IN SENATE

December 13, 2023

Introduced by Sen. MURRAY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the award of crime victim assistance funds to victims of overdoses, where such overdoses were the result of deception, surreptitious delivery, or third-party administration of a controlled substance which causes death

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (e) of subdivision 1 of section 632-a of the executive law, as amended by section 24 of part A-1 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph a "specified crime" shall not mean or include an offense defined in any of the following articles of the penal law: articles one hundred fifty-eight, one hundred seventy-eight, [~~two hundred twenty, two hundred twenty-one,~~] two hundred twenty-five, and two hundred thirty.

§ 2. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 1 of section 632-a of the executive law is amended by adding a new subparagraph (iii) to read as follows:

(iii) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph a "specified crime" shall not mean or include an offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law unless it is demonstrated that such offense (A) involves the death of the victim; (B) involves deception, surreptitious delivery, or third-party administration of a controlled substance by another person; and (C) the victim's consumption of the controlled substance was predicated upon, or a direct result of, the deception, surreptitious delivery, or third-party administration by another person. For purposes of this subparagraph, an act of "deception" shall include, but not be limited to, a circumstance where a third-party sells, administers, delivers, or causes delivery of a mixture, compound, or combination of substances and does not disclose to the immediate next
