AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to prohibiting conflicts of interest among board of elections employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The election law is amended by adding a new section 3-304
2 to read as follows:

3 § 3-304. Board employees; conflicts of interest. 1. No board of 4 elections employee shall engage in or participate in any trade or busi-
5 ness which creates, or may tend to create, an actual or potential
6 conflict of interest. No board of elections employee shall maintain a 7 financial interest, directly or indirectly, in or be employed by a 8 vendor or a company providing services to a candidate who has an 9 election overseen by such employee's office, including but not limited 10 to, printing companies, election consulting companies, direct mail
11 companies and digital marketing companies. No board of elections employ-12 ee shall maintain a financial interest, directly or indirectly, in or be 13 employed by a vendor or company that sells to the board voting machines, 14 electronic poll books, printers or other technical or electronic equip-
15 ment. A violation of any of the provisions of this subdivision shall be

1 cause for discipline by the board of elections, including removal of the 2 board of elections employee.

3 2. (a) No board of elections employee shall remain on the board of 4 elections payroll while also a candidate for an office who has an 5 election overseen by the board at which they are employed. For the 6 purposes of this article, a board of elections employee shall be deemed 7 a candidate for elective office upon the filing of a designating or 8 nominating petition for such office or, where nominations for such 9 office are made other than by petition, upon acceptance of a nomination.
10 Such employee may remain in "leave without pay" status until such time 11 as his or her candidacy shall cease, or upon the day following the 12 certification of election results for such office, whichever comes 13 first. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, when there are no 14 primary elections for the office being sought by a candidate that is 15 employed by the board of elections, that candidate may remain on the 16 board of elections payroll for no more than ninety days prior to a 17 general election.

18 (b) It shall not be a conflict of interest for a board employee to 19 file a designating petition for a party position, including a member of 20 a county committee as defined in section 2-104 of this chapter, district
21 leader as outlined in section 2-110 of this chapter, member of the state 22 committee as described in section 2-102 of this chapter, a delegate or 23 an alternate delegate to judicial district nominating conventions as 24 described in section 6-124 of this chapter, or delegate or an alternate 25 delegate to national party conventions as described in section 2-122 of 26 this chapter. However, upon another person filing a valid designating 27 petition creating a primary for that party position, then the board 28 employee may remain in "leave without pay" status until his or her 29 candidacy shall cease or upon the day following the certification of the 30 elections results whichever is first.

31 3. It shall not be considered a conflict of interest for a board of 32 elections employee who is a member of a county committee as defined in 33 section 2-104 of this chapter, a district leader as outlined in section 34 2-110 of this chapter, a member of the state committee as described in 35 section 2-102 of this chapter, a delegate or an alternate delegate to 36 judicial district nominating conventions as described in section 6-124 37 of this chapter, or a delegate or an alternate delegate to national 38 party conventions as described in section 2-122 of this chapter who, as 39 part of their duties in said party position, endorses or supports a 40 candidate for a party position or public office.

41 § 2. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 42 law.
