52 ing the default.

53 C. If a State in default fails to cure the default, the defaulting
54 State may be terminated from the Compact upon an affirmative vote of a 55 majority of the Commissioners of the Member States, and all rights, 56 privileges and benefits conferred on that State by this Compact may be

1 terminated on the effective date of termination. A cure of the default
2 does not relieve the offending State of obligations or liabilities
3 incurred during the period of default.

4 D. Termination of membership in the Compact shall be imposed only 5 after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted.
6 Notice of intent to suspend or terminate shall be given by the Commis-

16 unless agreed upon in writing between the Commission and the defaulting 17 State.

18 G. The defaulting State may appeal the action of the Commission by 19 petitioning the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia or the 31 1. The Commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall 32 enforce the provisions and Rules of this Compact.

33 2. By majority vote, the Commission may initiate legal action in the 34 United States District Court for the District of Columbia or the federal 35 district where the Commission has its principal offices against a Member 36 State in default to enforce compliance with the provisions of the 37 Compact and its promulgated Rules and Bylaws. The relief sought may 38 include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event judicial 39 enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all 40 costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees. The 51 2. A Charter Member State whose enactment is found to be materially 52 different from the model Compact statute shall be entitled to the 53 default process set forth in Article X.

8 adoption of the Rules and Bylaws shall be subject to the Rules and 9 Bylaws as they exist on the date on which the Compact becomes law in

11 shall have the full force and effect of law on the day the Compact 12 becomes law in that State, as the Rules and Bylaws may be amended as

30 membership in the compact, or of the United States or the applicability 31 thereof to any other government, agency, person or circumstance is held 32 invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Compact and the applica-

50 to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof 51 directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have 52 been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature
53 that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions
