1 (1) (A) has been confirmed as a victim of human trafficking by the 2 office of temporary and disability assistance and the division of criminal 3 justice services, pursuant to section four hundred eighty-three-cc 4 of this chapter; or

5 (B) has provided a sworn statement that the noncitizen is a foreign-6 born victim of trafficking or domestic violence and other serious crimes
7 for which immigration relief is available via pursuit of a T or U visa,
8 Violence Against Women Act related petition or application, special 9 immigrant juvenile status, or application for asylum, in addition to at 10 least one item of corroborating evidence, including, but not limited to:

11 (I) a written notice from the federal agency confirming receipt of the 12 T or U visa application, Violence Against Women Act related petition or 13 application, special immigrant juvenile status, claim that the nonciti-14 zen is a victim of torture, or application for asylum; or

15 (II) attestation from an attorney or service provider that the noncit-16 izen is a victim of human trafficking, domestic violence or any other 17 crimes that form the basis for applying for a T or U visa, filing a 18 Violence Against Women Act related petition or application, filing for 19 special immigrant juvenile status, a victim of torture, or filing an 20 application for asylum and that the noncitizen is on the waiting list 21 for legal or social services related to such victimization; provided, 22 however, that if an attorney who provided a noncitizen with an attesta-
23 tion under this subclause is no longer able to represent the noncitizen
24 for these immigration needs, the noncitizen may submit a new attestation 25 from another attorney, which will start anew the deadline to apply for 26 immigration relief.

27 (2) (A) For a noncitizen who has filed a petition or application for 28 immigration relief pursuant to subclause (B) of clause one of this 29 subparagraph, benefits issued pursuant to this subparagraph shall be 30 available to the noncitizen and their spouse and unmarried children
31 under twenty-one years of age for the duration that such noncitizen's 32 immigration-related petition or application is pending. For petitions or 33 applications that remain pending two years after the initial filing of 34 such petition or application, the administering entities issuing the 35 temporary assistance to needy families block grant program, the safety 36 net assistance program or medical assistance to eligible noncitizens 37 shall issue requests for confirmation of pending status.

38 (B) For noncitizens who have not yet filed a petition or application
39 for immigration relief pursuant to subclause (B) of clause one of this 40 subparagraph, benefits issued pursuant to this subparagraph shall be 41 available for up to two years for the noncitizen and their spouse and 42 unmarried children under twenty-one years of age. Such benefits shall 43 discontinue if there is a final administrative denial of the immigra-
44 tion-related petition or application under Section 1101(a)(15)(T), 45 1101(a)(15)(U), 1101(a)(27)(J), 1101(a)(51), 1158, or 1229b(b)(2) of 46 Title 8 of the United States Code.

47 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
