20 (d) Law enforcement agencies subject to this section shall not report 21 or make publicly available the address, social security number, or other 22 unique personal identifying information of the persons stopped,
23 searched, or subjected to a property seizure. Law enforcement agencies 24 are solely responsible for ensuring that restricted information of the 25 individual stopped is not transmitted to the department of criminal 26 justice or otherwise released to the public.

27 (e) Each law enforcement agency covered by this section shall develop 28 and make publicly available a policy governing review and auditing of 29 stop data collected to ensure officer compliance with the requirements
30 of this article.

31 § 1109. Effect. (a) Any evidence recovered from or derived during a 32 stop, arrest, detention, or search made in violation of this article, or 33 recovered as a result of such a stop, arrest, detention, or search shall 34 be subject to the provisions of section 60.77 of the criminal procedure
35 law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preempt or limit 36 existing remedies or causes of action that may be triggered by 37 violations of this article.

38 (b) (1) This article shall supercede any local law or ordinance that 39 would expand the bases for an officer to engage in a stop, search, cita-
40 tion, detention, arrest, or questioning beyond those specifically 41 enumerated in this article, or otherwise conflict with or frustrate the 42 purpose of any provision of this article.

43 (2) This article shall not preempt local laws that would restrict 44 further the role of law enforcement officers in traffic enforcement, 45 including by:

46 (i) assigning certain traffic enforcement functions to local officials 47 or personnel who are authorized to conduct such functions instead of 48 sworn law enforcement officers; or

49 (ii) placing additional limits on officer conduct or questioning
50 during traffic stops.

51 § 2. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
52 60.77 to read as follows:

53 § 60.77 Rules of evidence; admissibility of evidence derived from the 54 unlawful stop of a motor vehicle, bicyclist or pedestrian.

55 1. Evidence derived from the unlawful stop of a motor vehicle, bicy-56 clist or pedestrian by a law enforcement officer that was primarily

1 based on a person's race, creed, color, national origin, or other status
2 protected under the human rights law, shall be inadmissible in a crimi-
3 nal action against such person or any other person whose freedom of 4 movement was affected by the stop.

5 2. For purposes of this section a stop is unlawful when, notwithstand-
6 ing the existence of probable cause or reasonable suspicion to believe a 7 person has committed a traffic infraction or a petty offense defined in 8 any city, town or village code, the law enforcement officer would not 9 have initiated the stop but for a person's race, creed, color, national 10 origin or other status protected under the human rights law.

11 3. A motion to exclude evidence pursuant to this section shall be made 12 and determined in the same manner as a pre-trial motion to suppress 13 evidence pursuant to article seven hundred ten of this chapter, and the 14 defendant shall bear the burden of proving by a preponderance of the 15 evidence that the stop was unlawful within the meaning of this section.
16 In evaluating the motion to exclude, the court shall consider the nature
17 of the traffic infraction or offense giving rise to the stop, the law 18 enforcement officer's usual duties with respect to enforcement of the 19 vehicle and traffic law or city, town or village code provision, any 20 evidence of a pattern of discriminatory enforcement of such law within 21 the jurisdiction, and any other evidence that may prove or disprove that 22 such law was a pretext for an unlawful stop within the meaning of this 23 section.

24 4. An order granting a motion to exclude evidence pursuant to this 25 section shall be appealable by the people in the same manner as an order 26 suppressing evidence pursuant to subdivision eight of section 450.20 of 27 this chapter, and an order denying a motion shall be appealable by the 28 defendant pursuant to section 450.10 of this chapter.

29 § 3. Section 837 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 30 subdivision 24 to read as follows:

31 24. Accept information from law enforcement agencies pursuant to 32 subdivision (c) of section eleven hundred eight of the vehicle and traf-
33 fic law and make the information, including the unique identification
34 number of the officer making the stop, publicly available online in a 35 manner that is clear, understandable, analyzable, and accessible to the 36 public.

37 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
38 ing the date upon which it shall have become a law.
