9 the penal law, may be commenced at any time;

10 § 2. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 30.10 of the criminal 11 procedure law, as amended by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended 12 to read as follows:

13 (f) [~~For purposes of a prosecution involving a sexual offense as~~ 14 ~~defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, other than a~~ 15 ~~sexual offense delineated in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this~~ 16 ~~section, committed against a child less than eighteen years of age,~~] A 17 prosecution for incest in the first, second or third degree as defined 18 in sections 255.27, 255.26 and 255.25 of the penal law committed against 19 a child less than eighteen years of age[, ~~or use of a child in a sexual~~ 20 ~~performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law,~~] the period
21 of limitation shall not begin to run until the child has reached the age 22 of twenty-three or the offense is reported to a law enforcement agency 23 or statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment, whichever 24 occurs earlier.

25 § 3. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 3 of section 30.10 of the criminal 26 procedure law is REPEALED.

27 § 4. Subdivision (b) of section 208 of the civil practice law and 28 rules, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 29 follows:

30 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of 31 limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertain-32 ing to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file 33 a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special 34 proceeding, with respect to all civil claims or causes of action brought 35 by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition 36 suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute a 37 sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law
38 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age,
39 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
40 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age,
41 or the use of such person in a sexual performance as defined in section 42 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such 43 conduct at the time of the act, which conduct was committed against such 44 person who was less than eighteen years of age, such action may be 45 commenced, against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or 46 omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of said 47 conduct, [~~on or before~~] by the plaintiff or infant plaintiff [~~reaches~~ 48 ~~the age of fifty-five years~~] at any time. In any such claim or action, 49 in addition to any other defense and affirmative defense that may be 50 available in accordance with law, rule or the common law, to the extent 51 that the acts alleged in such action are of the type described in subdi-52 vision one of section 130.30 of the penal law or subdivision one of 53 section 130.45 of the penal law, the affirmative defenses set forth, 54 respectively, in the closing paragraph of such sections of the penal law 55 shall apply.

§ 5. Section 213-c of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 315 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 213-c. Action by victim of conduct constituting certain sexual offenses. (a) Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this article, except as provided in subdivision (b) of section two hundred eight of this article, all civil claims or causes of action brought by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law, or rape in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.25 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.40 of the penal law, or incest in the first degree as defined in section 255.27 of the penal law, or incest in the second degree as defined in section 255.26 of the penal law (where the crime committed is rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45), or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law may be brought against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of the said conduct, within twenty years.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, or any other provision of law to the contrary, all civil claims or causes of action brought by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest as defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, such action may be commenced at any time.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that a criminal charge be brought or a criminal conviction be obtained as a condition of bringing a civil cause of action or receiving a civil judgment pursuant to this section or be construed to require that any of the rules governing a criminal proceeding be applicable to any such civil action.

§ 6. Section 214-g of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 130 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 214-g. Certain child sexual abuse cases. Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would

1 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of 2 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age,
3 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
4 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 5 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 6 penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the 7 time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than 8 eighteen years of age, which is barred as of the effective date of this 9 section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or 10 the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of 11 intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be 12 commenced not earlier than six months after~~[, and not later than two~~ 13 ~~years and six months after]~~ the effective date of this section. In any 14 such claim or action: (a) in addition to any other defense and affirma-15 tive defense that may be available in accordance with law, rule or the 16 common law, to the extent that the acts alleged in such action are of 17 the type described in subdivision one of section 130.30 of the penal law
18 or subdivision one of section 130.45 of the penal law, the affirmative 19 defenses set forth, respectively, in the closing paragraph of such 20 sections of the penal law shall apply; and (b) dismissal of a previous 21 action, ordered before the effective date of this section, on grounds
22 that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party 23 to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, 24 shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this 25 section.

26 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
