AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring the dissemination of materials regarding child access prevention and the safe storage of firearms

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 808-a to read as follows:

§ 808-a. Firearms; child access prevention and safe storage. 1. For the purposes of this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:

a. "school district" shall mean any city school district, common school district, union free school district, central school district or central high school district;

b. "school" shall mean any public school district, charter school, private school, parochial school, or board of cooperative educational services;

c. "private school" shall mean a person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction in the state;

d. "notice" shall mean written information of the model content outlined in subdivision two of this section, produced in a concise, publishable format, such as a brochure, flyer, handbill, leaflet, letter, or pamphlet, that is intended to be provided directly to parents, guardians, or persons in parental relation to a student of the school, delivered to a receptacle designated for a student, mailed to a

1 student's last known address, emailed to a person in parental relation 2 to a student of the school, or delivered by any other reasonable methods 3 authorized by the commissioner; and 4 e. "school year" shall mean the period commencing on the first day of 5 regular instruction and shall end on the last day of instruction.

6 2. a. On or before July first, two thousand twenty-four, the depart-
7 ment shall develop model content for notice, produced in the English 8 language and in common non-English languages spoken in the state, which 9 shall include, at a minimum, information outlining New York's child 10 access prevention laws and laws relating to the safe storage of 11 firearms, including, but not limited to, sections 265.45 and 265.50 of 12 the penal law. The model content shall also include relevant statewide 13 resources and information related to child access prevention, the safe 14 storage of firearms, and firearm violence prevention.

15 b. Such model content shall designate a section for county- and 16 local-specific laws and regulations submitted to it by each county as 17 outlined in subdivision three of this section. The department shall 18 tailor the model content for each county by including in the designated 19 section for county- and local-specific laws and regulations the county-20 and local-specific laws submitted to it by each county.

21 c. On or before July first, two thousand twenty-five, and each July 22 first thereafter, the department shall update, as necessary, the model 23 content developed pursuant to paragraphs a and b of this subdivision.

24 d. The department shall publish the model content developed and 25 updated pursuant to paragraphs a, b, and c of this subdivision on its 26 website.

27 3. a. On or before May first, two thousand twenty-four, every county 28 shall submit to the department all information of county- and local-spe-29 cific laws and regulations related to child access prevention and the 30 safe storage of firearms.

31 b. On or before May first, two thousand twenty-five, and each May 32 first thereafter, every county shall submit to the department any 33 updated information, insofar as it exists, of county- and local-specific 34 laws related to child access prevention and the safe storage of 35 firearms.

36 4. Beginning on July first, two thousand twenty-four, all school
37 districts shall provide notice, at the beginning of the first semester 38 or quarter of the regular school year, of the model content outlined in 39 paragraphs a and b of subdivision two of this section; provided, howev-40 er, that if a child enrolls after the beginning of the school year, 41 notice of the model content shall be provided within one week of such 42 enrollment. Notice of the model content may be provided as a single 43 notice for multiple students living in the same household.

44 5. Beginning on July first, two thousand twenty-four, all school 45 districts shall maintain, through their website or affiliated social 46 media presences, the model content outlined in paragraphs a and b of 47 subdivision two of this section. The model content shall be updated, as 48 necessary, pursuant to paragraph c of subdivision two of this section.

49 6. Local schools, school districts, and the department are immune from 50 civil liability for any damages allegedly caused by, arising out of, or 51 relating to notice if the entity provided notice using the model content 52 provided to it by the department.

53 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
