Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to requiring milled roads within a city having a population of one million or more be paved over or resurfaced within seventy-two hours of such road being milled

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 333 to read as follows:

§ 333. Milled roads. Roads within a city having a population of one million or more which have been milled shall be paved over or resurfaced within seventy-two hours of such road being milled.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
