AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to allowing for child protective services workers to complete certain required training through distance learning methods

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 421 of the social 2 services law, as amended by chapter 525 of the laws of 2006, is amended 3 to read as follows:

4 (b) promulgate regulations setting forth training requirements which 5 shall specify, among other things, that all persons hired by a child 6 protective service on or after April first, nineteen hundred eighty-six 7 shall have satisfactorily completed a course approved by the department 8 within the first three months of employment, in the fundamentals of 9 child protection, provided, however, that on or after April first, two 10 thousand twenty-four, such course may be satisfactorily completed 11 through distance learning methods which evince that all participants are 12 in attendance for the duration of the course and are able to ask ques-13 tions of the instructor. Each county shall be authorized to adopt a 14 local law, ordinance or resolution to provide for a local department of 15 social services to fulfill the training requirement established by this 16 paragraph through a distance learning method, excluding the annual in 17 service training requirement. Such course shall include at least basic 18 training in the principles and techniques of investigations, including 19 relationships with other investigative bodies, legal issues in child 20 protection, and methods of remediation, diagnosis, treatment and
