

STATE OF NEW YORK

7450

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 26, 2023

Introduced by Sen. MANNION -- (at request of the Office for People with Developmental Disabilities) -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Disabilities

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to the release of patient or client clinical records to correctional facilities or a public health authority

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 10 of subdivision (c) of section 33.13 of the 2 mental hygiene law, as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 10. to a correctional facility, when the chief administrative officer
5 has requested such information with respect to a named incarcerated 6 individual of such correctional facility as defined by subdivision three 7 of section forty of the correction law or to the department of 8 corrections and community supervision, when the department has requested 9 such information with respect to a person under its jurisdiction or an 10 incarcerated individual of a state correctional facility, when such 11 incarcerated individual is within four weeks of release from such insti-12 tution [~~to community supervision~~]. However, clinical records in the 13 possession of the office for people with developmental disabilities may 14 be disclosed to the correctional facility or the department of 15 corrections and community supervision when such incarcerated individual 16 is within nine months of release from such institution. Clinical 17 records in the possession of the office for people with developmental 18 disabilities may be disclosed to a correctional facility and/or the 19 department of corrections and community supervision when a named 20 person who receives or is eligible to receive services that are oper-21 ated, certified, funded or approved by the office for people with 22 development disabilities has entered or will enter the custody of a 23 correctional facility, to the extent necessary to facilitate the conti-

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD06950-01-3

1 nulty of appropriate services. Information released pursuant to this 2 paragraph may be limited to a summary of the record, including but not 3 limited to: the basis for referral to the facility; the diagnosis upon 4 admission and discharge; a diagnosis and description of the patient's or 5 client's current mental condition; the current course of treatment,
6 medication and therapies; and the facility's recommendation for future
7 mental hygiene services, if any. Such information may be forwarded to 8 the department of corrections and community supervision staff in need of 9 such information for the purpose of making a determination regarding an 10 incarcerated individual's health care, security, safety or ability to 11 participate in programs. In the event an incarcerated individual is 12 transferred, the sending correctional facility shall forward, upon 13 request, such summaries to the chief administrative officer of any 14 correctional facility to which the incarcerated individual is subse-15 quently incarcerated. The office of mental health and the office for 16 people with developmental disabilities, in consultation with the commis-
17 sion of correction and the department of corrections and community 18 supervision, shall promulgate rules and regulations to implement the 19 provisions of this paragraph.

20 § 2. Subdivision (c) of section 33.13 of the mental hygiene law is 21 amended by adding a new paragraph 19 to read as follows:

22 19. to a public health authority, as defined in 45 CFR 164.501, that 23 is authorized by law to collect or receive such information for the 24 purpose of preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability, for 25 the purpose of preventing or controlling a public health emergency.

26 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.