- § 2. Subdivision (c) and paragraph 1 of subdivision (g) of rule 3211 of the civil practice law and rules, subdivision (c) as amended by judicial conference proposal number 4 for the year 1973, and paragraph 1 of subdivision (g) as amended by chapter 250 of the laws of 2020, are amended to read as follows:
- 8 (c) Evidence permitted; immediate trial; motion treated as one for 9 judgment. Upon the hearing of a motion made under subdivision (a) or (b) or paragraph one of subdivision (g), either party may submit 10 any evidence that could properly be considered on a motion for summary 11 judgment. Whether or not issue has been joined, the court, after 12 adequate notice to the parties, may treat the motion as a motion for summary judgment. The court may, when appropriate for the expeditious 13 14 15 disposition of the controversy, order immediate trial of the issues 16 raised on the motion.
- 1. A motion to dismiss based on paragraph seven of subdivision (a) of this section, in which the moving party has demonstrated that the action, claim, cross claim or counterclaim subject to the motion is an action involving public petition and participation as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section seventy-six-a of the civil rights law, shall be granted unless the party responding to the motion demonstrates that the cause of action has a substantial basis in law or is supported by a substantial argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law. Discovery shall be suspended pending a decision on the motion. The court shall grant preference in the hearing of such motion and shall set such hearing date no later then sixty days after the date of service of the motion unless the docket condition of the court requires a later hearing, but in no event shall the hearing occur more than ninety days after service of the motion. If a motion to dismiss is granted the court shall provide for the imposition of costs or other sanctions, including imposition of reasonable attorneys' fees.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
