12 goods. Deliveries made pursuant to this section that are subject to 13 federal or state law regarding the delivery or transport of goods shall 14 also comply with the requirements of those laws. In the event of a 15 conflict between subdivision three or four of this section and another 16 law dealing with the delivery or transport of goods, the other law
17 prevails.

18 6. Any person that violates any provision of this section shall be 19 subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars per violation, 20 except that the third-party food delivery service shall be the sole 21 liable party for violations of subdivision three of this section. Each 22 day a food service establishment is included on a third-party food
23 delivery platform and each food service establishment included on a

48 vehicles made available for rent, sharing, hire or any business use.

49 (d) Nothing in this section invalidates or limits an exclusion
50 contained in a motor vehicle liability insurance policy, including any 51 insurance policy in use or approved for use that excludes coverage for 52 motor vehicles used for delivery or for any business use.

53 (e) Nothing in this section invalidates, limits or restricts an insur-
54 er's ability under existing law to underwrite any insurance policy.

8 service period; and

9 (ii) is excluded under the terms of its policy.

10 § 3. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 11 law.
