Introduced by Sens. WEBER, CANZONERI-FITZPATRICK, GRIFFO, MARTINS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to prohibiting the grant of tuition assistance awards to any student who has knowingly engaged in certain antisemitic activities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act may be known and shall be cited as 2 "the combating campus antisemitism act".

3 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 666 of the education law, as amended by 4 chapter 947 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

5 2. Eligible students. Tuition awards may be made to students, who 6 comply with the requirements provided in subdivisions three, five and 7 six of section six hundred sixty-one of this article, and (i) are also 8 part-time students matriculated in approved undergraduate degree
9 programs or enrolled and accepted into registered certificate programs
10 and (ii) if eligible to claim dependents or to be claimed as dependents
11 under the tax law, whose incomes do not exceed fifty thousand five 12 hundred fifty dollars or if ineligible whose incomes do not exceed thir-
13 ty-four thousand two hundred fifty dollars. The continuation of eligi-14 bility for a tuition award shall require the retention of good academic 15 standing, as defined by the commissioner pursuant to article thirteen of 16 this chapter. Prior to the approval of any additional award pursuant to 17 this section, participating institutions shall review the academic 18 standing of all recipients of awards pursuant to this section; and 19 provided, further, that no tuition assistance award shall be provided to 20 any student, in any academic year, who has knowingly engaged in promot-21 ing antisemitism in a manner that is directed to inciting or producing 22 imminent lawless action and is likely to incite or produce such action, 23 that constitutes "true threats," as defined by the United States supreme

1 court in Virginia v. Black (2003), or that constitutes "fighting words," 2 pursuant to Chaplinsky v. New Hampshire (1942), or fails to adequately
3 address any such event. The term "antisemitism" shall have the same 4 meaning as the working definition for "antisemitism" as provided by the 5 International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance on May 26, 2016, including 6 the contemporary examples of antisemitism cited by the International 7 Holocaust Remembrance Alliance. The higher education services corpo-
8 ration of the state of New York shall establish guidelines for determin-9 ing when a student has knowingly engaged in promoting antisemitism as 10 well as guidelines for actions that may be taken to restore and/or 11 resume a tuition assistance award.

12 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 667 of the education law, as amended by 13 chapter 622 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

14 1. Recipient qualifications. Tuition assistance program awards are 15 available for all students who are enrolled in approved programs and who 16 demonstrate the ability to complete such courses, in accordance with 17 standards established by the commissioner provided, however, that no 18 award shall be made unless tuition (exclusive of educational fees) and,
19 if applicable, the college fee levied by the state university of New 20 York pursuant to the April first, nineteen hundred sixty-four financing 21 agreements with the New York state dormitory authority charged for the 22 program in which the student is enrolled total at least two hundred 23 dollars a year, [~~and provided further that,~~] no award can exceed one 24 hundred percent of the amount of tuition charged; and provided, further, 25 that no tuition assistance award shall be provided to any student, in 26 any academic year, who has knowingly engaged in promoting antisemitism
27 in a manner that is directed to inciting or producing imminent lawless
28 action and is likely to incite or produce such action, that constitutes 29 "true threats," as defined by the United States supreme court in Virgi-30 nia v. Black (2003), or that constitutes "fighting words," pursuant to 31 Chaplinsky v. New Hampshire (1942), or fails to adequately address any 32 such event. The term "antisemitism" shall have the same meaning as the 33 working definition for "antisemitism" as provided by the International 34 Holocaust Remembrance Alliance on May 26, 2016, including the contempo-
35 rary examples of antisemitism cited by the International Holocaust 36 Remembrance Alliance. The higher education services corporation of the 37 state of New York shall establish guidelines for determining when a 38 student has knowingly engaged in promoting antisemitism as well as 39 guidelines for actions that may be taken to restore and/or resume a 40 tuition assistance award.

41 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 667-a of the education law, as amended 42 by chapter 83 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

43 1. Legislative intent. The legislature hereby finds that to further 44 the goal of equal opportunity it is necessary to assure the availability 45 of supplemental assistance for the successful remediation of educa-46 tionally disadvantaged students in addition to assistance currently 47 available under existing statute for students with financial need.
48 Accordingly, tuition assistance shall be extended to students whose need 49 for remediation precludes them from fulfilling the program pursuit and 50 academic progress requirements of the tuition assistance program; and 51 provided, further, that no supplemental tuition assistance award shall 52 be provided to any student, in any academic year, who has knowingly 53 engaged in promoting antisemitism in a manner that is directed to incit-54 ing or producing imminent lawless action and is likely to incite or 55 produce such action, that constitutes "true threats," as defined by the 56 United States supreme court in Virginia v. Black (2003), or that constitutes "fighting words," pursuant to Chaplinsky v. New Hampshire (1942), or fails to adequately address any such event. The term "antisemitism" shall have the same meaning as the working definition for "antisemitism" as provided by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance on May 26, 2016, including the contemporary examples of antisemitism cited by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance. The higher education services corporation of the state of New York shall establish guidelines for determining when a student has knowingly engaged in promoting antisemitism as well as guidelines for actions that may be taken to restore and/or resume a tuition assistance award.

§ 5. Subdivision 1 of section 667-c of the education law, as amended by section 1 of part E of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022 and paragraph (b) as amended by section 1 of part EE of chapter 56 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

1. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the president of the higher education services corporation is authorized to make tuition assistance program awards to:

a. part-time students enrolled at the state university, a community college, the city university of New York, and a non-profit college or university incorporated by the regents or by the legislature who meet all requirements for tuition assistance program awards except for the students' part-time attendance; and provided, further, that no part-time tuition assistance award shall be provided to any student, in any academic year, who has knowingly engaged in promoting antisemitism in a manner that is directed to inciting or producing imminent lawless action and is likely to incite or produce such action, that constitutes "true threats," as defined by the United States supreme court in Virginia v. Black (2003), or that constitutes "fighting words," pursuant to Chaplinsky v. New Hampshire (1942), or fails to adequately address any such event. The term "antisemitism" shall have the same meaning as the working definition for "antisemitism" as provided by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance on May 26, 2016, including the contemporary examples of antisemitism cited by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance. The higher education services corporation of the state of New York shall establish guidelines for determining when a student has knowingly engaged in promoting antisemitism as well as guidelines for actions that may be taken to restore and/or resume a tuition assistance award; or

b. part-time students enrolled at a community college or a public agricultural and technical college in a non-degree workforce credential program directly leading to the employment or advancement of a student in a "significant industry" as identified by the department of labor in its three most recent statewide significant industries reports published preceding the student's enrollment in such non-degree workforce credential program. The state university of New York and the city university of New York shall publish and maintain a master list of all eligible non-degree workforce credential program courses and update such list every semester. Eligible non-degree workforce credential programs shall include those programs less than twelve semester hours, or the equivalent, per semester. A student who successfully completes a non-degree workforce credential program and receives part-time tuition assistance program awards pursuant to this paragraph shall be awarded academic credit by the state university of New York or city university of New York upon matriculation into a degree program at such institution, provided that such credit shall be equal to the corresponding credit hours earned in the non-degree workforce credential program; and

1 provided, further, that no part-time tuition assistance award shall be
2 provided to any student, in any academic year, who has knowingly engaged 3 in promoting antisemitism in a manner that is directed to inciting or 4 producing imminent lawless action and is likely to incite or produce 5 such action, that constitutes "true threats," as defined by the United 6 States supreme court in Virginia v. Black (2003), or that constitutes 7 "fighting words," pursuant to Chaplinsky v. New Hampshire (1942), or 8 fails to adequately address any such event. The term "antisemitism"
9 shall have the same meaning as the working definition for "antisemitism"
10 as provided by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance on May 11 26, 2016, including the contemporary examples of antisemitism cited by 12 the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance. The higher education
13 services corporation of the state of New York shall establish guidelines 14 for determining when a student has knowingly engaged in promoting anti-15 semitism as well as guidelines for actions that may be taken to restore 16 and/or resume a tuition assistance award.

17 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
