1 vote in any primary, special, or general election is guilty of a class A 2 misdemeanor.

3 4. Whoever, whether or not acting under color of law, by force or 4 threat of force, or violence, or threat of harm to any person or proper-5 ty including loss of employment or economic reprisal, willfully intim-
6 idates or attempts to intimidate any legally authorized election offi-
7 cial, or any person who is employed by, an agent, contractor, or vendor 8 of a legally authorized election official, administering or assisting in 9 the administration of any primary, special, or general election with the 10 intent to (a) impede or interfere with the official while the official 11 is engaged in the performance of the official's duties; or (b) retaliate 12 against the official on account of the official's performance of the 13 official's duties is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

14 5. Whoever, whether or not acting under color of law, willfully phys-
15 ically damages or threatens to physically damage any physical property
16 being used as a polling place or tabulation center or other election 17 infrastructure, with the intent to interfere with the administration of 18 an election or the tabulation or certification of votes, is guilty of a 19 class D felony.

20 6. For purposes of this section, de minimus damage or threats of de
21 minimus damage to physical property shall not be considered a violation 22 of this section.

23 7. Whoever, whether or not acting under color of law, obstructs, 24 impedes, or otherwise interferes with access to any polling place or 25 elections office, an election official's access to or egress from any 26 other building being used for election related purposes, or obstructs, 27 impedes, or otherwise interferes with any voter in any manner that caus-28 es or will reasonably have the effect of causing any delay in voting or 29 the voting process, including the canvassing and tabulation of ballots,
30 is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

31 8. The provisions of this section shall not apply to an enforcement 32 action by the state board of elections or the attorney general, or by a 33 county board of elections, in accordance with this section or any other 34 provision of law against an election judge or poll watcher for a 35 violation of a statute or a rule promulgated by the state board of 36 elections, or the election inspector's, poll clerk's or election coordi-
37 nator's oath.

38 9. (a) The attorney general, a county attorney, or an election offi-39 cial may bring a civil action to prevent or restrain a violation of this 40 section if there is a reasonable basis to believe that an individual or 41 entity is committing or intends to commit a prohibited act.

42 (b) In a civil action brought to prevent or restrain violations of 43 this subdivision or to require the payment of civil penalties, the 44 moving party may show that the action or attempted action would cause a 45 reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not need to 46 show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated.

47 (c) The attorney general, an election official or any individual
48 injured by an act prohibited by this section, may bring a civil action
49 to recover damages, together with costs of investigation and reasonable 50 attorney fees, and receive other equitable relief as determined by the 51 court. An action brought by an election official is in the public inter-52 est. In addition to all other damages, the court may impose a civil 53 penalty of up to three thousand dollars for each violation.

54 (d) Civil remedies allowable under this section are cumulative and do
55 not restrict any other right or remedy otherwise available. An action

1 for a penalty or remedy under this section shall be brought within two 2 years of the date the violation is alleged to have occurred.

3 10. For purposes of this section, the term:

4 (a) "election infrastructure" means any office of an election offi-
5 cial, staff, worker, or volunteer or any physical, mechanical, or elec-
6 trical device, structure, or tangible item used in the process of creat-
7 ing, distributing, voting, returning, counting, tabulating, auditing,
8 storing, canvassing or other handling of voter registration or ballot
9 information. Such term shall also include any equipment specified in 10 section 4-132 of this chapter.

11 (b) "election worker" means any election inspector, poll clerk or 12 election coordinator.

13 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
