 2. (a)(i) Such real property shall be exempt for a period of eighteen
13 months or until a certificate of occupancy is issued, whichever is soon-
14 er, on all city and school taxation.

15 (ii) (A) Upon the termination of the exemption provided for under 16 subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, such real property shall be exempt
17 for a period of one year to the extent of eighty per centum of the 18 assessed value thereof and for an additional period of three years
19 provided, however, that the extent of such exemption shall be decreased
20 by twenty per centum each year during such additional period of three 21 years and such exemption shall be computed with respect to the 22 "exemption base". The exemption base shall be the assessed value as 23 determined by the assessor in the initial year of such four-year period
24 following the termination of the exemption provided for under subpara-
25 graph (i) of this paragraph.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD09064-01-3

(B) The following table shall illustrate the computation of the city tax exemption:

Year of exemption	Percentage of exemption
1	80
2	60
3	40
4	20

(C) Exemptions granted pursuant to this section shall apply to real property taxes imposed for both city and school district purposes.

(b) No such exemption shall be granted unless: (i) such construction of improvements was commenced on or after the first day of January, two thousand twenty-four or such later date as may be specified by local law;

(ii) the residential real property is situate in a city with a population of not less than seven thousand fifty and not more than seven thousand sixty, determined in accordance with the two thousand twenty census; and

(iii) such construction is documented by a building permit, if required, for the improvements, or other appropriate documentation as required by the assessor.

(c) For purposes of this section, the term "construction of improvements" shall mean the construction of a residential dwelling.

3. Such exemption shall be granted only upon application by the owner of such real property on a form prescribed by the commissioner. Such application shall be filed with the assessor of a city with a population of not less than seven thousand fifty and not more than seven thousand sixty, determined in accordance with the two thousand twenty census, on or before the appropriate taxable status date of such city and within one year from the date of completion of such construction of improvements.

4. If the assessor is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to an exemption pursuant to this section, they shall approve the application and such real property shall thereafter be exempt from taxation and special ad valorem levies by a city with a population of not less than seven thousand fifty and not more than seven thousand sixty, determined in accordance with the two thousand twenty census, as provided in this section commencing with the assessment roll prepared after the taxable status date referred to in subdivision three of this section. The assessed value of any exemption granted pursuant to this section shall be entered by the assessor on the assessment roll with the taxable property, with the amount of the exemption shown in a separate column.

5. In the event that real property granted an exemption pursuant to this section ceases to be used primarily for eligible purposes, the exemption granted pursuant to this section shall cease.

6. A city with a population of not less than seven thousand fifty and not more than seven thousand sixty, determined in accordance with the two thousand twenty census, may, by local law, establish a date for the commencement of effectiveness of the exemption offered pursuant to this section. A copy of all such local laws shall be filed with the commissioner and the assessor of the city.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
