2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 25, 2023

Introduced by Sen. MURRAY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to lease-hold retirement communities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 2 238-b to read as follows:

3 § 238-b. Lease-hold retirement community. 1. Definitions. As used in 4 this section:

5 (a) A "lease-hold retirement community" shall mean a contiguous parcel 6 of privately owned real property containing two hundred or more lots 7 which are leased to owners of year-round homes erected thereon and 8 affixed thereto wherein the occupation is restricted to individuals 9 based on age pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision three of this 10 section.

11 A "lease-hold retirement community" shall not include a manufactured 12 home park, or condominium, as defined in this chapter, a continuing care
13 retirement community authorized under article forty-six or forty-six-A 14 of the public health law, or a cooperative housing corporation.

15 (b) "Home owner" shall mean one who holds title to a home.

16 (c) "Tenant" shall mean one who occupies a home in a lease-hold 17 retirement community for thirty days or more, and whose occupation of 18 the home in the lease-hold retirement community is known to the lease-19 hold retirement community owner or operator.

20 2. Leases. (a) Any lease-hold retirement community owner or operator 21 shall offer every home owner the opportunity to sign a long term lease 22 for ninety-nine years, with an option of the home owner to cancel said 23 lease on ninety days written notice to said owner or operator.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02016-06-3

1 (b) A copy of such lease-hold retirement community's rules and regu-
2 lations, if any, shall be attached to and become a part of the lease 3 provided for by this section, as if fully set forth therein.

4 (c) No rules or regulations shall be inconsistent with the lease 5 provisions in effect at the commencement of such lease.

6 (d) A copy of the lease shall be delivered by such lease-hold retire-7 ment community owner or operator to all home owners or tenants at the 8 time of the first deposit made payable to said lease-hold retirement 9 community owner or operator.

10 3. Rules and regulations. (a) The lease-hold retirement community 11 owner or operator may promulgate rules or regulations governing the rent 12 and use or occupation of the home lot, provided that such rules or regu-13 lations shall not be unreasonable, arbitrary or capricious.

14 (b) A copy of all rules and regulations shall be delivered by the 15 lease-hold retirement community owner or operator to all home owners or 16 tenants at the time of the first deposit made payable to said lease-hold 17 retirement community owner or operator.

18 (c) A copy of all rules and regulations shall be posted in a conspicu-19 ous public location upon the grounds of the lease-hold retirement commu-20 nity.

21 (d) If a rule or regulation is not applied uniformly to all home 22 owners or tenants, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that such 23 rule or regulation is unreasonable, arbitrary or capricious.

24 (e) Any rule or regulation which does not conform to the requirements 25 of this section or which has not been supplied or posted as required by 26 this section, shall not be enforceable.

27 (f) No rule or regulation may be added, amended, repealed or changed 28 by the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator without speci-29 ifying the date of implementation of said added, amended, repealed or 30 changed rule or regulation, which date shall be no fewer than thirty 31 days after written notice to all home owners or tenants.

32 (g) Rules and regulations shall not take effect until supplied and 33 posted pursuant to this subdivision.

34 (h) Such rules and regulations may establish a minimum age for indi-35 viduals to occupy a home within the lease-hold retirement community 36 subject to any applicable law.

37 4. Fees. (a) No lease-hold retirement community home owner or tenant 38 shall be charged a fee, charge, or assessment except for rent, utili-
39 ties, and fees for services necessary for the operation of the lease-40 hold retirement community, such as for facilities available to the home 41 owners and tenants.

42 (b) All such charges for rent, utilities, services necessary for the 43 operation of the lease-hold retirement community, and facilities avail-44 able to the home owners and tenants must be reasonably related to the 45 facility available or the services actually rendered.

46 (c) A lease-hold retirement community owner or operator must fully 47 disclose all charges for rent, utilities, services necessary for the 48 operation of the lease-hold retirement community, and facilities avail-49 able to the home owners and tenants to all home owners at the time of 50 the first deposit made payable to said community owner or operator. A 51 new or increased fee, charge, or assessment that is not specified in a 52 home owner's lease agreement shall not be collectable until the lease-53 hold retirement community owner or operator provides the home owner with 54 a written copy detailing such fee, charge, or assessment specifying the 55 date of implementation which shall be no less than ninety days after 56 such written notice.

(d) Failure on the part of the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator to fully disclose all charges for rent, utilities, services necessary for the operation of the lease-hold retirement community, and facilities available to the home owners and tenants pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision shall prevent the said community owner or operator from collecting such charges.

5. Prohibition. No lease-hold retirement community owner or operator shall:

(a) Restrict the purchase or installation of any commodities, goods or services by the home owner or agent thereof to specific vendors, including, but not limited to, employees, agents or other persons acting for or on behalf of the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator.

(b) Restrict the interior improvement, including but not limited to, the installation of appliances, to any property of the home owner or tenant, so long as such interior improvement is in compliance with applicable building codes, other provisions of law, and the rules and regulations of the lease-hold retirement community and provided further that adequate utilities are available for such improvement.

(c) Restrict the installation, maintenance or repair of any property of the home owner or tenant to specific vendors including, but not limited to, employees, agents or other persons acting for or on behalf of the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator.

(d) Charge a fee or impose other charges on a home owner or tenant who chooses to install appliances or fixtures. This shall not restrict the ability of the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator to collect increased utility charges resulting from the installation of any appliance or fixture.

(e) Impose any charge for or restrict the ingress or egress to the lease-hold retirement community of, any person employed, retained, or invited by the home owner or tenant.

6. Sale of homes. (a) No lease-hold retirement community owner or operator shall deny a home owner the right to sell their home within the lease-hold retirement community provided the home owner shall give to the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator twenty days' written notice of the home owner's intention to sell, provided that if the home owner is deceased no such notice shall be required from the administrator or executor of the home owner's estate, and provided further that no lease-hold retirement community owner or operator shall restrict access to the lease-hold retirement community to any potential purchaser or representatives of any seller unless the lease-hold retirement community owner establishes that such restriction is necessary to protect the property of such community owner or operator from substantial harm or impairment. The lease-hold retirement community owner or operator may reserve the right to approve the purchaser of said home for the remainder of the seller's or deceased home owner's term but such permission may not be unreasonably withheld. If the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator unreasonably withholds permission or unreasonably restricts access to the lease-hold retirement community, the home owner or the executor or administrator of a deceased home owner's estate may recover the costs of the proceedings and attorneys' fees if it is found that the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator acted in bad faith by withholding permission or restricting access.

(b) The right to sell a lease-hold retirement community home includes the incidental right to use any and all methods common to sales of residential property.

1 (c) The lease-hold retirement community owner or operator shall enter 2 into a lease agreement within a reasonable time from the completion of 3 the sale pursuant to subdivision two of this section with the subsequent 4 purchaser of a home in the lease-hold retirement community.

5 (d) The lease-hold retirement community owner or operator shall not 6 exact a commission or fee with respect to the price realized by the 7 seller unless the community owner or operator has acted as agent for the 8 home owner in the sale pursuant to a written contract.

9 (e) If the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator rejects a 10 purchaser as a prospective home owner, the selling home owner must be 11 informed in writing of the reasons therefor.

12 7. (a) The lease-hold retirement community owner or operator may 13 reserve the right to approve any tenants who lease or sublease real 14 property and any improvements thereon from a home owner within the 15 lease-hold retirement community. The lease-hold retirement community 16 owner or operator may only withhold approval if the proposed tenant or 17 proposed lease or sublease is not in conformity with the established 18 rules and regulations of such lease-hold retirement community.

19 (b) If a home owner wishes to lease or sublease real property and any 20 improvements thereon within a lease-hold retirement community:

21 (1) The home owner must inform the lease-hold retirement community
22 owner or operator no less than thirty days prior to the proposed effec-23 tive date of such lease or sublease.

24 (2) The lease-hold retirement community owner or operator may request 25 additional information from the home owner within ten days. If such 26 additional information is not unduly burdensome, failure to provide such 27 additional information will allow the lease-hold retirement community 28 owner or operator to withhold their approval of the proposed tenant or 29 proposed lease or sublease.

30 (3) If the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator does not 31 respond by approving or withholding approval of the proposed tenant or 32 proposed lease or sublease within thirty days of the initial request by 33 the homeowner, the proposed tenant or proposed lease or sublease shall 34 be deemed approved.

35 8. Emergencies. A lease-hold retirement community owner or operator
36 shall designate a phone number that is available on a twenty-four hour 37 basis to insure the availability of emergency response in matters 38 affecting the health, safety, well-being, and general welfare of lease-39 hold retirement community tenants. The telephone number shall be posted 40 in a conspicuous public location in the lease-hold retirement community, 41 given in writing to each home owner and tenant, and registered with 42 appropriate municipal law enforcement, health and fire officials.

43 9. Retaliation. (a) No lease-hold retirement community owner or opera-44 tor shall serve a notice to quit upon any home owner or commence any 45 action to recover real property or summary proceeding to recover 46 possession of real property in retaliation for:

47 (1) A good faith complaint, by or in behalf of the home owner, to a 48 governmental authority of the lease-hold retirement community owner's 49 or operator's alleged violation of any health or safety law, regu-50 lation, code, or ordinance, or any law or regulation which has as its 51 objective the regulation of premises used for dwelling purposes; or 52 (2) Actions taken in good faith, by or in behalf of the home owner, to 53 secure or enforce any rights under the lease, under subdivision ten of 54 this section and subdivisions two and three of section two hundred thir-55 ty-five-b of this article, or under any other local law, law of the 56 state of New York, or of its governmental subdivisions, or of the

1 United States which has as its objective the regulation of premises used 2 for dwelling purposes; or

3 (3) The home owners's participation in the activities of a home 4 owners's organization.

5 (b) No lease-hold retirement community owner or operator shall 6 substantially alter the terms of the tenancy in retaliation for any 7 actions set forth in subparagraphs one, two and three of paragraph (a) 8 of this subdivision.

9 (c) This subdivision shall apply to all lease-hold retirement communi-10 ty with four or more homes. However, its provisions shall not be given 11 effect in any case in which it is established that the condition from 12 which the complaint or action arose was caused by the home owner, a 13 member of the home owner's household, or a guest of the home owner. Nor 14 shall it apply in a case where a tenancy was terminated pursuant to the 15 terms of a lease as a result of a bona fide transfer of ownership. The 16 rights and obligations of the lease-hold retirement community owner or 17 operator and the home owner shall be governed by the provisions of this 18 subdivision and subdivisions three, four and five of section two hundred 19 twenty-three-b of this article.

20 10. Warranty of habitability, maintenance, disruption of services. In 21 every written or oral lease or rental agreement entered into by a home 22 owner, the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator shall be 23 deemed to covenant and warrant that the premises so leased or rented and 24 the home if rented, including rental through a rent-to-own contract, and 25 all areas used in connection therewith in common with other home owner 26 or residents including all roads within the lease-hold retirement commu-27 nity are fit for human habitation and for the uses reasonably intended 28 by the parties and that the occupants of such premises and such homes if 29 rented shall not be subjected to any conditions which would be danger-30 ous, hazardous or detrimental to their life, health or safety. When any 31 such condition has been caused by the misconduct of the home owner or 32 lessee or persons under their direction or control, it shall not consti-33 tute a breach of such covenants and warranties. The rights and obli-34 gations of the lease-hold retirement community owner or operator and the 35 home owner shall be governed by the provisions of this subdivision and 36 subdivisions two and three of section two hundred thirty-five-b of this 37 article.

38 11. Attorneys' fees. Whenever a lease shall provide that in any action 39 or summary proceeding the lease-hold retirement community owner or 40 operator may recover attorneys' fees and expenses awarded by a court, 41 there shall be implied in such lease a covenant by the lease-hold 42 retirement community owner or operator, to pay to the home owner the 43 reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the home owner to 44 the same extent as is provided in section two hundred thirty-four of 45 this article which section shall apply in its entirety. A lease-hold 46 retirement community owner or operator may not demand that a home owner 47 pays attorneys' fees unless such fees have been awarded pursuant to a 48 court order.

49 12. Refusal to furnish service. Any lease-hold retirement community 50 owner or operator who has agreed to provide hot or cold water, heat, 51 light, power, or any other service or facility to an occupant of the 52 lease-hold retirement community shall not willfully or intentionally 53 fail to furnish such water, heat, light, power or other service or 54 facility, or interfere with the quiet enjoyment of the leased premises.

55 13. Receipts. Upon receipt of rent, fees, charges or other assess-56 ments, in the form of cash or any instrument other than the personal

1 check of the tenant, it shall be the duty of the lease-hold retirement 2 community owner or operator to provide the payor with a written receipt 3 containing the following:

4 (a) The date;

5 (b) The amount;

6 (c) The identity of the premises and the purpose for which paid; and 7 (d) The signature and title of the person receiving payment.

8 14. Remedies. The county attorney may commence an action to restrain, 9 prevent, and/or enjoin a violation of this section or a continuance of 10 such violation of this section or a continuance of such violation by a 11 lease-hold retirement community owner or operator.

12 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 233-b of the real property law, as added 13 by section 12 of part 0 of chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 14 read as follows:

15 1. The provisions of this section shall apply to all manufactured 16 homes located in a manufactured home park as defined in section two 17 hundred thirty-three of this article, however manufactured homes located 18 in manufactured home parks that are subject to a regulatory agreement 19 with a governmental entity to preserve affordable housing or that other-20 wise limits rent increases are exempt from the provisions of this 21 section. Homes in a lease-hold retirement community, as defined in 22 section two hundred thirty-eight-b of this article, shall also be 23 subject to the provisions of this section relating to rent increases the 24 same as a manufactured home park.

25 § 3. Severability. If any part or provision of this act or the appli-26 cation thereof to a person or circumstance is adjudged invalid by any 27 court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment shall be confined in its 28 operation to the part or the provision or application directly involved 29 in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered and 30 shall not affect or impair the validity of the remainder of this act or 31 application thereof to other persons or circumstances.

32 § 4. Nothing provided herein shall prohibit a county from enacting 33 more stringent standards for a lease-hold retirement community than are 34 established in section one of this act.

35 § 5. This act shall take effect on the first of October next succeed-36 ing the date on which it shall have become a law and shall apply to 37 sales, actions, rent increases, or leases involving lease-hold retire-38 ment community homes occurring or entered into on or after such date.
